SPIRIT: ANDREW

Medium: Al Fike Location: WHC, Blackpool, UK Date: October 4, 2013

You do not walk alone, my children, but you walk in God's care, and His Hand is upon each one of you. As you seek the Father's Love within, so you invite the Heavenly Father to carry you into light, to guide you along your life's path, over hills and into valleys and from light to dark to light.

You are carried through your life's path by God. And His Love flows within you as you beseech the Father for this gift. And you are welcomed into these Loving Arms, embraced and fed and nurtured, and given the wisdom, the blessings which bring understanding and vision, which draw to you a wondrous opening, a gracious understanding of God's creation.

Be at peace, my children, and know you walk in light. You are children of light, and that longing within your souls will bring to you all that you desire, will bring truth and love and understanding and peace.

God bless you, dear sweet souls. I am Andrew and I love you and I welcome you into this circle where we will pray together and we will receive greater insight, bounteous love, fellowship, brotherhood and sisterhood in light and love. Blessings to you, love to you, dear souls. Drink deep the Father's Love. God bless you.

SPIRIT: JESUS

I come. Bless you, my children, it is Jesus. I come to be with my brothers and sisters who long for the truth of the Father's Love in their lives, who have struggled and parted the barriers to receiving this truth, and following this path of Love. And for many of you the struggle for truth has been great. For many of you there have been obstacles deep within and you have longed for the Father's Love and pushed aside these things that would hold you from the Father. For the desire within your souls is great, and as you reach for God, and God reaches for you, there has been this blessing, this benediction of Love given to your souls. And in this struggle I have prayed for you; in this way, we rejoice for you. In your efforts comes great light and the possibility to be a channel of Love in this world that so desperately needs this Love and Light, that so desperately needs souls who follow the Will of God and bring truth and wisdom, healing and light, comfort for the many who suffer, who walk this world in blindness and ignorance, who are alone, who suffer greatly.

This is my work, my children, to bring comfort and love to the lost souls. And I beseech you to follow this path and follow my guidance and give to the lost souls, to be a channel of love in this world, to dissipate the darkness, to bring peace. As you walk, my children, you will have great opportunities to be a channel of love. We will guide you.

We will take you to those places of need, of darkness, and we will guide you and show you the way. So much work is needed. Work of light, of love, of peace. Walk with me, my children. Walk with me. And I will show you God's Love and Light that lights our way. The path is clear. It is beautiful, it is bright.

Long for the Divine Love to enter your souls in great abundance, and all will be added unto you, my children, all will be added unto you. Do you not feel the joy of God's Love, of God's Presence with us? It is a gift to you, a gift to all souls who desire this Love. Be joyed, my children, and know that you are truly loved. Be joyed, and love yourselves truly.

God bless you, and I love you. I love all my brothers and sisters who long for God's Love, and I love all who are in the darkness, yet within them there is that desire. Look towards the flame. Bring the flame within you. Be in this perfect grace. Walk this loving path and be at peace. And know that the Angels surround you and guide you and uphold you. God bless you, my dear sweet souls, my love is always with you, and God's Love surrounds you. Breathe it in, take it into yourselves, my children, the redeeming Love. It is yours, a gift from God, in Love.

Blessings to you. Thank you for gathering and listening to my call, for my family of love to be together in gracious joy, in loving commitment, in eagerness to know the truth that is Love. I love you.

SPIRIT: FAITH

It is Faith here. My elder brother Jesus has spoken to you. And those of you who know me, listen to these words, for he speaks the truth. Put away your fears and your biases, and that which you think you hold true to yourselves, and be as children listening to this message of love, and you will find redemption and freedom in that; you will find light and joy.

This simple truth is powerful—the greatest blessing that can be given to any soul. Follow Jesus and his light. He leads you into redemption and love. There is nothing to fear and everything to gain, to allow this Love to come into your souls. Its magnificent healing power will bring to you everything you need; all that is required is yours with this gift.

God bless you and thank you for coming. I am so happy to be here amongst you and I want to tell you there are many, many Angels surrounding us, a great light here. There has been a great light here for many years, and this light is enhanced by your love and your being here in loving acceptance and communion.

