INTRODUCTION

With this souvenir collection “Messages of Love – Hawaii November-December 2016”, we give thanks to God and His Angels for the blessed prayer gatherings in Oahu, Hawaii.

Our special thanks go to:

- ✦ Gilda Holy who introduced us to many seeking souls and embraced us into her loving family as if we had known her always.
- ✦ Pastor Geo Downer and the congregation of the Unity Windward Church who welcomed us and invited us to join them in their healing services and Sunday services. We thank them for the opportunity to host our Divine Love Workshop that concluded in a delightful and magical musical performance by Geo Downer and Keoni and Ruth Maiwela bringing us together in love, peace and harmony. We look forward to future opportunities of fellowship and prayer together in the future.
- ✦ Reverend Jimbeau Walsh who escorted us on our journey, arranging our visits, prayers and joyous celebrations.

We give thanks to the Angels for their constant presence with all of us in that magical place and for the enduring love and blessings that flowed out from the Circles of Light of Oahu.

May God bless us all with a constant inflowing of Divine Love into our souls and together may we all be connected in our efforts to create Circles of Light around our planet.

With love always,

Reverends Jeanne and Al Fike

MESSAGES FROM CELESTIAL ANGELS

SPIRIT: ANDREW

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 26, 2016

Title: When You Follow Your Guidance and Are a Channel of God's Love, Many Blessings Follow

God bless you my beloveds, it is Andrew.

Yes, indeed you have been drawn back to this beautiful island to bring love and light, to be a channel of God's Will in this place. And as you move and connect with people both in the spirit and in the flesh, you generate a light, you are a channel of God's Love in the world.

And when you come together in these Circles of Light, these prayers, you reinforce the conditions of love, you regenerate yourselves and you become a more potent channel of love in this world. Together with a singleness of purpose you fulfill God's desire and Will to reach out to those souls all around you. My beloveds, all around you are those who are hungry, who are drawn, who are in need of a touch of love and as you move in this world, this place, God is igniting a desire within the souls who are in proximity to you and this light that is ignited, this spark of desire will bring change to each soul if they so desire this. Beloveds, it is your task and your loving desire to be a channel in this way wherever you go; to ignite this deep longing in the souls of others. It is so simple, my beloveds, so simple. And when you carry love, you carry a gift, a gift that can and will change this world and it is not for you to say "this person must be blessed, that soul will be touched", no my beloveds, it is for you to say "Father, I am a channel of your Love, whomever you desire to touch, to ignite this longing within the souls of others, so be it. Make me that channel for you."

In this way you will not be entangled within your mind as to what you must do. No, my beloveds, you will be carried in the flow of God's Love, you will touch many souls, often unknowingly and you will fulfill your purpose in this way, you will fulfill what it is that has drawn you here, you will be that channel of love in innocence, simplicity and grace. So, keep yourselves open to God's Will, my beloveds, the flow of His Love, the grace of His Presence and Light all around you. Many will feel this, be drawn to this, will be touched by this and in this way you will have fulfilled your mission and purpose for being here.

Do not judge by the numbers who are drawn into your circles. No, my beloveds, do not worry of the impression you are making upon others. Be true to yourselves, be loving in all things and know that God is guiding you for God surely does guide you. You would not be here without His guidance and you are here because it is sanctioned and guided. The angels are here with you because of this very purpose which I have revealed to you.

Walk in the grace of His Love wherever you go this day. The angels will accompany you and the flow of God's Love will be strong and influential wherever you go this day.

God bless you, it is Andrew and I love you and I will be with you and an angel will be with each one of you every moment of this day, every moment of the days to come and may the love flow in abundance, the laughter, the ease of walking through this world knowing that you walk in the flow of God's Love. May you be at peace, beloved souls, and know that His Love burns bright within you. God bless you. Your brother Andrew loves you.

SPIRIT: AUGUSTINE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 27, 2016

Title: You Are all Drawn Together in this Light

It is your teacher Augustine.

Yes, you will come to meet many kindred spirits. Those whose souls are open to the love, awakened and active in the light. Though they may not share your perspective, your clear understanding of the mechanisms of Divine Love, nonetheless, they are in the light and know the light and are drawn to the light. And you are all drawn together in this light, this beckoning call, this clarion call to be together as brothers and sisters in loving harmony, in beautiful soulful acknowledgement of one another.

Beloved souls, this experience will happen again and again for each one of you as you travel this world and connect with many kindred spirits in this light, drawn together by the Law of Attraction, by God's Guidance and Will. You will be drawn together. And there will be deep within you and deep within the others an acknowledgement of this common spiritual light and love.

And what is it that makes you my beloveds a powerful channel of God's Love? It is because you have a clear understanding of this Truth and you acknowledge the power of this wondrous gift of Love and you have a deep desire to share this Love with others. With these motivations and inner soul conditions you create within yourselves a powerful condition of love and a channel of love and this you must nurture each and every day and you must look forward and see the opportunities that lay before you, receive the guidance that is waiting to be given to you so that you may continue to serve God as His messenger of this precious and beloved Truth whose power has the capability to change the world.

You see, my beloveds, you have a great responsibility, a powerful opportunity, a blessed gift of service to spread this Truth of God's Love wherever you go and this is done not just in words but in a smile, a look, a gaze of love, a touch, an embrace. To be with others who hunger and are eager for the blessing of this Love. To connect in many different ways. You bring the tolling bell of truth and this bell is heard within the souls whom you are with and excites a desire, it brings an opening door. And you, my beloveds, must simply be in harmony with God and attuned to His Love, a channel thereof, so that you may complete the connection between God and this soul whom you gaze upon. And in this, will come the fulfillment of your purpose and the unfoldment of your beautiful, shining souls in all its glory, all its potential, all its beauty.

Yes, my beloveds, seek ye God's Love, the Kingdom and all shall come unto you and in this way many will come to you seeking as you place before them pearls beyond price, the Truth of God's Love. Beloved souls, continue in your great efforts, your prayers, your desire, your travels, your gatherings with others-- Circles of Light, Circles of Truth, and Circles of Love.

Yes, my beloveds, we will continue on this journey. We will take you to many places and show you many things and connect with you many souls, eager and seeking. What a glorious journey this is, what a wondrous adventure it shall become as you lay down your resistance and completely embrace the Will of God.

Beloveds, continue in these great efforts. Always express your love. Do so in many different ways. Do not judge. Do not resist. Enfold, embrace, accept and love. This is how God can use you, my beloveds, and it shall be so as you continue upon this path.

God bless you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: MARY

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 27, 2016

Title: Mary Brings Her Blessings to the Group

I am Mary.

As you minister to those who gather together in prayer, I shall be with you and bring sweet blessings of peace and love to your gathering. God bless you, beloveds, I am Mary and I love you.

SPIRIT: JESUS

---

Title: Jesus Brings His Blessings to the Group

I come to bless you, my beloveds, and I come to bless you on your road to your salvation. For as you journey upon this road many will follow you, my beloveds. As you continue to seek the Father's Love and know of all the wonderment and glories of this Love you will share with others this great, wondrous Truth and enfold them in it as God's instruments of Love.

Blessings to you beloved souls, my sisters and brothers who walk this journey that you all walk to atonement with God. I am with you, I shall always be with you and may the Father's deep and abiding Peace be with you, my beloveds. May His Great Light enfold you. God bless you. God bless you beloved souls.

SPIRIT: JAMES REID

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: November 27, 2016

Title: The Value of Knowing Your Souls

My friends, it is James, James Reid.

How different it is to speak on this side of the voice. To be a channel in this way, to speak to you in this way and how delighted I am to have this opportunity to speak to my friends and to you my friend Geoff, who has been my staunch supporter and dear friend.

I wish to tell you that I am very happy in the realms of spirit. I dwell within the fifth sphere and am finding much to do here and am learning much as I progress through this beautiful sphere. And I want to tell you all, especially my dear friend, you are not wasting your time coming together. Each time you come together in this way, each time you connect with others as you have done this day you are building a light, you are making change in this world, you are bringing about greater awareness, and touching souls as a channel of God's Love in the world.

And I have committed to your group, to the efforts made by all those who are praying for Divine Love and trying to bring this knowledge to the world. I have committed myself to support and to assist you in any way that I can.

My heart is overwhelmed with gratitude for the great blessings God has given me in my life and the knowledge of how to grow my soul in Love and for all the blessings that I have received in this world, in your world and all the many blessings I am receiving in this world and I wish to serve you all, and I will be by your sides as your eager helper.

And I wish you to know that I have changed some of my beliefs and attitudes upon coming to this side of life. Things are so much clearer in these higher spheres and simpler and I see now that the power of God's Love is the ultimate blessing and Truth and much of what I perceived when I was in the flesh was just a lot of clutter around this Truth, the power of this Truth and my mind was so eager to know these details, these things about the life of spirit and about life, the purpose of life, the meaning of life. And so I do not blame myself for immersing my mind in all of these aspects and details which I read about and discussed and shared with others. It is the nature of your world to inform the mind, to develop the mental capacities, to make sense of the truth, but I tell you, my friends, as you progress and your souls expand in Love these things of the mind will have less importance and relevance. The things of your souls will be what comes forth and has power and influence upon your being and who you are and how you perceive the world and how life is, truly how life is and is meant to be.

It is all very simple and it is based on the foundation of love. Again, I am grateful that I understood this fact when I lived in the world. The foundation of love, my friends, is the greatest, strongest, most powerful foundation that you can build in your life. Everything must be in harmony and in synchronicity around love.

So I ask you, when you come across a new concept, an idea, ask yourselves, how does this increase the love in my life, how does this build love in my life, how does this express love in my life? Because all else, in many respects, is irrelevant. Especially for all of you who have made a commitment to serve God as a channel of His Love. To bring the truth of His Love into the world. This is what is important; to build love within yourself, to build the truth of love, the wonderment of love, the glory of love, the great wonderment that is God's Love within yourselves.

And though your mind may be hungry for facts and details and knowledge of the great mysteries of the universe, my friends, when you are truly immersed in this condition of love, this understanding of love, that which is true and of God and eternal and absolute will come to you in time and that which is the fabrication of the mind, part of the intellectual ruminations of imagination and interpretation of truth will fall away.

It is your challenge, my friends, and your deep challenge to predicate everything in love. To go to God. To receive His great gift of Love and to integrate this into every aspect of your lives, of your minds, and of your souls in order to bring us all together in harmony. You need to shake off the clutter and the error and the irrelevant details and focus, focus, my friends, on love.

For the world will be saved by love, not by facts, not by information that is not of this world, no, my friends, the world will be saved by love, the power of love, the healing touch of love, the wonderment which is God's Love.

So continue in your efforts. Utilize the time you have together my friends in prayer, in work together to bring healing, to bring comfort to others, to bring the truth, to reinforce one another in this great pursuit as you traverse the Divine Path and in this way, if you are truly dedicated, if you truly wish to be in the light and to enact God's Will in a close approximation as you can in this world, then you will join me in this beautiful sphere of light when it is your time to pass. What a blessing that would be for you my beautiful friends.

And to do so, to work for God, to work for love is not a hardship, is not that difficult, but it requires focus and a desire to do so. Prayer, faith, trust in God, an eagerness for love; this is simple. Put aside all else that is not a part of these efforts and be in the mighty flow of God's Love. My friends, I will join you there, the angels will join you there and much will come of this, this dedication, this service, these prayers.

God bless you friends, I am very happy to be able to speak to you and I hope that I will be able to speak again through this instrument for he has let down a barrier allowing those of us who are not yet a Celestial Angel but are well on our way.

Thank you my friends. God bless you and may His Love flow into your souls my friends with great abundance, great abundance. This is your focus; this is why you come together. To help one another in this great effort, to rise above the conditions of this world, the conditions of your mind and truly come to know your souls. What a wonderful, wonderful prospect to know your souls, my friends. So happy to be with you. Know that I will be with you as you continue in these prayers and efforts together. God bless you. Your friend James Reid loves you and is with you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: CONFUCIUS

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: November 27, 2016

Title: Confucius Welcomes the Flock

This is Confucius.

My little birds you have flocked together once more and how we rejoice when this comes to be. When you come to pray together and come to form a great channel of Love, a portal of Light to this world.

Do not fret, my beloveds, over the details of how this will be accomplished and who will be involved, my beloveds, God is involved. God will accomplish this task. All that we require of you is for you to come together in harmony and prayer and all will unfold in beautiful harmony, beloved souls. Seek for the highest, walk in this great flow of God's Love and all will unfold in beautiful, loving harmony.

You are all loved and all required in this task and you have answered a call and you are here. Rejoice, beloveds, rejoice that God has called you together and brought you to this beautiful place. Each will learn something through this experience. There will be shifts within your souls, greater awareness, and those things that are barriers to you will fall and a new joy will awaken within you, beloved souls.

As you gather those close together who desire to join you in prayer, in laughter, in love, you begin the task before you and God touches you deeply within your souls, beloveds. Your souls feel the joy of this, allow the joy to unfold you and become the light that is true to you.

God bless you. Confucius loves you beloved souls.

SPIRIT: CARE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: November 27, 2016

Title: The Budding Potentials of Our Souls

I too will join you in your prayers and your efforts. My dear mate, my beloved, I am with you often and I join you in your prayers. There is a lot of work for you to do, my beloved. It is coming. You will all feel what is coming.