Thank you, my friends, for being willing to step into this light and grow in this Love. It will clear the way to great, great understanding and wisdom, and freedom from all your worries and cares, your pains and your burdens. Be at peace and know that God above cares for you deeply and will lead you into light, light everlasting, loving joy, redemptive grace.

God bless you. I am Faith and I love you. And I love all of you who struggle for the light, who long for truth. It will come. It will come in drops of rain and mighty rivers, in beams of sunlight and rushes of ecstasy, and it will come for all eternity. God bless you and good night.

SPIRIT: AUGUSTINE

God bless you, dear sweet souls. It is Augustine. I was Bishop of Hippo while on Earth. And I am so very glad to see all of you gathered here in this sanctuary, in this house of light. And I want you to know that you are creating a great light here in your prayers in conjunction with our prayers and God's loving attention upon all of us; there is a light being created in this place, at these times.

And the purpose of this light is to bring change into this world. The purpose of this light is for the power of God's Love to manifest in this world in ways that will have great benefit to mankind in the near future. For your world, and all of your brothers and sisters upon this world are undergoing great stresses and difficulties and disharmonies, and there is a need for healing on many levels for this planet and for all who dwell upon her.

Mankind for too long has taken what he wants and not honoured the creation of God, not given in love back in a way that would create balance and harmony. There is so much that you need to know, my children, and mankind operates from a level of knowledge that is inadequate to deal with the disharmonies that he is creating. And this is a dangerous situation—destructive, bringing great harm to many creatures and creations and elements of this beautiful Earth.

And so I ask you, my children, to keep in your thoughtful awareness what may be done to heal your home, this creation, this blessing of God; to direct your prayers to the Heavenly Father to bring healing and knowledge and love to your brothers and sisters, and to this place. And as you pray together for God's Love in this sanctuary, you are creating conditions that will help to heal this planet and bring greater awareness and love to mankind.

There are many things that can manifest through your prayers and your loving harmony together in this place that will assist and circumvent destructive ways. There is great ignorance, my friends, great ignorance to overcome, and blindness, and an inability to love. Yes, the work is great, the challenges so very difficult. But God's Love is the most powerful energy in the universe, my children. It will overcome all barriers, heal all error and bring all balance. And you are praying for this Love to enter your souls, and in this you become agents of change in the world.

Your very presence in the world will bring change. And I say it is not so much what you speak, or what you think, it is in who you are and the Love that you carry and the Love that flows through you from the Heavenly Father that will make the greatest impact, the most beautiful touch to those who require the awakening of their souls and their consciousness, their awareness; to bring love into their lives in every way, for this is what is required to make the changes necessary to bring love in every way to this world.

Can you do this, my children? Can you pray to be an instrument of God's Will, a channel of God's Love? To lay down your fears and your prejudices? To allow God to work through you? And I tell you, my friends, this will bring great change, you will be guided, you will touch many souls, and in turn, they will touch many souls, and this flame of truth and love and healing and light will spread one to the other to the other. And it is for you to start the flame, for God to bless you with this flame, and for you to touch another soul. It starts with your soul, my children, your beautiful souls who desire to be close to God, in harmony with these laws of love, and an instrument of peace.

Can you do this, my children? Can you follow this path in willing commitment, in loving and honouring of God's Will and honouring the blessing that is your life? Yes, the challenges are great, but the power of love is beyond your understanding; but you will understand, stepping along the Divine Path. Go ever closer to God, ever closer to the Divine Will, and your eyes will open, and your understanding will magnify, and your perceptions will grow from the soul, and that part of you within that eagerly awaits your acceptance of its existence, its life, your soul, that part will emerge into your consciousness in beautiful ways, in piercing awareness, in loving action. And you will know, my children, you will know the steps, you will understand the purpose that has been imbued within each soul here and that every soul in creation has been given a gift of a purpose, a part to play in the beautiful flow of creation.