You all need to learn to let go of those things in your mind, your expectations of what will be, what must be. No, you must allow God to orchestrate your efforts, allow His beautiful Will to manifest in your lives, in your efforts together. It is like you see the bud of the rose which is closed, you see the colour, you see an indication of the form but until the rose opens you cannot truly see its details and beauty and so it is with this work, the bud is swelling, it begins to open one petal at a time but you do not truly see the form, God's intent, the beauty that God created, the plan that God has for each one of you and all of you together.

This is coming, every day you will come to know a little more, another petal exposed, another addition to this beautiful form, its colours rich. Appreciate each petal, appreciate each day, appreciate what God gives you with each day and know that as the flower unfolds, the true knowledge will come, the efforts that you are meant to make will come to fruition.

But, if you decide to plan for God, you will divert your efforts and when you allow God to plan for you all will unfold in harmony and often surprisingly so for God has the best intention for all and for you and all of us who serve God it is a gift to be a part of His Great Plan, to serve in love, to know the power of His Love manifest in all of us, in all its beauty and glory.

Thousands upon thousands of roses, unique, each one. Unique in colour and form. A sea of roses, in beauty, in grace, a magnificent creation of God. You are all a beautiful rose and each one of you will flower and show that beauty and be magnificent in that beauty and form and colour and light.

Oh, my friends, if you could only see with the eyes of your soul, all of your worries and cares would fall away and you would be gloriously happy, knowing that God has you firmly in His Embrace and is nurturing each one in the beautiful, wondrous ways of your beautiful soul.

I love you. I am with you. I will continue to be with you and I pray for each and every one of you each and every day that you will continue to walk in the Light of His Love and of the glory that is His Creation and be that beautiful flower you are destined to be. A rose by any other name still a rose.

God bless you. I love you. I love you. I love you all. God bless you.

SPIRIT: LUKE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 28, 2016

Title: Luke Welcomes Those Who are a Part of the Punalu'u Gathering

I am Luke.

May the Father's Love find a constant inflowing into your souls my beloved friends. That you may feel His Presence in your heart always. That you may walk in the Light of His Protection and Love always. That you may know the joy and freedom of a soul unburdened and pure in love, beloveds.

We welcome you to the circle, this time in prayer, this time with God and I must say, that each of you has something to give to your brothers and sisters here and each of you has something to learn from your brothers and sisters in this circle.

Continue to observe and be together as you form your bonds, form this Circle of Light. Be open in your hearts and minds and souls. Be open to God's Guidance. Listen deeply. Love fully. Care for one another. Cherish these opportunities that God has given you to be together in this way and increase the light amongst you, within you, around you.

Through your prayers and intentions, your thoughts and your deeds, act in loving ways, give in generous ways. Be at peace. Seek love in all things. Walk together. For these moments how precious they are, my beloveds, to be together in this way, a gift from God. And God wishes for you to grow within your souls, to shift in your thinking, to be more open with one another. For each of you comes from a different life experience, a different perspective. Yet, each one of you is touched by God's Love and this Love is what binds you together and brings you to a place of common understanding and experience to receive this Love, this Gift, to walk in this Light together, to allow God's Will to flow amongst you, binding you together in loving experiences and prayers and healing joy.

Drink deep, my friends, drink deep the waters of God's Love and know that you are indeed in His Light, His Presence and are nourished in this way.

All those you pray for will be touched and comforted. Healing will spread out to many. This is part of your efforts and dedications together.

God bless you beloveds. I am Luke. I love you. You are truly blessed. God bless you.

SPIRIT: SERETTA KEM

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 28, 2016

Title: Coming Together in Prayer and Harmony Brings Much Spiritual Power

Blessings to you beloveds. I am Seretta Kem.

Though you are few in numbers in this circle, you are great in power. In your efforts and your prayers, you influence many souls in this world and in my world. Many are influenced. There are many hundreds of spirits around you at this time and angels surround each one of you, bringing a light that is bright and intense, drawing many from the world of spirit to be a part of these circles. And for those you have prayed for who reside in this area there are many of their ancestors here this day who are observing and being taught the way of God's Love.

And for each one of you a great network of light extends out to those you love, those who are connected in some way to each one and blessings are transmitted through these tentacles of Light, this great network. So many are touched and influenced on the level of the soul. And so your work continues beloveds. Those dedicated to the truths of God's Love, those with a heart desire to serve, to love, to bring change into this world, to bring comfort and harmony as a channel of God's Will and His Love. Yes, much is accomplished when you come together in this way, beloved souls. The power of prayer of each one of you coming together in harmony with a common desire to be in this Light, to be utilized by God in a myriad of ways, to serve in whatever capacity is required. What a wonderful blessing it is for us, in the Celestial Kingdom, to come to this world in this way to serve, to help orchestrate the many blessings, healings, the flow of light and love, the peace that comes through your simple prayers, my beloveds. What a blessing for us, what a blessing for you. What a blessing for the many, many who are connected to you as you continue to pray in your circles and walk the Truth of God's Love.

God uses you each day, my beloveds, in ways you do not know, in areas you are completely oblivious of the impact that you create as souls who have said to God "I am willing to serve you and to be in the Truth of Your Love". So much extends and expands out from each one of you and when you come together in multiples you increase the power of this exponentially. It is so important that you come together in prayer and when you cannot come together physically, it is also important to come together at an appropriate time to pray together from your own places of residence to add to this power, to continue the momentum of this great force of change that is coming to the world.

For change must come. Love must bring harmony. Light must disperse the darkness. It is coming to that time in the history of this world that there is no choice but to penetrate the darkness, to bring the change that is required, to bring harmony and to bring the souls back to God in whatever way that they so choose. Be it upon the path of the Natural Love or the path of God's Divine Love, but chose they must, a path to the Light.

Too long has darkness, confusion and error ruled this world. It is time to bring hope, to bring healing, to bring love back into the lives of those who are lost and afraid and ignorant and live in ways that they are blind and deaf. They do not see the importance of their lives, the beauty of their existence, the power of their choices, the possibilities that lay before each soul in this world.

Be an example my brothers and sisters. Be an example in the world of what can be when love permeates all and throw aside those old habits and conditions brought on by a lifetime of pain and error and step into this new world, this new way of being, where your souls reign supreme and inform all that you do.

As God influences each soul, may that influence flow through you in powerful ways to many. Each of you has great potential. Each of you expresses love in your life. Each of you have many gifts. Each of you possess God's Divine Love and each of you is faced with a choice each and every day how you will be in the world, how you can be in the world.

Yes, the power of free will, my beloveds, is immense, determines so much of the outcomes of your lives and what you draw to yourselves, my beloveds. Draw goodness, draw light, and draw those souls eager to know the truth, to join with you in this great journey of discovery, the flowering of your souls in love, beloveds. So much awaits.

God has a plan and purpose for each one of you. It is for you to discover this, for each purpose and each plan is unique for the soul of the individual. Be in the Light. Know that when you come together you intensify the Light and you bring yourselves closer to your Heavenly Father.

God bless you, my beloveds. The angels are with you. God puts His Hand upon your soul and lifts you up. Lifts you up beloveds. God bless you.

SPIRIT: GOLDIE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 28, 2016

Title: The Sweet Honey of God's Love!

It is Goldie.

God bless you. Oh, you have made the Pastor think, my friends. In that place of prayer you brought a sweetness to that room but these people are used to sugar and you brought honey. They must be accustomed to that flavour and that particular sweetness. Please continue to feed them the honey of God's Love, to show them, to surround them, and envelop them in this beautiful, beautiful sweet blessing.

And I was there to give that sweet man some laughter which he needs very much in his life and you must laugh with him, my beloveds, laugh with one another. For in the laughter and in the joy, in the openness, in your embracing of one another you bring a great light, a sweetness to the air, a beauty, a glow to yourselves, beloveds.

Be sweet to one another, be sweet to all you meet and bring joy and laughter. This is a tonic, a blessing that many need in this world so full of stress and pressure and tightness. Loosen yourselves up in joyful prayer, in laughter, in song, and you will bring the blessings of God's Love into your midst and joy into your hearts.

Beloved souls, I love you. I will be with you in your prayers. I have always been with you and often I find you to be very funny in your antics and your thoughts.

Oh, how you wish to complicate life when it is so simple and joyful. Go with God and go with joy and life will be simpler, easier, lighter.

Beloveds, I will help you to know joy. I will help you to release your burdens.

God bless you, my friends, God bless you.

SPIRIT: MOSES

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 28, 2016

Title: You Must Unite in Love

I have come to give you a message of peace. I come to advise you, my beloved souls, to put aside your differences. All who are a part of this wondrous knowledge of Divine Love put aside those differences within you, within your thinking, within your projections of what others are thinking and your assumptions of others. You must unite as a family in harmony and those who cannot do so have not truly understood the power of God's Love. You must let go of your prejudices and your judgments and envelop one another in love.

I understand the struggles of the tribe. I was charged by God to bring together the Jews, my people, and there were many such conditions and strife within that family, much larger than your own and yet we did bond together, we did unite, we did put aside our differences and yes, it will never be perfect, my beloveds. You will never have that expectation fulfilled that others will think as you do. No, my beloveds, but what bonds you together is the sure knowledge of the power of God's Love and that Love can unite all, no matter their perspective, their fears, what error lies within them.

My beloveds, the power of love will overcome all of these conditions but you must be willing to try, to accept, to reach in love, to bring harmony and accommodation to those who are truly a part of you. It is time for you to unite, for you do need to go to that place of unity amongst yourselves in order to bring that flame, that lantern of truth to the world.

For each has something to give towards this great effort and each will be included and their gifts will be expressed, given to the hungry souls but when you are bogged down in judgment, in fear, in assumptions, this cannot happen. You will have pockets, several here, several there, but not unity, not true brotherhood and sisterhood, a fellowship that is strengthened in love and trust of one another.

Put aside your differences and allow God to work through each one of you as you walk in faith, in the strength of that faith, trusting in God's Plan and not concerned of the behaviour of your brother or sister. No, my beloveds, you are bound, tied, connected, bonded in love, you share this wondrous Gift, this will carry you through thick and thin and the changes that are coming in this world. You must perk yourselves up towards the possibilities and not avoid one another because in some way you feel you have been slighted, in some way you feel that another does not measure up to your standards, in some way there is a mistrust, a misunderstanding. Yes, this is the human condition and these things are inevitable because mortals find it so difficult to trust and to love, to release those hurts, to let bygones be bygones.

No, my beloveds, you must, you must let go and let God guide you together. Invariably there will be some who cannot and will not release those conditions that draw them apart from you. I am not suggesting that you accept those in a forcible way into your band of workers, no, this cannot work but you are required to give each a choice in a loving way, to open the door in a loving way and say "You are welcome. You are welcome to express love, to express truth, to be within this wondrous fellowship which God has created and to work with all of us to bring a furtherment of the truth to mankind in this world".

Yes, united, my beloveds, united you are strong, united you will move forward, united much can be accomplished and every soul, every soul has gifts and a purpose and a potential and you must, as strong and beautiful channels of love, you must seek out the souls and entreat them to come together with you in this Love, the flow of this Love, the flow of God's Will.

When you push your brothers and sisters away in judgment or fear you push God away, you push love away. When you envelop and accept, when you make an effort to go beyond your own barriers and reach out to others in sincerity, in humility, you bring the light to you, you bring the truth as a living flame and testimony to the love that burns within you. You bring this forward and you say "I am willing to love you. I wish to love you. I desire to love you. For I have this wondrous Love within me and I wish to give it to you. To make you my brother and sister. To walk with you. To support you in Love. To truly be your brother and sister in the Love".

This is challenging, I understand, for I had my challenges but no challenge is too great when God has His Hand in your life. It is a test of faith, a measure of who you are, a strengthening of your capacity to love, a testimony to your own humility and willingness to set aside your biases and fears and judgments and be open to God's Will.

Beloveds, unite in love, be strong in love, voice this invitation in love and see what will unfold in love. You will be surprised, so many doors will open, doors unanticipated, doors that will bring true change to this world but as long as you are bogged down with your own human condition, your own mental condition, you will continue to creep along in your growth, your souls will continue to receive the Divine Love but that expression of love, my beloveds, is much diminished when you hold on to these conditions which are unnecessary and are ready to be released.

Beloved souls, I put forth this challenge to you, a challenge done in love, a challenge which is a plea that you may reach a higher level of commitment and outreach to those souls who await you, to those souls who are often fearful of your acceptance and they do not feel worthy or they are troubled or they are overly sensitive to your words. Yes, there are many reasons why others pull away or are distant. And you, my beloved souls, are strong enough and wise enough to know how to overcome these barriers and to truly connect in love.

Beloved souls, I speak to you in this serious way because the time grows short, it is time for action, for love to coalesce, to truly coalesce as a people for you are people. What sets you apart is that you know this wondrous truth and in knowing this wondrous truth you must befriend all you meet in love without fear, without fear but in strength, in strength and faith.

Beloveds, you are richly blessed. You are given a feast for the soul. God nurtures you at every turn, protects you, He answers your prayers, and He gives much to each one of you. Remember this, the more you can give to others in love the richer will become these blessings.

Continue in your prayers and your efforts. Continue to reach out. To be sincere in your love and to cast away all that is a barrier to this. For God yearns for you to be free and strong and pure in His Love.

God bless you beloveds. I am Moses and I have come to speak to you of serious matters, important matters and I hope that you hear me in the way in which I give this which is love, which is an understanding of what you must deal with in this life but nonetheless in order to grow you must reach, you must reach for higher things, always for the highest. God bless you.

SPIRIT: ANDREW

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 29, 2016

Title: Climbing the Ladder to Purity and Grace

It is Andrew.