And that purpose will bring fulfillment and joy, and God will acknowledge your efforts to bring light into this world. And you will know great peace. You will know great peace. Within this room, within your souls, lies the potential to change the world, my children, if you are willing, if you desire this, if you pray for the Love to change your world and unleash the magnificent gifts and abilities that lie within you, my children. For what you are aware of is but a speck of what is possible within. Great understanding will come. Deep insights and love will manifest through you. And you will affect, in wondrous ways, changes in this world that are required to bring harmony and balance and healing. Together we build a light to envelop the planet, a network of light that will bring change and a higher level of consciousness for all. So I present to you, my children, the invitation to walk upon this path and listen, listen with the ears of your souls, the desire of your souls, the love within your souls, and this will come to pass, and you will help to bring the salvation of mankind to fruition.

Beautiful souls, listen to my words, understand their meaning, pray for the changes within and without, pray for the Love to bring grace into your life, understanding to your awareness, love to your hearts. And we will all walk together to a bright future, to a place where love is more important than the material.

Love will be the currency of mankind. Love will permeate everything. And there will be peace, great peace, so that your children and their children and your children's children will live a life of joy, fulfilling and beautiful. Is this not worth your efforts, to bring these gifts to these unborn children and those born? Is this not worth your prayers? Is this not worth your commitment to lay your will aside and accept the Will of God? I tell you the rewards will be beyond your imagining, and the gifts given will flow and envelop this world.

I have placed my calling before you, my call to act in love, and I desire your response and prayerful beseeching of the Father for Love. Ask with every breath, with every breath, that God's Love flows into your souls and brings to you what you require to fulfill your purpose, to bring this Love to all mankind. God bless you, precious souls, souls filled with the promise of new life, healing, and wisdom. God bless you. I am Augustine and I love you.

SPIRIT: JESUS

God bless you. We are now in an ocean of God's Love, my children. Will you bathe with me? Shall we swim within this ocean of Love? For too long mankind has walked in the desert and has been parched and lost, fearful of what direction to walk, unable to see the path to water, the living waters of God's Love.

Will you bathe with me, and drink of these waters? Allow this water of life to flow through every part of your being, to bring light and lightness to your beings, my children. Too long has mankind been in the dark, thirsting and seeking, in ways that do not satisfy the soul. Will you bathe with me in these waters and find what you seek, to be enveloped in this warmth, this fluid of Love, and all your cares and worries, my children, will fall away, washed away by these waters. And you will find respite there, great relief, and great joy.

Will you bathe with me in God's Love? For this mighty river of Love washes over us, my children, sweeping us away from those places of loneliness and weariness, those places of anxiety and fear, into a place of redemption and respite and peace. Come bathe with me, my children, in the living waters of God's Love, and you will know, you will know within you that this is where you are meant to be, as God gathers you to this place of respite and love.

Come bathe with me and we will know this joy together; for all eternity, this joy shall be had by all who are willing to swim in the ocean of Love. God loves you, my children. Do you really know this? Can you accept this? Can you bring this within yourselves and be embraced by this sure knowing that you are loved and cherished by God, and in this, you shall love and cherish yourself, you shall love and cherish your brothers and sisters, and a deep knowing of the truth of this Love will carry you through all that assails you, through the world that is of a cold heart. This Love shall carry you and bring you the strength that you require and the acceptance and the compassion and the understanding. It shall allow you to walk over those difficult passages and feel joy because you are loved, loved beyond measure, loved, as if, an ocean loved and redeemed.

Lay your worries and cares at the feet of the Father. Allow God to wash away these cares, and feel the joy, and the peace that passes all understanding shall be yours. Ask and you shall be given. Ask and the doors will open. Walk the path of Love. Be the Love. Drink deep the Love. God bless you. I am your brother and your servant Jesus, and I love you. I love you so much. And I am joyed that you are here together in love. God bless you.

SPIRIT: CONFUCIUS

My children, it is Confucius. Yes, I reside in the Celestial Heavens, my children. And I love you and I bring my love and healing to you, my children. And yes, my little birds, you flock together, as do birds of a feather flock together (laughs). And you all have beautiful souls, longing for the Father's Love; and yes, that Love pours into your souls in great abundance, my little birds, so that you may fly higher, closer to God, and know the joy of flight and Love, Love Divine, filling you and making you ever lighter and more beautiful, that your feathers may shine in rainbow colours and your souls may glisten in loving light.