How much joy it gives to us in spirit to see you come together in this way with a deep desire for harmony and love and peace amongst you. That eagerness to pray, that desire to receive the Holy Blessing of the Father's Love within your souls.

My beloveds, your capacity to love is only limited by your mind's conception of what that is. For you have a great capacity to love and all that stands in the way of this immense flood of love that can and will come through you, my beloveds, into this world is your thought that you are unworthy or that you are not loved, or that you cannot love. For you can love. That love resides within your souls. It resides in wonderful abundance and is eager to burst forth through each one of you in wonderful ways. And some accept this in limited ways, some are not so entrapped by the limitations of the mind and they do indeed give love in beautiful ways.

Each of you does in your own way give love and each of you seeks to reach to a higher place as you incrementally grow in this capacity to love, as you continue to release those barriers within, as you open to the understanding and power of this Great Gift and to God's Will that flows to you my beloveds. God gives you much. So much awaits to be given, for you to accept, to allow, to desire this Great Gift and all that comes with it. For much will be given in the flow of this Love, great truths, wonderful guidance, a surety within you that is beyond anything that your mind can give you, my beloveds, a strength and faith that is born of love, the Divine Love, with all its special qualities, all its active aspects which awaken your souls and open your eyes to the truth of your life, of all life, of God's Creation.

For one cannot truly see without the eyes of the soul. One cannot truly know without the capacity of the soul awakened by love. In this way, all those desires to serve, to bring about light in this world, to bring healing to this world are possible because you allowed your soul to expand and grow and take precedence within your being so that God may use you in a clear way, a powerful way to do the work that He has in store for each one of you as part of His Plan for the salvation of mankind.

To have willing workers, equipped with a soul awakened, fully healed in love, whose capacities and potentials begin to emerge in this blessed state of grace. My, what you would be capable of my beloveds. How powerful would be your presence in the world. What a magnificent example of truth you will become beautiful souls trusting in God and His Will, feeling and knowing the power of His Love, becoming aware of your own personal capacities and gifts all illuminated by God's Love.

My beloveds, you creep towards this goal bit by bit. Incrementally you will rise up above your own human condition and the condition of this world, desiring to be in the world but not of this world. Your soul eager with your desire to serve and to be a clear channel for God.

My beloveds, you will continue up this ladder to that lofty place and you will serve God in powerful ways, beyond what you imagine at this time, but you must release those vestiges of a life without God to a place where you are with God in every way, with each day and you are further along this journey than you may think and you will, within your lives, my beloveds, each of you come to that place of beautiful grace, of wonderful service, a clear channel of God's Love in this world.

And we who love you and serve God and serve you in love will continue to support and carry you through the difficult times to a place of opening and peace and powerful presence in love.

Yes, my beloveds, you are carried, you are loved, you are given all that you require to climb to that place of purity. May each one of you come to truly understand and accept and desire this invitation given by God to be with Him in this Light and Love.

God bless you beloveds. I am Andrew. I love you dearly. I am with you. I am with you as are many who love you dearly. God bless you.

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 29, 2016

Title: Be Bold in Your Love and Actions!

It is Confucius.

Are you not mightily blessed? Do you not feel the joy within your souls as God brings you together my little birds in places where the sun shines and the warm waters lap at your feet and you come to reaffirm your love for one another and to bring light to this place?

Beloved souls, carry the flame that is within you. Carry the flame where you can bring to others comfort, healing and love. Many notice you and feel something from you. You must embrace many. For even in this place there is much suffering and a need for you my beloveds to bring your loving light together. As you continue to nourish yourselves in prayer think of those around you as you have done in prayer, and think of those you love, think of those who pass by you, think of all you encounter and ask God to bless them. Ask God to put a desire within them to open to His Love.

So many souls desire what you have my beloveds yet they do not know how to receive. To teach others how to pray. To show them the power of God's Love. To accept and embrace all is what you must do as you walk your path of life. For you only pass by once my beloveds in this life. Utilize the opportunities that lay before you and do not ruin it in indecision and fear but be bold in your actions, be loving in all things, listen to the voice of God who will guide you through and bring you to many souls who have a curiosity and desire to know the truth.

Yes, it is a delicate line to be bold and humble at the same time. But the boldness lies within yourself to be confident that God is guiding you and to act upon His Guidance and the humility is in how you approach others, accepting and gracious, gentle and kind, generous. Embrace all. Do not judge. Do not see others in fear but walk in this boldness. In this boldness and gentleness you will encounter many and they will respond.

For every soul desires to be acknowledged. Every soul hungers to be loved. You must walk your path in this endless flow of touching souls as God's instruments of peace and love and truth. For what you carry is the key to liberating the soul and freeing each beloved soul from the tyranny of the human condition and the mind entrapped in error.

Do you realize this, my beloveds, that you carry this key? Do not hide this. Do not seek anonymity. No, my beloveds, you must be bold and hold your head up high. For though others may judge you, you will find a great reward and blessing in giving in this way, in showing love to all you meet. And you will not be hurt. The only way that hurt may be lodged within your heart is if you believe your detractors and those who would criticize you. And where does this criticism come and this judgment? It comes from a bitter heart, a heart that is afraid of love. Do you not have compassion for those who would judge you? Can you not put aside your own need to be loved because that need is fulfilled by God and that need and that acknowledgement of love you already possess within you?

And God will carry you my beloveds, beyond the trails of a difficult life to a place flowing with a river filled with light and love. How far you wade into this river. How much you can accept that God will carry you in the current of His Love will determine your destiny. You were always given a choice, my beloveds. You may hide away in your secret passion to be with God or you may come forth and say "I am a child of God and I am loved and so are you". It is your choice. It is your dilemma. Many of you make great efforts and you continue to struggle with how and where and why but I tell you, my beloveds, a soul attuned to God will know the questions will be irrelevant, it will be a flow, a beautiful expression orchestrated by God, manifest in wondrous and surprising ways as the gifts of your soul come forth and are expressed and the channel of your love and God's Love together will touch many.

So, my beloveds, every day has a choice within it filled with many possibilities. Try to look with the eyes of your soul. Try to act in accordance to God's Will and allow God to heal you of any and all conditions that are not in harmony with this.

Beloved souls, God is eager to heal you. Your souls are eager to express themselves in this wondrous and powerful way. Will you accept the desires of your soul and God's deep desire for you to be His channels of Love in this world?

May He heal you, beloved souls, of all your fears and worries and bring you that deep and abiding peace and that joy knowing you are truly loved.

God bless you beloveds. Confucius loves you, is with you, will never leave you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: JUDAS

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 29, 2016

Title: Only God Can Save the World

It is Judas.

I was with you on your sojourn to the rocky point and listened to your conversations. I was also with the women in their conversations. And indeed you have many concerns, questions and desires to do the right things in your lives for God, and for the furtherment of your Divine Love family and movement...I applaud you for your concerns and your desires to move forward; to take hold of the yoke and the responsibility of leadership, of direction and to focus your desires in certain ways. But I tell you that none of you can save the world. No, only God can save the world. And none of you are responsible for another in regards to their choices and their path to God. No, they are responsible for themselves but what you can do and what you must do is give love always, embrace always, and when another refuses your embrace say a prayer for them and move on.

Do not carry the burden of guilt. Do not carry the assumption that you must heal all situations and bring harmony to all conditions. When you act as God's instruments in the world you allow God to work through you. You put aside your biases and ambitions and thoughts of all kinds and say "Father I am here to be your channel of love. Guide me. Lead me through and help me to be someone who brings peace, brings love, brings truth wherever I may go" and when you do this to the best of your ability, when you give over to God's Will, when you focus on love, then you are in harmony with God, there is no question of this.

When you seek to remove yourselves, to cause distance, to judge, to withhold love, to fabricate within your minds reasons and explanations for these behaviours, then you reinforce the human condition within yourselves, then you turn away from God. Your challenge is to let go of your fears, your anxieties, your mental conditionings, and your lack of desire to love.

Each of you are challenged in one particular way in this regard, not that you are like this at all times, on the contrary, many times you express love in beautiful ways but there are conditions and individuals and circumstances which cause you concern and you in defensiveness to ease your way through life, your turn away from the challenge of love, and this is common in this world, all too common.

But if you are to be an instrument of God's Will, an example of His Love, if you are to bring love, to allow love, to embrace love, then you must be conscious of those times you are challenged and make a choice to face those challenges head on. And if you are frightened or worried, concerned, ask God for His Assistance, ask to be guided. If you are worried as to what you will say, ask God to put the words into your mouth. If you are afraid someone will hurt you or offend you, ask God for His Cloak of Protection to protect you. God will provide you with the means to deal with any and all circumstances but you must have faith that this will be so, and you must be strong, and sure in this faith, in your love.

You cannot turn away forever from these circumstances and conditions in life because they are all too common and you will face them wherever you go, my beloveds. And once you face them you become stronger and once you overcome them you have more confidence, an ability to see the circumstance and situation from a different perspective. You allow your soul, perspective of your soul to see from the eyes of love, to not be so entrapped by the negative, to find freedom in love.

Beloved souls, you are all challenged, for this is a challenging world but you have the key that will help you in all and every circumstance. My beloveds, utilize the truth that you know, bring into your heart a desire to be loving at all times, to be God's instrument of peace at all times, to walk in light at all times, to be that channel of love at all times.

Yes, we ask much of you, my beloveds, but you ask much of God and God always responds in Love, in His Gracious Care for each one of you and He desires for you to be that example and channel of love in the world so that others may benefit as you have benefited. That those lost souls who are challenging may be given a bit of comfort, some truth, some love.

Beloveds, we encourage you to reach to a higher place and plane and perspective. Your souls are eager to burst forth through every part of your being, every cell, every aspect of your personality, everything that you are. Your soul is eager to influence, to transform, to bring into harmony all of you and in every aspect of your lives and everywhere you are, in every moment this glorious Love may illuminate your world, all that is of your world and wherever you go in God's Creation.

Yes, much awaits. Continue to pray for the Father's love, that key to all and rely on your Heavenly Father to bring you wisdom, to heal you from your fears and errors and those hurts that lay deep within you, and to give you the strength to move forward in love, gentleness, humility and strength.

God bless you and thank you for allowing me to speak to you for I do not speak often and I wish to speak more often to my brothers and sisters in this world whom I have a deep bond and love for and desire to support each one of you in your efforts to grow in the Love and to be God's channels of Love in the world. Ask for my assistance and I will come to you and help you in whatever way I can in love, in light, in truth.

God bless you. God bless you my friends. And may God ever guide you upon your path to atonement to Him. To atonement and glorious, wondrous joy. God bless you.

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: November 30, 2016

Title: Walk Together

I am Jesus. I come to bless you my beloveds.

It is good to hear the fullness of your hearts and gratitude for one another for God's gifts of Love and blessings to your lives. It is good that you come together in this way. When you come in loving commitment and a deep desire to be filled, to be filled with your love, the Love of God, to know this Truth as you walk forward in life, to be in this grace and I come to you to beseech you to further awaken to the Love, to awaken within your souls and seek Truth in this way. For as you step upon this Path Divine and you drink the blessed waters of God's Love it is inevitable that those parts of you that are asleep will awaken and come manifest within your beings. And the angels come to toll the bell, to awaken, to open your eyes, to open your hearts, to open yourselves to God.

My beloveds, I walk with you. I will never leave you. I will direct you upon the Path and you will do my work bringing this Truth to mankind. I touch each one of you, my beloveds, and in this touch you are a part of this beloved family of God that walks upon the Path Divine, that seeks the glory of God and His Love through the Holy Spirit.

Your souls are touched my beloved brothers and sisters, and in this touch your lives are irrevocably changed and shall grow in this Love for all eternity. And I give each of you a gift to assist you upon this journey, to give you deeper insights into your own true beings and precious gifts which are awakening one by one from their slumbers as the great Love of God sparks and brings them alive, and they will be expressed in the fullness of love and come into alignment to God's Will.

You will know the joy, the deep joy that comes with this awakening, and you will know the fulfillment that comes with serving God as His Child of Truth, and you will know the joy of the support and love you will receive from the angels, and you will know a deep peace, the peace that passes all understanding, that comes with God's Love.

My brethren, continue to walk together. Continue to walk with me. Continue to gather the souls who seek this Love and to be an open channel in this world, for you are sorrowfully needed and the work is great.

Beloved souls, carry the mantle of Truth always. Bring love forth in all that you are and all that you do. Seek God's counsel. Look to your Heavenly Father and be with him in gracious, joyful acknowledgement that you are truly His Child and will be set free as you progress in this Light.

God bless you, my beloveds, I am with you. I am with you always. God bless you.

SPIRIT: TAHLIA

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: December 1, 2016

Title: Sowing Seeds of Truths

My friends, may the Father's Love find a deep and continuous inflowing into your soul. I am Tahlia and I am a part of your circle and I have a special bond with my friend who comes from where I came from and I greet her in love and I wish to encourage her in her efforts to explore the many gifts that reside within her that are powerful and just beginning to emerge. The gift of healing my friends is a powerful gift and I come to assist her and all of you who wish to give healing to others. For, I too, possess the gift of healing and I knew of this gift when I was on Earth and now this gift has evolved and strengthened and flourished as I have progressed through the spheres of spirit into the Celestial Kingdom.

Yes, the Father's Love has indeed transformed my soul and my gifts and so it will be for each one of you who desire the gift of His Love to bring the openings and awakening of your true selves. Each of you struggles to know yourself. Each of you have had many different experiences in this world that has shaped your views and thinking and the condition of your soul and when you come to God in sincerity and that deep longing of desire to make contact, to be open to what God has to give you, you change the condition within you my beloved friends. You set yourself on a course that is often very different from what you began with in your life. Yet there is something within your souls that guides you, influences and convinces you that this is the road you must take, how you must be in the world with God. And you are often perplexed why others do not follow or also see the benefits of this particular road, the road of God's Love. And you must take into account their life condition, their perspective, their experiences and though many of you have been lucky, fortunate to have made this choice early in your lives, many will not but will come to this truth in time and how is this to be so? It is because you and others like you are sowing the seeds of this Truth wherever you go and some will take root and others will not. But you are a vital part of this process of bringing truth and understanding to the world. And these seeds take lodgment within the soul. Remember this my brethren. Remember this. You may not receive the reaction or the appreciation in the moment from those who you speak to and give to these truths but a seed is planted, something has changed, a shift however subtle and in time often when that particular soul progresses into spirit they are reminded of this truth because that truth has made lodgment within their souls.

There are many ways to do God's Work, to bring truth. You acknowledge the dear daughter who brings truth by giving love and comfort and strength to many. She brings truth. And for our dear son, who puts truth upon the wires, open to all to see. And each of you bring truth in your own way, in many different ways, like the petals upon a beautiful flower, each one unique, each one joined to the other and you all must be a single voice with the resounding truth of God's Love as your clarion call in the world.

Do so my beloved, beautiful friends, do so in those beautiful, unique ways which you have in the world. Each one complementing the other. Each one supporting the other. Each one going to God for the truth and nourishment of His Love.

But as you all evolve, as you all grow in strength, as you all discover your gifts, as your eyes open, you will continue to be ever stronger channels of truth and love, comfort and healing to many, many souls. This is what you have chosen. This is what you will continue to choose. For God has you firmly in His Grasp and He will guide you along that road that is uniquely yours, the road of service, the road where each opportunity is seen and grasped by your highest of intentions to serve God.

Continue, beloved souls. You are strong. You are beautiful. You are humble and you give so much light to the world. Continue to sow these seeds of truth, to bring the comfort, the love. Cherish every soul you meet. Cherish yourself and continue to be in this mighty flow of Love that will carry you forth, destinations unknown but indeed destinations rich with possibilities.

I am Tahlia and I am with you beloved souls and I will continue to be a part of your work as you continue to be a part of the work of the Master in this world. So many, many spirits, Celestial Angels that you are not aware of are a part of this great work and plan for the salvation of mankind.

Always be open to God's Guidance. Allow the flow of His Will to carry you within the river of His Love and all will be well. Many surprises await. Are you not surprised that you are all together this day, in this place? For, this is minor compared to what is to come. So much more awaits.

God bless you. Tahlia loves you.

SPIRIT: JOHN THE BELOVED

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: December 1, 2016

Title: Awaken to the Love Divine

God wishes to lift your burdens, free you of your pain and bring you into the freedom and glory of His Loving Light precious souls. Precious souls you are.

The children of God will be upheld. As you continue to serve God and to love God, God will carry you always, never to be abandoned, always to be uplifted. There will be no turning back to the darkness for any of you, my beloveds. You will continue to move forward in the Light and walk the path of Truth, shedding all that is not of His Truth and not of God's Great Laws of Creation. You will find your harmony, beloved souls, because you are destined to be lights in the world. As each year passes, your lights will brighten, as each year passes, the doors will open and you will find your way as disciples of the Master.

Beloved souls, God's Children, your innocence and light, truth and wisdom, love, Love Divine. Awaken my children, awaken. Let His Love touch you deeply, every nook and cranny, crevice and part of you healed by this Love.

I am John the Beloved. God bless you.

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: December 2, 2016

Title: Welcome to this Circle of Love

Beloved souls, it is Confucius.

Your hearts do indeed rejoice with coming together. My beautiful birds, you have flocked together once more in love and you are welcome in this Circle of Love and Light, beloved souls, precious souls. Drink deep these waters of Love, continue to bond together in love for you need one another, my beloveds, you need one another and in this beautiful fellowship will come many gifts and much can be accomplished in these prayers as you beseech your Heavenly Father to receive His Love. So you bring this Light into your midst and this Light flows from your midst to many others in the worlds, both the material world and the spirit world. We see blessings as you pray. Continue beloved souls, to open your souls to the inflowing of the Father's Love. At this time, you receive this blessing and you will continue to receive this Love and know the joy of your togetherness in this Love.

Beloved souls, beloved souls, God has called each one of you in to this circle and you will be blessed as you continue to pray together. His peace surrounds you; the angels are with you, beloved souls. Drink deep and be at peace in these holy moments of silence.

Confucius loves you, beloved souls. God bless you.

SPIRIT: AUGUSTINE

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Waianae, Oahu Date: December 2, 2016

Title: Turn to the Soul Rather than the Mind

It is Augustine.

The servants of God will be attending a service tomorrow. A place that is in deep need of your service, beloveds. Be prayerful. Continue to be a channel of His Love in these places that are receptive and curious. There is much that can be accomplished there if you are willing to embrace all you meet within this place and your presence will make a difference there and help to inspire those who pray there.

The angels will be with you and you will fulfill a task for God in coming together in prayerful harmony, bringing your love, praying for God's Love, praying for the light to build within this place. There are seekers there and those who have the sensibilities will acknowledge this truth of love and be receptive to the words that you have to say. You need not go into a deep dialogue, no my brethren, simple words, simple prayer, simple love is all that is required.

Give of your heart where there is too much of the mind involved not only in this place but in many places. From those who try to discern truth, they use the instruments of their material minds too much, unaware that they must sink deep within their souls and know those longings, what resides there, what is truly within them. Inspire those you meet on the morrow to go to that place of deep contemplation, opening the door to the soul and to God.

You will be guided. God has a plan my beloveds and each of you will have a place within that beautiful plan for the salvation of mankind. It is for you to learn to quiet your minds and listen to the Will of God. Do not doubt the power of His Love working through you and within you. To grasp what it is that you are meant to do my beloveds and to express this each moment of your lives. For this purpose must be alive within you with each breath, a passion, and a knowing what it is you are meant to do. And for those who go here and there speculating, trying to understand, my beloveds, the key is within your soul. The key is in your communication with your Creator. The key is the strength that comes from this knowing, the strength that comes from His Love growing within you, the strength that comes from the healing and the transformation of your soul.

It is simple. It does not require great learning, research, building complex paradigms of understanding. No, my beloveds, it comes in your relationship with God. It comes in your sincere prayers to your Heavenly Father. It comes with your willingness to open and be touched deep within you. This is not complicated. This is elegant simplicity, gloriously true, powerfully exemplified through your experience with God.

Be in the flow of His Love, my beloveds. Walk this simple truth. Be simple in your ways but truthful, honest and have great faith. And if you can be true to this way, you will draw many to you. For how many can walk in the world in this simple but powerful way?

And this is what many seek. Many are disillusioned in your world. Many are confused and angry and lack love. If you can give love with humility and grace and truth, you give your fellowman a great gift. You allow God to work through you. You teach by your embrace and your gaze and your smile and your presence. You heal by the very nature of your being attuned to God and the flow of His Love.

In this there is no need to convince another but to be in the presence of another. You are a living example of truth if you but choose this stance of love and strength, humility and grace.

Can you do this, my beloveds? Can you walk in this way and put aside your concerns, those thoughts that inevitably are created within you, a reflection of the human condition, and be pure in yourselves and your connection with God and your willingness and capacities to love?

Beloved souls, God entreats you to walk in this way. Many of you have prayed for many years. You have experienced much in life. You see that so much is falling in error around you but rather than judge, you must love. Rather than insist that another change, love them. Be the Love you are meant to be and in this you fulfill God's desire and your purpose. It is very simple, my beloveds, but hard to do in a challenging world and thus we continue to support and uphold you as you continue to practice this simple truth and we will continue to teach and guide, to love and give our love as you continue to struggle and find that beautiful path that is meant for you, my beloveds. You are already upon it and some of you do not realize it and some of you do. Open your eyes, beloveds, open your eyes to what is truly important and precious. Be the light, seek your Heavenly Father in all things and be strong enough to look into yourselves and allow that which is not in harmony with God's Love to fall away. You are strong enough, you are wise enough to do so, beloved souls.

God bless you. And we will be with you on the morrow as you take up your flames and join them together in loving celebration of God's beautiful Truth of Love.

God bless you, your teacher Augustine loves you dearly and is with you always, God bless you.

Title: You are Voices for Truth

(Message received after a group prayer for the Sioux Indian protests at Standing Rock, North Dakota)

Blessings to you brothers and sisters, I am White Cloud. I have heard your prayers for my brothers and sisters who struggled mightily in this world and for this planet that also struggles to retain its equilibrium. I tell you that those who are resisting and calling out the truth do so because in their hearts they know the truth and there will be many more in this world who will gather together and speak the truth, and this may cause division in the world but there needs to be a voice crying for truth and love in the world. For too long the world has suffered from the abuses of man, the greed and the inability to love.

And for you, my brothers and sisters, who know the truth of God's Love, it is for you to shout out this truth to the world, to give this truth to the world, not in an insistent way but in a gentle way, a way in which you demonstrate and carry the truth within you and act upon the Truth as you live your life each day. And there will be times when you will have the opportunity to speak, to bring God's Love as an acknowledged Truth in the world. Pray for those opportunities to come to you, beloveds, but most of all pray that you each day will come closer and more fully into the truth of His Love, that you may shed all that is within that is not of this Truth and Love, that you may walk with a dignity and a purpose in the world that says "I am a child of God and I am a channel of God's Love and I love you".

For all of these abuses in the world stem from a lack of love. They stem from a lack of love, my brethren. Each of you have struggled with this very issue, for the entire world struggles with this and you have overcome much and you are coming into a new awareness, each one of you, as to the power of God's Love, the glory and the joy of God's Love and you will shed whatever mantle of pain and error that you carry and walk forth in this freedom and this liberation of your souls as your souls awaken to this truth more fully and more beautifully.

Continue to serve God, beloveds. Continue to live the Truth and continue to speak the Truth when that opportunity arises. And yes, pray for your brethren who also seek to express Truth, to bring healing to this world, to bring change that is of healing and light. For all need your prayers. This world needs your prayers. The children need your prayers. The lost souls need your prayers. The hungry need your prayers. Those in pain need your prayers. All need your prayers, my beloveds, for what will save the world? Not violence, not insistence, but love, and the strongest man and woman is the one who can express love, the most powerful agent for change in this world, in the universe is love.

Seek to express love in all that you do. Seek to serve in love each day. Seek your Heavenly Father to receive His Love so that it may flow through you in all aspects of your life and be humble, be gracious, be gentle, be strong.

God bless you, beloveds. I am White Cloud and I am with you in your efforts, in your prayers, in your struggles. God bless you.

Title: A Prayer for Those on the Path of Love

Father, bless these my children, who bear the flame of Your Love, who carry the mantle of Truth within them, who are truly Your Children as they walk through this world. May Your Grace enfold them as they yearn and grow within themselves. May Your Love transform them as they go amongst their brothers and sisters. May Your Blessings flow from them that they may carry this blessed purpose to bring the seeds of Truth, to show the way of Love, to carry the Light of purity as they continue to yearn for You, my Beloved Father.

Give them the nourishment that they long for. Open their eyes. Awaken their souls. Help them to see the glories of Your Presence, the wonderment of Your Creation, the beauty that is within each one, that they may be a clear channel of Your Love, dear Father, in the world, bringing that gift of Truth to those who hunger and know not what they hunger for. Help them, inspire them, Beloved Father, to speak the words of Truth, to express the words of Love through simple acts of comfort and kindness, gentleness, as they embrace each soul they encounter. May Your Hand be upon them as they seek to be with You, Beloved Father. May their souls open and flower to the touch of Your Love and may they walk with the strength that comes with humility and may they act with the wisdom that comes with deep peace and may they know the joy, the fervent joy of Your Wondrous Presence within them.

Beloved souls, you are gifted with life and you are gifted again with life, the rebirth of your souls in Love.

Continue, beloved souls, to seek this great gift and to bring this great gift of life, of Love into your life, into your world and allow God's Will to flow through you with ease and grace and beauty and strength. That He will guide you as your souls grow in the wisdom of His Love and you will know what it is to be God's channels of Love in this world. This is God's gift to you, beloveds, not because He has pointed you out but because you have accepted this gift and you desire this gift. You have brought the Grace to your beloved souls and you have asked for this Blessing and God has put within you a deep desire, a longing to receive and you must acknowledge this and continue to pray for this great gift of His Love so that the transformation of your souls may be complete and the healing of your beings will bring perfect Light, joy, and peace.

Beloved souls, you have been touched by God and you shall continue to be touched and to grow in this Light. This flame that burns within you will become greater and greater as you allow God to fully embrace you in this Love, as you release those conditions that are not of Love, as you increase your faith in this simple but powerful Truth and you walk in this world trusting in God's Will, enacting His Love in beautiful and powerful ways, knowing that there are many gifts within each one of you waiting to be expressed and amplified by His Touch of Love.

Continue in your prayers and efforts, beloved souls. Carry this flame. Hold it on high and declare "I am a child of God. I am a bearer of His Truth which is His Love, made manifest in my soul". Many await your declaration. Many await the true expression of your souls. Many await that clear channel of God's Love contained within you.

Continue, my beloved brothers and sisters, in your fervent efforts to declare the Truth, to live the Truth, to acknowledge how much you are loved in the embrace of God.