Seek the Love of God, my children, seek the Love of God with every breath, and you will know the glory of flight, you will know the Heavens. Be joyed at what God has created and you will know the beauty that God has created that is your soul, your being, unique and beautiful.

So much of yourselves you do not know, but shall know. In your flying, in your pursuit of truth, you will know, from deep within, the wonderment of God's creation, the glory that is God. Long for this Love. Feel that longing, my children. Bring that longing forth, and your wings shall spread and you shall take flight in Heavens of light.

Yes, this old spirit from China honours you for your efforts and your loving, loving tributes to God. I love you, and I am with you in your prayers, in your desire for Love. God bless you. Confucius loves you.

WHC, BLACKPOOL, UK – October 2013

SPIRIT: CONFUCIUS

Little birds, I see you have been flocking together as birds of a feather will do. And I see you have been resting upon the hands of the Master, picking at the grains of truth, consuming these truths that will nourish you as you fly off to your perches. And yes, my dear sweet souls, winged souls, you will come together again. Some of you in smaller groups, some of you altogether in greater groups, but I want you to know, my children, that through your songs of love, as you share with one another, you will always be together as brothers and sisters flocking in love around our Master Jesus.

And your efforts to bring light into the world will show others how to fly and to know the Father's Love. And you will soar and they will follow, you will flap your beautiful wings and they will see your flight and wish to join you in loving patterns in the air, in God's beautiful Heavens.

I am with you, my children. Confucius loves you dearly and I shall continue to be with you all in your prayers, in your seeking of truth and love, as you reach to God to receive the manna from Heaven. And I will fly with you and I will pray with you and I will teach you as will many Angels.

As you carry the light from this beautiful place to where you abide, and yes those who wish to gather the souls together to teach and to love, we will assist you in your efforts in this regard. We will draw the souls to you. Be a channel of love, my children. Do not judge. And for those who have thoughts different from yours I say to you that the soul knows greater wisdom than the mind and your presence will call the soul to come forward into the consciousness and they will know the truth as you know the truth.

In these simple, yet spoken words, "I am loved by God and I love you because you are loved by God and I accept you because you are my brother and my sister and I reach out my hand to you because I acknowledge the beauty that you are". This is being a channel of God's Love, my children, to uphold the lost souls, to feed the hungry, to walk in light, to be truly who you are meant to be. And you have been called by the Master to be his disciple and when he walked the Earth was he not a channel of love and acceptance? Did he not feed the hungry? Did he not heal and give love wherever love would be accepted? This simple walk, this simple way is the greatest and highest walk and way that can be the flow of God's Love.

Blessings to all of you, my children, those who are departing the nest you carry with you a gift of light that shall be with you always. You carry with you a bond of love with your brothers and sisters here that shall draw you back again and bring to you comfort and the knowledge that you are part of a loving family and there will always be respite, under this roof there will always be respite.

Blessings to you, my children, my beautiful little birds, such loving souls. God will carry you into flight and bring you to places you have not seen and take you into light, glorious light. God bless you and God be with you. God is with you. I love you.

SPIRIT: BROTHER MANDUS

Tis your Brother, Mandus here. I want you all to know that I approve greatly of this gathering and what you have done here and what you have accomplished here. This is the glory of God and an answer to your prayers. And I want you to know that I wish to see more of this activity in this building that has languished for so long. And there is great work to be done here and I am very, very happy to see the work that I started many years ago continuing in this way for it is the truth, it is in harmony with the efforts that have been made in the past and will continue to be made in the future.

I will not speak more other than to say, "Thank you" for gathering as you have and bringing this light and praying for one another, for this world, and for we in Spirit. For many, many have benefitted from your efforts. Many have benefitted both in the Spirit world and in this world. You are on the right track and you will continue to be guided along this road for you do the work of our beloved brother, Jesus, and he will guide all of us in ways of light and love.

The Divine Love is the highest blessing given to any soul, and I encourage those of you who know me and know of my work to pursue this blessing. It will bring all that you require. I know because I have pursued this truth and I know the power of this truth and the beauty of this truth of Love. Carry on, walk in the footsteps of truth and I will pray for your success. I am so very happy with these efforts and your willingness to bring light to this place, a gift from God. Thank you and good evening to you.

SPIRIT: JESUS

My Heavenly Father, I ask you to pour Your Love upon these dear, sweet souls, my brothers and sisters who walk upon this world and seek the light, and seek you in loving communion. Gracious God, my Loving Father, these are your children, and they are beautiful in your sight, and they carry light in this world. May your peace be a mantel upon these, thy children. Blessed Father, keep them safe in this world. May Your Love carry them through all the conditions of this world, the many trials and tribulations, and the beauty that is your creation. Those who walk with me walk in the path of love. You are my disciples. Each and every soul who desires to walk in the truth of God's Love is a disciple of mine, and I walk with you. With every step I am with you, and my love for you is deep, and God's Love for you is infinite. And I will carry you, I will carry you. And the Angels will be at your side, each one who wishes to be in the flow of God's Love will be loved and protected and guided and shown the way to truth in all its beauty and simplicity.

The road, my children, is straight, and upon that road the Love pours upon you and keeps you upon this road of loving understanding, allows you to see your direction, lights your way and shows you the beauty that is you, your souls, and brings to you the Holy connection with your soul and God's Soul. Trust in this, my children. Trust in this great truth and all else will come to you as you make your steps in faith and love.

The truth is without words. It is a knowing within. And in this way, you may acknowledge all souls who desire light and love. No matter their mental understandings; do not fear this or judge this, but love every soul. Let your judgments fall away, my children, and in this way you will love all humanity in the way that God intends, in the way that will bring peace and joy to this world. For there is a great need for healing, a great need to bring humanity together in love, a great need for all of us to set aside these fears and judgments and error.

Walk the Path Divine, my children. I will be with you, and God is ever with you in His Loving Care. In His Loving Care, God is ever with you. Never doubt this, my children. Even when you have despair, never doubt that God is with you, and you may reach out to your Heavenly Father for comfort and love and it shall be there, always, in great abundance.

I call you, my children, to be my disciples, to grasp the truth close to your bosom as best you can, and walk in love with every step, and be a channel of God's Love always, evermore, in the name of God and truth and love and light. This is my calling to you, my children, and I love you, and I have deep compassion for your struggles, for this world is not an easy place. There are many who would turn away from you in this light, but you must persist, for many do turn towards you and desire what you have, are eager for truth and love and understanding. And God's Care will always be with you, my children. And though the conditions of the world seem insurmountable, I tell you that love is greater, love is greater than all the darkness and all the suffering.

You are my children, my family. I love you as if you are family. And there is great joy in the Heavens that you have come together in joyous love and that you sit in prayer together in this way. And I see many such gatherings, my children, and many more coming. This is just the beginning. The door has opened. The Love will rush through. The Love will pour into your souls and give you what you require to be channels and instruments of change in this world. It shall be so. For those of you willing to step forward and be my disciple, my invitation stands for every soul in this room, to walk with me in this loving, loving effort to heal this world, to bring light to all the children of this world, and to bring a future of light for all the children coming to this world. The road will not be easy, but the work will be mighty and beautiful and filled with great promise and loving acts and healing words. I am your brother Jesus. I have come. I am here. And God brings great light to this room. The light of His Love, the light of His Presence, the light of healing and peace. Open yourselves to this benediction, this blessing. God bless you.

SPIRIT: JOHN THE BELOVED

The river of Love flows into you, and great gushes of living light, of Loving Essence of the Creator. Open wide and your souls will know the true Love, the true understanding of redemption, for you will be claimed by God and carried by God, and you will give yourselves to God, and know His Will in this way.

Do not doubt the words of Jesus, for he comes in truth always, and has shared a deep love with you, and an invitation. Carry this with you, and contemplate this, and make your choice, for this choice is profound, will bring great change to your lives, will open many doors. To do the work of God, to heal the hungry hearts of humanity, to show the way to peace—now is the time, my children, for this effort. The world is in deep need, and without the efforts of those who are strong and in love, the consequences are too great to contemplate.