Beloved souls, I am with you. I am Jesus and I love you.

Title: Know This Love Which None Can Describe Completely

Thank you for gathering here this day. Thank you for saying the prayer for the Father's Love. For indeed, you all are the objects of His tenderest care and ministrations and I would ask you all to seek love above all else and to bring within your beings, your souls, that touch of Divine Love. Feel its beautiful and priceless touch within you that none can describe completely. For in order to know it you must experience it. May you all experience this Touch of Love. May you all seek it with that yearning from your souls. And in this Touch you begin a journey that lasts for all eternity, for this Love may be blessed to you over and over again for all eternity, my beloveds. A great expansion, an infilling into your souls, transforming, healing, bringing you ever closer to the Father's Embrace and showing you the way to atonement with God.

God bless you beloved souls. Seek this truth. Seek this love and I assure you that you will open doors of wonderment, doors of beauty, doors filled with light. It is your choice, beloved souls. It is a gift offered to you. And it is our fervent desire that you grasp this gift, that you open to this opportunity, for it is simple, it takes little time, it takes but a sincere effort and it will indeed change your life, given enough of this Blessing within you.

God bless you and thank you for allowing me to speak. I am Matthew and I inhabit the Celestial Kingdom and I love you. God bless you.

Title: Giving Love in Simple Ways Brings the Greatest Blessings

You have had a busy time connecting with many different souls in this day and I want to reassure you that we were with you with all of these activities. There was a blessing given to every soul who you have encountered in this day and there was a deep healing and reassurance to the dear souls who have felt a difficulty with some of you.

It is important that you embrace all my beloveds. It is important to allow the flow of God's Love to all you meet, to walk in this Light. Do not restrict the flow of His Love. Wherever you go, embrace and accept, be loving and kind, generous to all and allow God to work through you, each one of you, beautiful channels, fountains of joy, loving children of God.

And you see there is nothing specific you must do to make this loving connection with others but to be your joyful self, to walk in truth, to be connected to God, be open to His Love and flow of His Love through you. This is not difficult. This is not complicated. And yes, you wonder as to what you may do to further the truths of God's Love to mankind. You forget my beloveds that God has a plan that will indeed further these truths to mankind. And as the changes in the world unfold, as the hunger of humanity intensifies, as the need for love grows. As you grow in His Love, those connections will be made, those words will be spoken and many will accept what you have to say and many more will be touched by your examples and much will be accomplished through your willingness to live in the truth, to dedicate your day to God, to be that channel of love wherever you go.

And as you continue in this way, you will find the ways in which you may reach others and truly communicate to them in profound ways, in simple ways, in loving ways. It is not difficult, but it is easy to put the responsibility outside of yourself, to think that others must respond to you in a certain way. No, my beloveds, you are responsible wholly for yourselves and in how you are in the world to be that channel of love, to allow God to inspire and work through you so that there is a deep connection with another soul and there may not be one word spoke of Divine Love but many words spoken in love and this communicates to the other soul, opens that door, inspires in subtle ways and God will indeed touch that soul. It is not for you to feel responsible for this touch to take place, only for you to be present in some way and that may even be a thought or a prayer for another.

There are so many ways that God can use you my beloveds, so many opportunities and there are many opportunities which God uses to work through you that you are not even aware. There is the aspect of the world of spirit in which you are being watched and you are making impressions upon others who are in the world of spirit observing you and learning from you my beloveds.

So there are many dimensions and aspects to this service of bringing truth to mankind. And when the time comes, you will see manifestations, you will talk to many souls in this world. There will be a mighty channel of truth and blessings for all. But for now, my beloveds, you must concentrate on your own relationship with God and your own relationship with each individual you come across in your daily life. God will put those opportunities before you and God will gather the souls, as He is at this moment, for you to speak truth to, to pray with, to love.

Do not restrict the flow of God's Will and His Love by formulating a plan and ways which must be done in accordance to your understanding. No, my beloveds, the time for you, my beloveds, is for you to be humble of service, simple, direct, truthful and loving in all that you do. And in time the doors will open in accordance to your progression, in accordance to the gifts that are open by God's Love within you, in accordance to your awakening and understanding. This does not mean that God does not appreciate what it is that you do; gathering groups together to bring this truth, but we sense your disappointment at least for some for the numbers of new and eager souls were not present in your effort but I tell you the greater work was done this morning, the greater souls were touched, not because you stood up and spoke the truth as clearly and as boldly as you could but because you came and gave love and sang with the other souls and joined with them.

And this does not mean that you condoned error. No, my beloveds, it means that you stood for truth and you walked in the light and you gave what God directed you to give much of it you did not recognize, but I tell you now beloved souls you did a great work this day and in your celebration this day you have mended fences, you gave love, you brought a simple loving truth with you and allowed it to flow. This is doing God's work. And yes, you made the effort to come to this place, and you made an effort with those dear souls in the church and you made an effort with your friends and you made an effort with each other and this is also doing God's work. For in each effort, each activity, each connection, you brought love, you brought God's Love. You brought a willingness to be loving and you put away your judgments, you put aside your expectations. You allowed God to pour through you to others and did you not feel the joy in this, how right it was, how beautiful this Love manifests, how joyful.

Think of this my beloveds. Think of the simple ways that you can serve God. Think of how you can walk in the world and be that bright shining light and touch many.

And as for those big projects, those visions of connecting with many, many souls, of declaring the truth to the world. Allow God to guide you. Allow yourselves to fit into God's plan and be in harmony with His Will and all will unfold in beautiful ways. And yes, there will be times when the truth will not be spoken so clearly in words but it will be declared loudly in love.

Walk in this light my beloveds. Allow God to embrace you always and be in that beautiful flow of His Will, His Love, His Light, His Peace and all will be well. All is well!

We are joyed by the efforts that you have made and you did indeed declare the simple truth of love today and God is pleased and we are pleased and do you not feel that pleasing sensation within your souls? Remember beloveds this day and how God used you and how pleased you felt, joyful, in harmony. This is how light is brought to the world my beloveds by each shining soul expressing love in simple and powerful ways. And you will continue to do so in many different ways. Bringing your gifts forward, allowing love to flow, releasing those conditions which vex you and allowing love to flow.

There is always room for love. There are always opportunities for love and it is always your choice to love, to allow those opportunities to unfold in harmony, in light. When your mind feels as if it needs to obstruct this, my beloveds, you are mature enough and you are strong enough to sidestep those things, those differences, those judgments, those hurts that would obstruct the flow of love. Forgive those who would hurt you. Forgive yourself. Forgiveness is a powerful tool for clearing away error and bringing love.

Allow all to flow in joy and you will know a rich and glorious life and all those thoughts and ambitions of serving God will be fulfilled in His Timing and in ways that are of His Wisdom and Will. This will come. You must have patience. Continue to grow in the Love. To be infilled with Love. To release in Love all those things that are not of love and all will be well my beloveds. All will be well. God bless you beloved souls and I love you. I love you.

Title: Accept the Transformation of Your Souls

(Speaking in a loud voice)

I doubt you will have trouble hearing my voice today and it is good that you pray for one another to allow the healing energies and the blessings to flow freely amongst yourselves.

Beloved souls, each member of this little circle is precious to God and each has work to do for the Heavenly Father. So, I would urge you not to focus on any individual but to focus on every individual in your circle. Pray for them, pray for their continued advancement in the Love, that their souls grow and expand in this Love, that their souls awaken in this Love. For it is crucial that each of you who are able will step forward in the light of service and that their channels as channel of love be developed fully and clearly.

For God has much work to do for those who are willing. This world is in great need of transformation, of healing, of light, and God has set in motion a change agent that will bring about a balancing of the world, a healing of this planet and in so doing He has made His clarion call to those who will listen. Step forth in the world in truth, be in that flow of Love, His love, and take up the challenge. For all about you, even in this precious place, there is a need for healing and truth, goodness and harmony. For unfortunately, wherever mankind has put their foot, they have brought not harmony but have created many challenges in the world, have confronted the natural world with ideas, ambitions and personal desires, and many other aspects that are not of God and have stressed many places upon this world to the point of breaking. And you, my emissaries, my beautiful souls, you are aware of this, you know the world is in deep need and you have come to God in deep need to be healed, to bring balance to yourself, to bring love to your soul, to bring truth to your minds.

And I say to those who have walked this road for some distance; continue to pray for this world, continue to pray for all those who are connected to you my beloveds, continue to pray for yourselves; that your eyes may be opened fully, that your hearts may glow in love, that your efforts be blessed in this world and that God will guide you.

The time approaches where you will be called upon in ways that you cannot truly understand at this time but you will be called upon my beloveds, to do and to be in ways that are effective and powerful and difficult. For to bring change into the world is not an easy task, no my beloveds. You feel the joy of being together this day, a gift from God, a beautiful gift from God. You all love one another and make great effort to accommodate one another, to pray together in this way and to bring this light, this beautiful light, amongst you. But when you go out in the world you will find many challenges, as you well know; others who do not understand your message, many who turn away, while some are able to agree with you, to be with you. Yet you must persist, my beloveds. God gives you the gift of your time together to replenish and to heal, to strengthen and to teach and this has a purpose, my beloveds, these great efforts made by the angels, by God, to enfold you in His love, to give to you all that you require to be strong and in the light, is for a purpose. This purpose has many aspects to it, one of course, is to bring you into alignment with God for your own personal blessing and growth and benefits. There are also other responsibilities that come with this great blessing; to walk in the world in harmony, to be guided by God, to enact His Will in this world. It is easy for you to envelop yourself in your own little worlds, safe, filled with love and comfort, joy and peace. Yes, my beloveds, this is the easy part, but the difficult and challenging part is when you go into the world to fight the darkness in harmony, those challenging conditions, the wrongs in the world, and this is difficult. There are many who need you but if you are not out amongst mankind there is no way that God can use you as a channel to touch others and it is not for you to decide, to formulate how this will be accomplished. This connection to many souls who are in need of this channel of Love, must be utilized in many different ways. No, my beloveds, it is for you to listen to God in those times when you are enwrapped in light and feel the comfort and the peace in your communion with your Heavenly Father.

In these times, God will direct you. His quiet voice will ring forth into your consciousness and direct you. And it is your choice whether you will listen or enact the guidance given; it is always your choice. If you refuse, it does not mean that God loves you any less, no my children, God will always love you but when you pray "Dear Father, make me an instrument of your peace, a channel of your love" you are asking God to direct you, to open those channels of service in your life and in accordance to your gifts, your personalities, your desires and the light within your souls. God will utilize you in wise and wondrous ways in this world to serve, to make contact with other souls, to bring healing and comfort, truth and love.

And it does mean that you must put aside your biases and your fears, your feelings of inadequacy and to accept that you are loved, that you are truly loved and that you are precious in God's sight and that in the Love that God has put within you comes a strength and wisdom and knowing that will refute those parts within yourselves which doubt, which criticize, which turn inward in negativity.

As your soul becomes activated in the Love, these other things which reside within your minds must be released for the conflicts that they create between your mind and your soul make your life very difficult and uncomfortable. You must allow, as our dear brother prays, for your soul to take ascendancy over your mind. This is the key, my beloveds, we continue to teach this truth, the power of the soul, the wonderment of the soul.

As this transformation takes affect within you and you feel its affects you know it is changing you and that your mind begins to acquiesce to your soul. You are well on your way to becoming that beautiful channel that God so desires you to be. Expressing all those beautiful potentials that God has put within you, my beloveds and being utilized in surprising ways. Your life will change because what is important to you, what is foremost in your consciousness will change and the soul will expand into every part of your being as the Love ignites your beautiful soul and brings new awarenesses, new understandings as those desires of the mind fall away and the knowings of the soul replaces and bring a new perspective into you.

Many of you are on the verge of a more powerful knowing. Your minds continue to resist yet you come together because your souls draw you together to reinforce this new awakening. That you may remove your old garments and don new garments of light.

Beloved souls, each of you are beautiful, each of you carries a great potential and each of you are needed by God to bring healing and truth and love to this world. I know you have trouble reconciling this invitation with your own perceptions of who you are, but I tell you, your souls know, your souls easily understand and you must come to that place of allowing your souls to take that place of precedence, accepting the truth that you carry within you, my beloveds. And from there you will see the unfolding and awakening of a new life, a life guided by God, where all unfolds in harmony with His Will and I know that you all want this, my beloveds, you all yearn for this, yet each of you in some way, is frightened of the possibility of these tremendous changes that will take place within you and around you. You are nervous or you are doubtful. Whatever the case, you must put aside these feelings and doubts and accept your destinies in the light.

This is the power of God's Love acting within you, my beloveds. It is inevitable and because you are still human there is a resistance and this battle that takes place within you. And I tell you, my beloveds, every angel has in some part of their existence encountered these very dilemmas and some carry these dilemmas for a very long time while others gladly remove their old cloaks and don the cloaks of light. It is your choice, the pace of your own progression, but what I see amongst you that each of you has a beautiful light, each of you has at this moment what you require to make this transition of consciousness, to readjust your focus and your priorities so that they are more in alignment with God's Will and existence and this is what is desperately required in this world; those who are willing to accept the truth and to live it fully. Can you do this my beloveds? Are you willing? Are you open to a new way of being? Are you willing to allow your minds to be infused with a new consciousness that will forever change you? Yes, this is a deep challenge, a crucial challenge, a difficult challenge but you have chosen within your souls to take up this challenge and to truly change within you. And you will, provided you go to your Heavenly Father for sustenance, for His Love. It is inevitable and it will unfold in harmony and I pray for you as do all the angels in the Heavens, my beloveds, all the angels in the Heavens pray that you will make this transformation, that you will allow it to take place, for it is crucial, it is necessary and it has the potential to not only change you my beloveds but to change the world.