There is much to be done at this time, and you must, my children, take seriously this invitation. You are all capable of making great contributions to this world through the development of your souls with love. And I say to you pray and pray for this Love. Beseech the Father with every breath, and the change will take place within and give you what you require to do this work.

I am John the Beloved, and I love you, gracious children of love. The Angels surround you in great, great numbers, more than has ever been in this world. And they come to reinforce this message of love, of work, of understanding, that there is great need in this world, and your souls know that they may be of service to God in beautiful ways, in healing ways, in loving ways.

Be at peace, my children, and know that God is always with you in His Love, in His Care, and you will be shown the way, each step given as a gift, of guidance and love, of knowing. Do not feel anxious, but know that in the flow of God's Love all will be harmonious and unfold in ways that will be harmonious for you, my children, each one unique on your path, beautiful in your souls, gifted in many unique and glorious ways. Your purpose will be fulfilled. God bless you, my beautiful children. Acknowledge that each of you has struggled to come to this place, and in this struggle you have been strengthened. In your choices you have chosen rightly and righteously with truth and love. And this gives you a wondrous gift. God bless you, beautiful souls, God bless you.

My dear beloved children, beautiful souls, we are well pleased with your efforts and your prayers and the gathering you have gathered, and the efforts you have made, and the conversations and the prayers. And yes, you have made your plans and gaze into the future and you wonder in excitement what God has in store for you. And I tell you that the gates have been opened, the path has been laid, and we on our side of life have worked very diligently to facilitate this opening, in this direction. For it is part of God's Plan and we and you desire to be in the flow of God's Plan and Will.

And in that desire comes a humility and a willingness to listen to the guidance given, the promptings from your souls. For it is your souls, my children, that know where you are headed what direction that is, how your gifts and your capacity to love will manifest. This is within the capacity of your soul to know, for as God puts His Love within your souls, it ignites this knowing and this ability.

Your challenge, my children, is to look within and access this knowledge, this knowing, as God speaks to you in His still, sweet voice within, you will be prompted, and if you are willing to lay aside your mental constructs of what is meant to be, if you are willing to let go of your fears and your prejudices, if you are willing to step forth in faith and in quiet, humble listening to your guidance, the path will be clear, the understanding will be unmistakable, and the expression of your gifts for God, the loving flow through you will be clear and powerful, beautiful and cause great change in this world and in your world.

Yes, we invite you to live a different life, a life that is reborn in love, a life whose priorities and focus is not of the material but of the spiritual. A life that will bring to you wondrous events, beautiful souls along your path and work that shall clear away the darkness that is so prevalent in this world, for this is what is required and it requires strength, my children, it requires commitment, and it requires your accepting of God's Will.

And if you are able, and I know you are willing, then this work will begin in earnest, and much will be given to support this work. And God will pour His Love upon you and provide His Angelic Loving, Support to you. And many faculties within will open and you will see the world so very differently and that will be powerful and beautiful and with that vision comes an understanding, a deep understanding of the conditions of this world, and I am sorry to say that this is not beautiful, though it is powerful. And for this you must go to your Father and ask Him to heal you of your judgments and of your fear of seeing the depth of the deprivation and error that is present in your world.

Yes, it takes strength my children, and a focus on light and love. You cannot walk this path in judgment, you cannot be a channel of love with anger and resentment and fear. You must walk in grace and love and acceptance. And yes, the love will fill your souls and remove these conditions within and you must allow this, my children, for each of you steps upon the path in your own unique way and at your own unique pace.

And as you walk further, the pace quickens, the love flows more freely, and the awarenesses come more intensely. And this will unfold in harmony and you will not be overburdened or overtaxed. It will be in accordance to your will and your ability to allow the Father's Love to enfold you and heal you and remake you. It is a glorious journey, my children. It will bring such depth to your lives, such depth. There will be no regrets, only joy that you have chosen a life full of life, full of understanding and love.