For as you walk in the world as a transformed and beautiful soul, the manifestations of God's Love and healing and blessings will be mighty indeed, through you and all about you. So we pray for you, my beloveds, many, many angels watch you and watch over you and assist you in whatever way that they can. And there are others in the world who are also being watched and carried and assisted and you will all join together one day forming a great movement that cries out for healing of this world.

It begins, you begin, the transformation begins. Be in this world but not of this world, my beloveds. Be God's beautiful channels of Love.

God bless you. Your teacher Augustine loves you and I am with you, never to leave always to love. God bless you.

And I do appreciate the roses. I appreciate all of you who are roses in God's great beautiful garden and I am with you often. I am with you often.

Continue in your efforts and prayers. Continue to love one another. It is beautiful to behold. If you could see your own lights, my dear friends, I think you would be surprised how bright and beautiful they are and how you draw many spirits to you as you gather in your prayers and in this way to acknowledge God and His Love, to bring your joyful spirits together and to love each other. It is beautiful to behold and I am so happy to see this. I am so happy for my dear, beloved Jim whom I am close to always and for all of you who try to bring light to this world.

Beloved souls, God bless you and keep you. God bless you and keep you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: KEEA ATTA KEM

---

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: December 5, 2016

Title: Be Scientists of the Soul

Keea Atta Kem.

You have been tilling fertile ground, my beloveds, in your efforts to love and surround the dear soul who is questioning and seeking and you have brought within that place a great blessing from God through your prayers and intentions.

Beloved souls, continue to till the ground in many places in this world. Many of you will travel to many places, to all the continents of the world and to many of the countries that form those continents. And you will till fertile ground in simple and humble ways and in ways that are dramatic and powerful. Your words, my beloveds, your words will be heard. Your message of love which is God's message of love will be spoken and will be interpreted into many languages the world over.

And you wonder how this can be as you continue to draw in souls in the various ways in which you are communicating and connecting with others. And to you it seems a very slow process, but think of it as creating a wheel in motion, the momentum that is required, the power to empower this motion, the light that is generated by these many efforts. It takes time as you grow the light within your souls and this light is contributed into this great effort. As you change and evolve and grow, so you add different qualities of light to this flame, this great swirling flame.

My beloveds, the understandings that we ask of you, to envelop and to adopt and to know within your souls are high teachings, powerful teachings of truth and this takes time for you to be ready to receive them, to be ready to enact them in your lives and of course this requires an activation within your soul so that you may truly be able to comprehend what is given and to teach as a channel to others.

Many of you have had a variety of experiences. You have had unique life paths and experiences and this too contributes to the body of knowledge and perception of the truth. You continue to grow, to widen your awareness, to bring into yourselves greater love, to understand the truth of God's great creation with more finesse, more capacity to understand the subtleties of these truths. As you strengthen in the Love you are more able to integrate this greater knowledge into your consciousness and your life. And so it goes, my beloveds, we await, we await your growth in the Love, your ability to release error and your desire to adopt truth in many, many ways and aspects of truth and to make it truly a part of yourselves.

Yes, truth, the quality of truth, the immensity of truth is staggering and we cannot possibly expect that you will absorb and know all of the truths of the universe in your life but you have made a good beginning. You have adopted many foundational and powerful truths in your lives and you continue to grow in this and find your way. In the beginning when you read a truth or someone explains a truth to you, it is subject to many interpretations within your minds which is a response to your life experience and what you know from this experience, the education you have received, the books you have read, the conversations you have had. All of these are mere reflections and shadows of truth. It is when your souls are awakened and the faculties of your souls have been exercised and utilized, you are fully able to understand truth in a way that your mind is not capable of. And so this is a somewhat tedious process for each one of you as you continue to live a life in this world, a world that constantly bombards you with much error, many intellectual thoughts and stimuli. Much of which detracts from this pursuit of truth and in many cases this is not of your fault or your desire but is a fact of life for each one of you as you move through the world.

Many of you have concerns about various issues in the world, the state of your nations, the state of your cultures and the foundational aspects of how life is in this world at this time, and so this draws your attention, you continue to absorb more facts and information, building within your minds very large constructs of reality. Indeed God gave you a material mind in order to have the capacity to understand material things and I know this must seem contradictory as you are being guided to develop the mind of your soul, to develop your soul and improve the condition of your soul. Yet all around you is encouragement to develop the faculties of your mind, the material mind. It is a difficult balance. It is a path fraught with many diversions, entanglements, and this is why God, in His Mercy and Love for you, sends His angels to assist you as we help to influence you as you try to balance and bring into clarity truth and winnow out erroneous facts and absorb powerful truths.

Yes, we understand your struggles, we know that each day is a struggle and yet it need not to be so as you start each day with a prayer, with the desire to be close to God, to share as you do at this time the loving condition and nature of your souls with one another and into your life. Does it matter if you know many facts of the Earth and how the Earth is in a material sense? For some, it is important, for some these facts are important for your livelihood but for many of you it is irrelevant. You are not to have fear or to fear ignorance. My beloveds, there is another kind of knowledge, a deeper knowledge, a deeper understanding that comes with your relationship with your Heavenly Father and this knowledge is not widely known. It is not easily accessed in this world. Yet you have the key to understand this. And I would encourage you to put an emphasis on understanding the world through the eyes of God, through the eyes of your soul, through your spiritual eyes. For this is what is sorely needed in the world. There are millions of books filled with millions of facts. Mankind has spent unfathomable amounts of hours researching the world and the facts are within these books. The knowledge is accumulated and yes, there is much more to understand and to know, but the soul has been pitifully neglected. You my brothers and sisters are scientists of the soul. It is your job, your opportunity, to research the development of a soul, your own soul and all the souls who are with you in this great effort. To put your focus upon the opening and flowering of your souls and what this means and what this is and the many, many aspects of this great development of soul. Maybe someday you will write a book that details these things. What a wonderful body of knowledge that would be in the world. To do so from the perspective of a soul growing in Divine Love, opening in Divine Love, living Divine Love.

So I encourage you, my beloveds, and I will tell you that when you make these efforts and truly focus and are committed, you will have all the support from the angels. You will be given much insight and understanding but first you must learn how to obtain this information; how to understand in this way through the way of the soul, what this is these delicate wisps of truth, must weave them together into something strong and viable and when you do so through your prayers and efforts and contemplations and meditations you will be able to clearly translate this knowledge through your minds to others in whatever way you choose to do so. But you must first open that channel of awareness within you, to be cognizant of the ways of the soul, the power of the soul. To go deep within yourselves, my beloveds, to be with God in a way that you are never away from God. To be within your soul in a way that informs your life. To walk this path of love and not stray upon the distractions of the mind. This is challenging, but it is so very vital and important. For if you are to travel the world and give this message of love, if you are to touch many souls through your example and who you are in that light, you must come to that place of deep awareness, that place that Jesus was embodied into and his disciples understood in time. So you, as his disciples, will embody this truth in a way that is unshakeable, unassailable and powerful.

It requires prayer, requires a deep faith, it requires humility, it requires a deep, deep commitment to explore these truths. Explore them from within yourselves, within your soul consciousness, and to feed this exploration through your prayers for the Father's Love.

Bring forth truth, my beloveds, it is so very, very close to you and yet you continue to be amply distracted by the material world. Yes, my beloveds, you live in the material world, this is a given, and yet you begin to espouse this phrase 'in the world but not of the world', while what I have spoken of this day is not of the world but to be of your soul in communion with God and living your life in this way, in an active way, in a way that expresses truth in ways that you do not even dream of at this time but will manifest and come to fruition as you continue upon your faithful journey towards God and towards truth.

Blessings to you my beloveds, I am Keea and I am with you often and I guide some of you here and I am a teacher and I will continue to teach you, my beloveds, if you have ears to listen and a heart and a desire to know truth.

May the Father's Love find a constant inflowing into your souls beloveds. May you feel that closeness with God that overshadows all things within you and within your lives. To know that connection as the mainstay and foundation of your life my beloveds, to feel His Love burning within you, burning away the clouds of misunderstanding and error and bringing the clarity and beauty of God's truth embodied within your being, expressed through you as an instrument of God's Love and truth and healing for the world.

Beloved souls, you are truly loved, you have much to give and you will give as you grow, more intensely, more beautifully to those whom you will encounter in this world. The world awaits your wisdom; it awaits God's truth. Fulfill God's desire that this truth and wisdom will come with simple clarity and powerful revelation and beautiful, gentle, reassuring and comforting words of beauty and truth and grace.

God bless you. Keea loves you. Keea loves you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: SERETTA KEM

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: December 6, 2016

Title: Mediumship

Greetings to you, my fellow travelers upon the Divine Path. I am Seretta Kem and I wish today to talk on the subject of mediumship since many of you are interested in this particular subject and it is a blessing indeed to be able to communicate to you in words through a medium in this circle.

Firstly, though I wish to emphasize that when you are a part of a circle of prayer, your prime objective is to seek the Divine Love within your souls, to pray to be used as channels of love and healing and blessings for others, to bring the presence of God in your midst, to have a deep communion between yourselves and your Heavenly Father.

Now, because you have formed a circle and your desires are for communication with the angels and they harmonize with your desires for connections with God you are able to benefit with the blessing of a message from an angel. Perhaps a teaching, or words of encouragement and love. And we who are with you and support you are happy to communicate through an appropriate medium.

Firstly, the conditions must be built within your circles. For when you reach for the highest it is indeed an effort of reaching, of pulling in those conditions harmonious with Divine Love, harmonious with the teachings of Divine Love, harmonious with the angels of Divine Love. So the Laws of Communication and Rapport come into effect, firstly, from your desires, your prayers, the harmonious condition which you have built amongst yourselves. Often those who belong to a circle of prayer where there are mediums present are very desirous of a message, they have expectations of such. This, my brethren, is not an attitude that you must cultivate amongst yourselves for the blessing of Divine Love has far greater importance within a circle than words of encouragement from an angel. Yet, when conditions are right, we do indeed step forward and we are happy to do so but we do not want to distract you from this primary effort in prayer and communication with God.

So much more happens within a Circle of Light than many of you are aware of. Some get glimpses, some see visions, some see the light that is generated in a Circle of Light and how it is dispersed to many souls. For you are generating a great deal through your prayers, your efforts together, and it is of a great deal of importance that you recognize that you are responsible for the conditions that you bring within the circle, your thoughts and the desires of your soul. It is very important that you make efforts each day to be with God in prayer and to receive His Divine Love. With each day that passes a concerted effort, my beloveds, is important. In doing so you create within yourself a light within your soul, as you well know, and when you bring your lights together in a circle such as this, you create conditions that are favourable for the angels to draw close and for God to be in your presence. In these conditions it is easy for us to communicate.

Now, for those who are often present in circles where communication does take place there is a tendency of expectation, even a casual air, where there is a particular condition of expectation and acceptance. One might even say that it is taken for granted that messages are given and that there is a perception that this is an easy task. It is not an easy task, my friends, for the angels to come and speak in this way and come and make rapport with each one of you. This is unusual on the earth plane. We do not move about the earth easily for these conditions are not in harmony with the soul condition of an angel. So these are exceptional circumstances and we understand for those who do not participate in these circles often, that to receive a message is something to be prized and appreciated. And conditions must also be built by us for this to take place. You have experienced the differences in particular locations when you sit in circle in this way. It is important to have a condition that is harmonious, to be in a place where light is easily generated, for all concerned to be comfortable and in a prayerful stance. It is important that you all focus as one voice in your prayers and your efforts to reach the highest.

There are many mechanics involved from our side of life that I will not go into because they are complex and it would be difficult to deliver these complexities through this instrument and it would take a great deal of time to do so. Suffice to say that it keeps us very busy to create, to assist in building the conditions in this room and amongst you. It is also helpful that you are in a prayerful and meditative stance, a quietness, a receptivity, a sense of togetherness, fellowship and love.

Indeed, your responsibility in this regard comes somewhat naturally for those who have much practice in this routine. It is not difficult to pray, to be quiet, to be open and to listen, but at times, it can be challenging for the medium to continue an extended time of rapport and communication when there are distractions about, noises and lights.

For the medium must allow a certain channel and component of their material minds to be opened and allow the words to flow without interruption and without their particular thoughts coming into play and spoken with the message. A medium who is able to focus in this way and to step beyond their own mental condition is a good medium and some go very deep into trance, while others are aware of what is being spoke. It varies from one to another. And we work with many mediums on many different levels. Each soul has some mediumistic qualities and can be used in many different ways from healing, to giving impressions, to bringing voices through, even direct voice.

Yes, there are many aspects to mediumship as there are with many things to do with the spirit and the soul and I know you all find this very interesting. You all are eager to have experiences which bring inspiration and truth forward in your consciousness but I would not recommend that you push the issue, that your will intervenes so that certain gifts are opened prematurely.

For gifts open and flower with God's blessings in a fluid and harmonious way. In many respects the gifts that are open within are often ignored because you are firmly planted within your minds, your material minds and you do not recognize what is happening on a deeper level. And this can only come when you have attuned yourself to your souls. You are aware of what is percolating within yourself and what can manifest through you, your beautiful souls.