Yes, our Master Jesus has given you an invitation to walk with him in this way and it is our fervent prayer that each and every one here will grasp his hand and say, "I am willing Master, I am willing to walk with you, to understand what true love is, to understand what true life is, to be a child of God in every way and to be with God in glorious, peaceful, loving ways". It shall bring such deep joy to you, my children, that there will always be that joy no matter what may happen outside of you, that love will carry you and bring you to peace and acceptance and grace.

There are many gifts here in this room. Each and every soul present here has something to contribute. There is much wisdom here, and if you share that wisdom with your brothers and sisters, if you collectively pool your gifts, your wisdom, your love, your desire to bring love and change to this world, this will happen. This will happen, I have no doubt for God creates within His children great capacity, great ability, wondrous gifts and they are ignited by the Love, by the Essence of God coming into you and bringing this life, this spark that shall bring these gifts to life.

You barely know yourselves, my children, you barely know who you are. And as you walk along this road, this life is revealed to you, so God will reveal you to yourself and show you the beauty that is you and bring you to that place of deep and clear understanding that you are truly the greatest creation in all the universe.

So we come together at this junction, this road, and the invitation has been given and the Love and the healing has been poured upon you, my children, giving you a glimpse into what is possible. And now it is your choice. It is your choice to move forward upon this path, to follow the Master and his work, to be a channel of God in your beautiful and unique ways. Much guidance will be given as you pray for the Love, as you pray for the Love, my children. This is key to everything. This must be your focus each and every day, each and every breath, each and every thought, "Father, I am with you, Father I love you, Father use me as a channel of your love in whatever way that you desire. I will lay down my will for your Will. I will lay down my life to bring life to this world". And we pray for you that not only will you accept this invitation but understand the depth of this invitation, how profound this is and how beautiful it is. You are given a great gift and a great challenge. And we will always be with you, no matter your choice, God will always love you and the Angels will uphold you, for you have the love within your souls, claimed by God in this way. Children, dear sweet children, it is time to grow up. It is time to claim your purpose and to know your souls, and to know your souls to know God and all will be well.

Be at peace. You are loved. I am John, John the Beloved and I love you and will support you always in your desire for Truth and love and peace, as will many. Your needs will be met, my children, in every way with each day. God bless you. God bless you.

And I want to comment upon your gathering and wish to say that I am humbled by what you have accomplished here in these few short days. The light that you have brought to this place, the laughter and the joy and the camaraderie warms my heart. For too long these halls have been empty of laughter and camaraderie.

And when I lived here I worked unceasingly to bring many into this place and tried to bring light. And I was given many insights by the Angels and indeed I shared much with all of you who came, and it is now time to reignite the flame of life in this place and open the doors, open the windows, open all of this beautiful place to the light, to the joy, to humanity.

There is no better time than now. There is no greater need than now. And there are no greater opportunities than now, for God has gathered His children into this place and they are willing to add their light, their joy, their wisdom, their love to open the doors. And I am so very happy as are many of us in Spirit who have had their time here, but we also gather to be with you in celebration of the opening of these doors to greater light, to wondrous love, to Angelic revelations, to an increased fellowship. This is part of God's Will, my friends, do not resist but open your hearts and embrace your fellow seekers of truth as they embrace you. And in the end, is it not all about love and living your life in the light, and putting aside your fears and your judgments and all those things that keep us from loving one another and loving God?

And I thank all of you for bringing life to this place. I thank God for sending you here to this place that was once my home and has a deep, abiding love within me for this place. I am joyed, so very joyed at what is happening here and there are many surprises to come and experiences and gatherings and a joyful dance celebrating the Love of God.

God bless you, each and every one here. I want you to know that I love you all and that I appreciate each one for are we not all children of God? And we all want the same things, and we are all pursuing the truth. Thank you, thank you. The doors will open even wider. Listen to your guidance. Those of you who are making the decisions for this place, God's Will will be whispered in your ears and you will know the right thing and how this will come about in harmony, for legions of Angels will support you, as do I, as does my husband and his father and our Heavenly Father. God bless you, beloved friends.

Medium: Al Fike Location: WHC, Blackpool, UK Date: October 8, 2013

God bless you, my children, it is Confucius. The doors begin to open and I encourage you to walk through these doors, my children. For greater understanding and opportunities await you through these many doors that are open and beckoning you to greater service to the Heavenly Father.

And we in the Celestial Kingdom accompany you, holding each of your hands in joyous celebration of your efforts and your desire and willingness to walk through the thresholds and trusting in the Will of God in this way. You will be guided, you will be supported and you will be loved.

Every step a joyous step, every experience a dedication to your love to God, every insight a wondrous revelation, every act of giving a beautiful nurturing of the garden of humanity. Do not be afraid, be joyed, for God's Hand is upon you and you will know great fulfillment in your life as change comes to your world. For much of this world that is made by man cannot endure much longer, my children, for it is so very out of harmony with creation and God gives you the opportunity to be teachers and healers, to bring wisdom forth, to help mankind to understand what is required to bring harmony into this world and the power of His love.

Yes, there is great work ahead for all of you, my children, a wave of love and healing to spread throughout the globe, as our dear sister acknowledges that you are indeed a family of humanity. And this you must remain in your consciousness this knowing that what you do for yourselves, you do for others.

The love you bring into your souls through your prayers affect your family of love upon this world. Every thought, every deed affects the world my children, and the love, kindness and generosity of acceptance. Nurture your fellow man. Feed them of their body and their souls. Feed them and be joyed in your acts of giving, share the love that has been given to you. Be strong. And in all of this flow of love, be joyed for you know the truth, and in knowing you must live the truth, in living you are the truth.

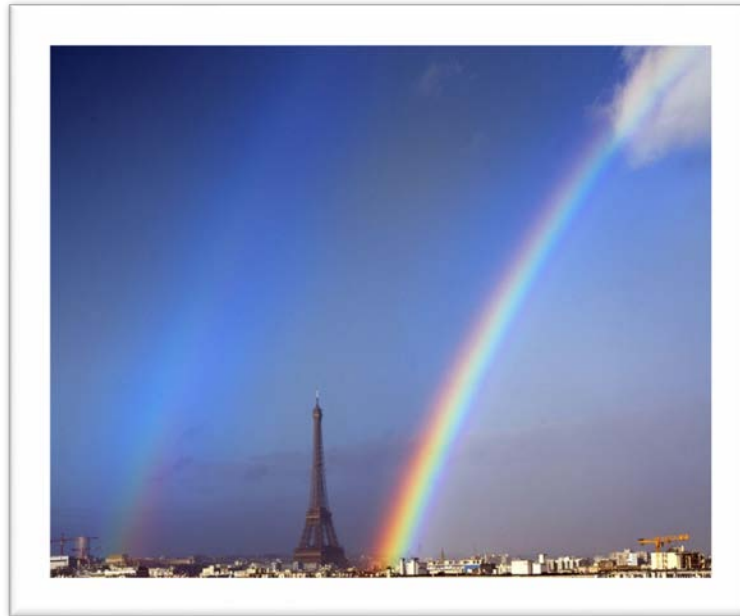

Carry on my little birds, and as you fly home you carry with you a great light, each one, and that light will increase as you contemplate the experiences you have shared these days, as you acknowledge the great truth, that you are redeemed, that God's Love resides within. So much to be given, so much to know; you are well on your way on your wings, my little birds. God bless you. Confucius is with you every step with encouragement. And when you feel you need my support, pray for my presence and I will be with you. I will bring you healing, and light, and peace. God bless you, little children. (Bird call outside!)

OUR CELESTIAL GUIDES AND TEACHERS

The messages we received were from Angels–Celestial Spirit Guides and Teachers who once lived on Earth ... yes, they were human once, and through their soul longings, were transformed from the image of God into Divine spirits by praying to God sincerely for an inflowing of Divine Love. In the summer of 2016, they included:

Jesus of Nazareth, now Master of the Celestial Heavens.

Andrew, Apostle of Jesus of Nazareth.

Confucius, an ancient Chinese philosopher.

Brother Mandus, founder of the World Healing Crusade.

Faith, a great mystic and charismatic Catholic who challenged the orthodoxy of the Church.

Augustine, when on Earth, Bishop of Hippo.