It takes time. It takes a grounding in the truth. It takes a desire for the highest and a discipline to walk this Divine Path. For many things can be manifest with spirits who are operating through you who are not of the Celestial. Yes, each one of you could easily open to this and bring forth many manifestations but what is the value of this, my beloveds. What do you gain by it? All that manifests on this Divine Path is the joyful acknowledgement of God. It is useful for the progression of your souls. It is done in God's wisdom and guidance. This is what you must aim for, always, when you walk the Divine Path and nothing less than this, my beloveds.

For if you walk a lower road you will find you are distracted, diverted, enmeshed, and entangled in conditions that are not all together for your benefit and when you work with God all is for your benefit, my beloveds, all enhances your life and also enhances many other lives as you utilize your gifts, as God utilizes your gifts for the service of mankind.

And each day you are confronted with the choice of reaching for the highest, of acknowledging that what is of God is what is important, you must ask yourself these questions. What are my motives? What do I desire and why do I desire this? Am I desiring this because I want to serve God more fully? Am I allowing God to work through me in ways that He deems through His Wisdom to be effective in a beautiful outpouring of Love or am I seeking for my own personal comforts or to bring something to myself which will make me feel good about myself?

These are the traps within the human condition. This is how many are confused and do not understand the purpose and the power of the spiritual gifts of the soul. They are for the good of mankind, yet often they are unrecognized by many and this is not important. It is important to manifest the light and love that is within your soul in ways guided by God. All else is often irrelevant for when you are truly in alignment with God and you walk with Him in this harmonious way, your fulfillment comes with this relationship of love, from that deep communion between your soul and God's Soul. When this is so, then many things will manifest through you and they will feel natural and good. You will prosper in joy. You will benefit in many blessings and you will not see the recognition of others as something wholly important. No, the recognition that comes from God will be your fervent desire. You will place your focus upon the Heavenly Father.

It is better to be in prayer and know and feel His Love than to see us spirits or have us communicate through you, or to manifest other things, for if this is done without love, it is hollow, it is a distraction.

So, my beloveds, is the gift of mediumship a crucial gift? No, it is a blessing. It is a benefit that comes as your souls grow in the love but without it, is there something you were missing in a prayer? No, you receive God's Love, the greatest gift of all and this comes wordless, in a deep flow of connection and recognition and you must seek this above all else. There is nothing greater than this gift, my beloveds, and this is your focus, this is your time with God. And yes, we will take advantage of times together such as these to speak to you as a gift of love and it is our hope that you will listen to these words, possibly listen more than once and contemplate what we have to say because our desire is to educate and facilitate your growth in whatever way, whatever channel and instrument and gift that can be used to encourage and to educate, to open you to higher levels of understanding. But I will warn you, if within a message there is no mention of God's Love, that it is not about the opening and flowering of the soul, it is not from an angel and you must discern for yourself through your own soul's acknowledgement to the spirit of truth, what comes through as true and relevant to the development of your souls.

There are many messages in the world and philosophies, understandings that contain truth. I do not mean to say that they are irrelevant, but you must, if you are committed to the Divine Path, be able to discern between the teachings of the Natural Path and those of the Divine Path if you are to remain consistently upon this path. I do not suggest that you reject all else but that which is of the angel's teachings, but to have a discernment and not to be overly distracted by these teachings is beneficial to you. For, remember, it is your souls you are developing not your minds and most teachings upon the Natural Path are based upon the development of the mental faculties, the purification of the soul but not the expansion of the soul in the Divine Love.

So when you encounter a circle and there are messages therein, listen carefully, use your ability to discern, be strong and of good faith and you will know, you will know.

I have spoken a great deal, my beloveds and I hope I have brought clearly through some understandings about the gift of mediumship and the gift of communication and rapport with the angels. It is not something to be taken lightly and it is a gift for you on Earth to have such things but the greatest gift is the gift of Divine Love, which you must focus upon above all else. And in time for those who are somewhat confused, the confusion will subside and you will know in a clear way what it is that you truly desire within your souls and this will bring you joy. You will not want for knowledge. You will not want for love and you will feel a deep and abiding joy and peace.

I thank you my beloveds. I am Seretta Kem. I thank you for listening and I bid you blessings of love. I am your humble servant. I am with you often and I am happy to speak. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: Do not Worry for the Lost Souls but be Fully in the Light

(Standing)

By the Grace of God, I give you my blessings, it is Jesus.

My brethren, do not spend time worrying about how you pray. For a prayer is a prayer is it not? And a prayer from the heart, a longing from the soul is a longing to God. You need not worry as to how this longing is presented to God for God knows your longing before you know your longing.

He cares for you each day. He nurtures your light and He surrounds you with His bountiful blessings. Each and every one is within the embrace of our Heavenly Father. Do not worry for those who are entangled within the dogma of religion. Each soul will find their way to God in some way. It is not your responsibility to lead the soul in error to light. It is your responsibility to lead your own soul into the light and in so doing you become an example for other souls and it is then their choice to open their eyes and to see. They must open their eyes, my beloveds, and so you must open your eyes and look to the source of Love. Beseech your Heavenly Father to touch you deeply with His Essence, to bring the changes that are necessary within yourselves and as you pray together your responsibility is indeed to reach to God and to ask God to bless you and to ask God to bless others, beloveds. As he blesses you so He shall bless those who are connected to you, my beloveds.

This is not complicated. No, this is so simple and powerful and thou you may not see the effects of your prayers, there are indeed many, many blessings that pour through you, amongst you, and from you to others. And in your prayers together, in harmony, in one voice, you bring the angels into your midst. You are God's active agents bringing blessings to many.

This is your responsibility as a group, my beloveds, to reach to God to bring this light forth amongst you and allow God and His instruments of Love to work in this world.

Do not worry for the lost souls. Do not feel responsible for those who create darkness in this world. Do not think you can change another, my beloveds. You can only pray and ask for the light to shine within yourselves as a lantern and as you walk in the world you will be a light and God will direct you and guide you as you continue to be a light and hold dear within yourselves the truth of His Love; as you continue to grow in this Love and release all those things within you that are not of love.

Yes, your eyes will open, many gifts will come forth and you will walk with a new vision where all of these questions of the mind are answered and all in the flow of Love will be directed in harmony and in powerful ways as God directs you and uses you as His channel of Love.

Indeed, there are trying times coming for this world, a time of change and flux and you have been brought together to be replenished and nourished, strengthened. To strengthen your bonds together, for indeed you will need one another and you will work together to bring the simple truth as you walk in love, in light together.

Be clear within yourselves, my beloveds, what is truth. Do not be confused. Do not doubt but build your faith, your trust in your Heavenly Father and know that confusion and doubt will fall away. You will know deep knowings, deep understandings of truth. You will know as you walk in the world what you must do, what you must say, how you must be, where you will be. The flow of God's Will working within you, beloveds.

It requires faith. It requires a deep strength within you and an understanding that God indeed requires your acknowledgement to acquiesce to His Will as you love him more deeply, doing so becomes an easy and joyful task and in this you will not lose yourselves but gain an entire universe of joy and truth and peace.

My beloveds, I am with you. I continue to walk with you, to love you as my own, for you are my own, the family of God's children who seek to express His Love. Beloveds, walk with me and know that you are safe, you are guided and you are in the light. There is nothing you need, my beloveds, but the nourishment, the living waters of the Father's Love. All else will come with this great and deep blessing. All else flows from this Love and you know this beloveds. Be with this Love, be with this Love beloveds as you build the light within you and amongst you. God bless you, my beloveds.

Title: Be Fully with God in Your Prayers

Our Master has given you a powerful blessing. He brings his love to encourage you upon your journey and your efforts to work together in light. It is indeed good to pray for others, to give your loving support to many and have we not provided you with a vehicle to pray for others in the form of the prayer bowl? That you may write down their names, bring them into your consciousness and put them within this vessel. Allowing you, in your prayers, the freedom to go deep within yourself, to be released from this mental obligation to pray for others. Prayer cannot and should not be a burden nor should it be a distraction. It is an expression of your souls and it comes from that place of deep longing, of pure intention, of a desire to reach for something higher that will heal and mend the broken heart and the disturbances of the soul as the great Love of God pours into you, my beloveds. It will do this. It will heal you. It will bring you deep peace and powerful joy. Each of you seeks this liberation of the burdens of this world. Each of you wants to be close to God and seeks His blessing upon you.

When you are in prayer, go deep, do not worry about your obligations towards others, say a prayer and let them go and be in that deep ocean of God's Love and peace and you will find the liberation you seek. And when you emerge from this beautiful, deep place you can then go into the world bringing much to others. For you have been replenished, you have grown a little more in light, you have found a little more of God and you have brought that within yourself.

The unfoldment of your true selves begins, my beloveds and you get glimpses and visions, feelings and impressions, vague understandings, intense moments of revelation. All of this comes as you seek the Father's Love and it is not for you to press the issue of what will come to your consciousness. No, my beloveds, pray and be at peace. Be with God and all will unfold in good time in ways harmonious, and clarity pure, in understanding clear.

You need not worry or fret. Be at peace and know that you are loved and know that in time every soul will find love, some form of love, a great joy, an awakening. Be joyed that you have found what you are looking for and it will flourish within you and grow, and grow. Your lives will open and be clear in vision, your heart will open and be powerful in love, your soul will revel in the embrace of God. With this as your reality, can you not do but give love to all you meet, to give because you are love, to speak because you know truth, to be because you are awakened and will be that beautiful soul that God created.

Give love, my beloveds, and if the form of this love is in a prayer for another then by all means give that prayer but always come to that place where you and God are one and there is no thought of anything else but your communion with your Heavenly Father. This is most important and crucial. It is not selfish. It is what is meant to be for you. It is what God craves for this communion to be in its pure and wondrous form. To be with God, truly, completely, joyfully. Beloveds, be with God. God bless you.

Title: Your Journey Has Just Begun

May the Father's Love find a constant inflowing into your souls. May you be in that river of the Father's Love carrying you ever forward in the beautiful eddies and swirls of this mighty river of light, taking you upon a journey that is within the Will of God. That you may feel the grace of this movement, the peace of this journey, the excitement of what is to come, the power of His Love to bring you into alignment with His Great and Wondrous Soul.

Your journeys have just begun, my beloveds. Your journeys have just begun and many changes are coming for you and for this world. You must be open, receptive to God's promptings, seeking God's Guidance, allowing the force of His Will to enact within you and within your lives. That His Love may touch all that you may express yourselves in the way of His Love and the gifts of His Love. That the expression of all that you are within yourselves may come forth and touch many.

My beloveds, you do not realize the power that you carry in love, the light that you have and you do not sense what is to come other than anticipation, curiosity, and intrigue. My beloveds, much is coming that will bless you but also challenge you. The world is changing and you are changing. So much for you to deal with to come, to reconcile, as the eddies and currents bring you to a different place, a different understanding, an understanding of your soul. Indeed, the world will take on a different hue and perspective and you will be helpless to go back to the old ways. You will be absorbed in love. Your minds will be changed in love. How you see, how you feel, your sensibilities, your thoughts, your motivations, your perceptions will all change, my beloveds, and the world will be different, not just because you are different but because the world is changing and will be different.

And so, as this transformative process continues in the world and within you there will be a meeting of both in harmony where you will see and perceive in the way of truth, in the way of God's Will that you may convey to others what is happening, why it is happening and how it will happen, will come to your consciousness and you will see through the clouds of confusion to a place of clarity and strength, helping many upon your way as you too accept the changes God will bring to this world.

Yes, I believe that you all feel a sense of change coming and you feel within yourselves shifts and different currents. Accept the flow of God's Love, allow His Love to work its wonders within you and you will be fully equipped to deal with whatever comes. You will be in the light. You will have this clarity of which I speak. You will know which way to proceed and you will be guided to many souls who will seek your comfort and wisdom and strength and love.

Change is a gift. It is often difficult to adjust to but it is a gift nonetheless. For as things change around you it is in this regard a renewal of life where all humanity will come to recognize how precious life is, how beautiful is God's Creation and will come to know from a deeper place many truths, awarenesses will blossom within them for God will bring what is required to bring this new understanding and you must comfort those who are frightened, disoriented. For you anticipate change but many do not, many are lost in the back eddies of darkness and ignorance and you, as well as many others, will be inspired and guided to help lift the children out of their darkness and confusion and show them the simple truth of how God will gift the world with change and renewed life.

There is nothing to fear, my beloveds, there is much to gain in this new way, this new world, and much to gain within your own souls as you continue to be with the Heavenly Father in His Love pouring within you.

When change comes you will accept it and those fears you have of deprivation, of losing all that you have worked so hard to gain and accumulate in the material world; you will not be frightened, you will be able to release that which is not in harmony and gain that which is. It is the fear within your minds that must be released and be replaced with faith and a surety that your Heavenly Father will guide you and knows what is best for you and for all of His Children because the world suffers greatly, this precious Earth, and must be healed and brought back into balance. Too much suffering is with all of humanity and they too must be healed and brought back to an equilibrium. And yes, some will reject the invitation to a new life, a new world but many will turn towards this opportunity and accept the invitation to begin anew, to build a foundation of love and respect, awareness, gentleness. To bring goodness for all and release their fears and their error.

And you, my beloveds, must be bold, declare the truth, bring a stability, a strength and calm and peace and truth to all in the flow of God's Love.

You feel the comfort of His Embrace around you all. God will not leave you, nor will we in spirit. You will be protected. You will be in the flow of God's Love. You already are. Carry with you, my beloveds, the strength and peace and joy that you have obtained in these days together. Carry it with you, for you will need this in the coming days and it will serve you well. The most precious thing that you possess, my beloveds, is a soul enlivened by God's Love and your greatest strength is your faith and your greatest truth is knowing that you are loved and you can reach up to your Heavenly Father for His Strength, His Guidance, His Touch upon you. With this, with these truths, this strength and light, you may share much with your brothers and sisters in the world. For in any storm, the soul that is calm, the soul that steadies those around it is the one that will be looked to.

You will be guided to many souls and many souls will be guided to you. Continue to pray with them and teach them to pray. Teach them of the Father's Love. Teach them of these simple truths and the seeds that you sow will take root in many, many souls.

God bless you, my beloveds. I am Andrew and I love you.

Title: What Will Happen Within You as Your Souls Change in the Love?

Beloved students, your teacher Augustine.

I am happy to come and speak with you as you gather together once more and put your soul longings forward to God.

What is it that will happen within you, my beloveds, when enough of the Father's Love begins to awaken and transform your soul? How will you change? What comes from this great blessing?

For most, you will have a greater sensitivity to the energetic conditions of this material world and to what influences surround you as you move through the world and those influences vary greatly depending upon your thoughts and your actions. There is much to consider and much that determines what does indeed influence you and bring you to certain conclusions and perceptions, eliciting certain emotions, fears even and negative thoughts.

Yes, these things are all too common within this human plane. In fact, the world is rife with many negative influences because the world has gone astray as most of the world has turned its back upon God and even those who are facing God carry with them a great deal of error and misunderstanding of the nature of God, the nature of truth.

And so there are pockets of light in the world, individuals who are clear enough in their perceptions to readily understand truth and the nature of God and the power of love, and you may count yourselves as part of this small group in the world. As you continue to progress and your souls are infilled with the Father's Love, as His light within you burns brightly, perceptions will open, understandings will come, revelations will come as your soul becomes more active and is more easily able to be attuned to these gifts and blessings from God. With these gifts of perception, soul perception, you will easily navigate this world and avoid those conditions which would be harmful, even injurious to your physical being. Besides the material perceptions you will have other faculties, sensitivities, and sensibilities which will allow you to see, to get a glimpse into future events and possibilities so that you will make an informed choice in your lives and see more clearly their results and also what to avoid. Along with this, God will indeed guide you, the angels will provide you will further information so that this picture will be filled out in great detail. It will not be confusing or contradictory, it will be clear and obvious what you must do in any given moment to bring great light as you follow God's Will which will permeate all of these perceptions, which will colour these pictures, which will allow you to move gracefully through your life and most importantly, to be an effective channel of the Father's Love in this world. For when you are awakened and understand the dynamics all around you, you become empowered with wisdom and knowledge which will assist you greatly in enacting God's Will.

Some of you at this time have glimpses and periods of time when you are attuned and you have a sense of things, looking through a glass darkly as you might say. I tell you, my beloveds, with greater faith and acknowledgement of the love that resides within you and an expansion of this love, what is obscure and subtle today will be quite evident in the future. You will be able to work with the angels in close rapport and their greater vision and perception will benefit you greatly and combined with your own new found qualities and gifts, it will make for a very dynamic instrumentality in the world.

Many will seek you out for your wisdom and you must share your wisdom liberally and bravely. Some will want to criticize and be angry with you. Pay them no heed. For is it not the influence of the darkness and fear of humanity that has brought the world to this dreadful condition where all elements of this planet are close to chaos and the beautiful creation of God suffers where very few places in this world are not in this dreadful condition.

Yes, my beloveds, you sense it. Many in this world sense that changes must come. You cannot continue to live as you do, squandering the gifts from God in this world, taking so much and giving back so little. God did create a bounteous world but it cannot be sustained in this way because God created a world that can sustain itself, given that it is not overly depleted. Even the energetic condition of this planet is waning and this will cause upheavals, unexpected catastrophes, difficult weather conditions as the balance is pushed and set asunder.

My beloveds, you need these perceptions of what I speak. You need to be able to know the will of God, to be able to perceive the support and protection and guidance that the angels will give to navigate through a world that will have many difficulties and upheavals.

This is not to say that there will be a collapse, a rendering down to the very basics of life, no, but there will be many things gone asunder creating conditions where the structures and cultures of how you live today will not continue but God in His Mercy will give all an opportunity to rebuild in a more harmonious way. You will not be without resources. You will be able to cope but within this period of change each of you and all of you within this world must question what it is that you seek for, what are your desires, what are your priorities? Everyone upon this planet has a measure of greed, wanting to accumulate, and if they have nothing, there is a great ambition to accumulate and those who have everything often take for granted what is given and what is available.

I do not say this for you to feel guilt, my beloveds, but for you to open your eyes, for when you open your soul you must see all of these things, this reality that is all around you and the reality of God and attempt to reconcile these elements of error and truth.

And so we have made a great effort to bring you together, to encourage you to open your souls and be truthful to yourselves, to awaken to the error and to adopt the truth. I know you have many questions; 'How can I come to a place of harmony within my life?' In many ways you are ensnared in a condition that brings disharmony and to try and find your way through these entrapped conditions is very difficult indeed and this is again why you must rely upon your soul perceptions for your minds will not find solutions to these dilemmas. No, my beloveds, this is not possible unless you completely remove yourselves from the flow of humanity and this is not recommended or necessary. Instead you must be within the flow of humanity and carrying the light of truth and wisdom. Let your souls be vibrant and alive in this, brought about by an awakening through God's Love.

Only God will guide you through and help you to find harmony in your life, within yourselves, with all who are around you. This is the essential issue, my beloveds, this is why humanity has degraded itself so severely. They have not recognized the wisdom of God and they have ignored the Laws of God's Creation. They have gone about their business not thinking in the ways of love but in the ways of fear and greed and anger.

So, my beloveds, we have put forth many challenges to you in these days that we have been together. Yes, we ask much of you. We ask you to truly contemplate how it is that you can change and be more in harmony with God and we have asked you not to ignore certain aspects of your life and your being but to incorporate all of you within the body and truth of God and His Love. This is in one regard a very complicated matter but in another way it is very simple, for if you begin with trust in God, faith in His Wisdom, prayer, establishing a powerful connection with your Creator, then the dilemmas will unravel and the truth will be revealed. For everything must be predicated upon love. Everything must be healed with love. All wisdom comes with God's Love.

And this is an incremental journey. Awarenesses come bit by bit. You build your foundation upon these awarenesses and in doing so you change within and within these changes come changes in your life, for that which is not in harmony will fall away. You will not be comfortable with error in your life. As your eyes open, the error will be plain to see and you, relying upon the strength within your soul and the wisdom, the faculties and the perceptions, will make your way into greater light and harmony and you will find peace and joy.

Pray each day that God's Wisdom will find its way into your being and consciousness, that you will think in truth, that your actions will embody truth, that your entire being will come ever closer to God and that your lives will reflect this in every way.

God does not want to deny you a comfortable life my beloveds. Material benefits do come as you walk in harmony. But a life full of attachments to these benefits and worries and cares and fears is a life outside of God. Do not fear for your safety. Do not doubt that God will care for you no matter what and you will then have the strength to cope with whatever comes your way and you will have the wisdom to find your way no matter whatever danger may come and He will reach out to those you love. These are the benefits of God's blessings upon you as He enwraps all in His Cloak of Protection.

Enjoy the benefits of your togetherness, the love that you share. Trust one another. For each of you has something to give to all the others and in this giving freely you bring many blessings to yourselves. For when love flows freely, generously, wisely, you create great light and you walk the Father's Path of Love.

Do not hold on in fear, trepidation, worry and care; be free of this and allow God's Love to wash over you and bring you a sense of joy. It is your heritage, my beloveds, this Love is meant for you, it is meant to heal you, to strengthen you, to bring you into atonement with God. Accept this gift fully and all else will fall into place in God's Perfect Timing and His Wondrous Wisdom.

Thank you for listening to me my beloved students. I love you beloveds. I am with you and I will never leave you. I will always be with you and I will bring my love, my wisdom, the power of my gifts to your benefit and your protection. This is my commitment to you and many angels will do the same as God has assigned angels to each and every one of you to assist you at all times. You are never alone, my beloveds, you are always watched over and given to God's Special Care. There is nothing to fear. Be joyful for you are claimed by God His Children Divine. God bless you.

Title: Confucius Encourages the Awakening of the Soul

It is Confucius.

God bless you. God bless you, beloveds, and God is blessing you at this very moment as you multiply your prayers together to receive the Great Love of God pouring into your souls at this very moment.

You have been given much in the way of teachings to contemplate while you have been together and there are many other teachings of the Love Divine for you to absorb and to know. You must remember that when the angels give a message of truth there are many layers to these teachings when you read the words; pray about what is given and ask God to show you these many layers of truth.

For God has given this world much in terms of truth, much for each soul to understand, to truly grasp, and there are many more truths to be given. The flow of truth does not end, as the growth of the soul does not end but what has been given over the years, through others and through this channel constitutes a powerful vehicle for the growth of the soul to understand the direction in which you must all walk, the steps that you must take in living your lives in harmony with God's Laws, the way in which you will receive the Father's Blessings and how you will open in your own awareness and understandings of God's Creation.

Though each soul is unique and must travel their own unique path to God the angels have endeavoured to give you milestones which to recognize upon the journey and ways of which you can recognize that you are indeed headed towards God and atonement and to help you be comfortable with the changes that are inevitably coming within you.

Many do not trust these shifts of consciousness. They find it difficult to accept. Their minds struggling for control. And yet it is indeed this release of that need of control and mental surety that will bring greater understanding and a grounding in truth that you may enact in your lives with confidence that all will unfold in beauty and that which you know to be true is demonstrable and functional within your world and your being.

So, my beloved beautiful souls, trust in what you know. Put into application what is true in your own self. Live life in the light. Seek the highest and know that we in the Celestial Kingdom will accompany you upon your journeys and that God has His Hand firmly upon your being. Sometimes this requires a leap of faith. Sometimes it is difficult to release an attachment and a worry and a fear but you will not float free, you will find an anchor in God and God will have you firmly within His Grasp.

There is nothing to fear on the road to God and though this road may take you to unanticipated places within yourself and your life, God is orchestrating your healing and the expansion of your souls. He gives to you what you require to walk in light. For most of you there are conditions within you that are so subtle you do not recognize that they are there and as those elements of error that are obvious to you are expunged from your soul through expiation, other issues, less recognized also emerge from you, seeking to be released for they cannot abide within your soul with the Blessing of God's Love within.

Allow this, my brothers and sisters, allow the Love to push forth all those things within that are not in harmony with God. And yes, this may be surprising, often difficult and challenging to your ways of thinking and being in the world. It may indeed seem like a leap of faith but you will overcome but you will see the wisdom in these changes and you must apply these new found levels of understanding to your lives, to your behaviour and how you are with others my beloveds. You must reflect truth and wisdom and humility all awash with love.

Growing in this way is not easy but the rewards, my beloveds, the rewards are immense, not only in this life but in the life to come. And in many ways this little group and all those who walk with you are forging a path for many others and God has placed special blessings upon you so that you are strong enough and you have the insight to forge ahead, to make that path so rarely trod by humanity and the more there are of you, my beloveds, the wider will be the road, the easier it will be for those who follow and you will pass on your experiences, your wisdom, your love to others who begin.

You will show others how to cope with the changes that are coming. You will stand tall in light and say "I know how we can be in the light and utilize what is happening around us to increase the light of this world" and that wisdom will be given, my brethren, that understanding will flow within you easily and beautifully. Each of you have the capacity to teach and to be strong examples of truth. Though some doubt themselves, it is time to put aside your doubt and stand in the light fully. Be in that flow of love. Walk with the grace that comes with these blessings. Teach with the simplicity that is of God. Know with the surety that is of a soul awakened.

You know so much already, my beloveds. You are strong already but still you mask the power of your souls with the power of your minds and you do not fully love yourselves. Yet, you continue to grow and these conditions that are not of love continue to fall away. That hardened shell around you is softening and breaking down so that this newborn, beautiful creature that is you shall emerge and express light into the world.

Have faith, my beloveds, have faith in what is happening deep within you and how the power of this Love that burns within you will break through and you will break free of the old restrictions and errors and come forth as a beautiful, new creature of Love shining bright, full of joy and enthusiasm for God's Will to be done in this world through each one of you, my beloveds.

Many, many possibilities and potentials and opportunities to do God's Work await for all who are willing and who have stepped through the barriers of their own human condition and accepted the power of what lies within them and in that acceptance comes a knowing of God's Will, a knowing of His Presence in your lives, in your souls. It comes step by step and there is much to follow and will come quickly and swiftly as you gain momentum in the transformation of your souls, as you are slowly liberated in your own human condition, beloveds. God carries you. He uplifts you. He pours His Love within you.

You will come to that place of which I speak and you will be surprised at what you see within you and what you express through your souls. Continue to pray for His Love to bring you to that place. And I bring you a blessing, my beloveds that will assist you in your journey. God pours His Love upon you, beloved souls. Be at peace. Confucius loves you dearly. God bless you.

SPIRIT: LUKE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: December 9, 2016

Title: Lessons on Forgiveness and Compassion

I am Luke and I have come to speak to you about the topic of compassion and forgiveness.

As you know, the world is rife with difficulties, conditions created by mankind over many, many thousands of years and it is unavoidable that the soul that incarnates into this world is not to be influenced by this and therefore absorb some of these conditions.

Rather than love, these conditions have become the birthright of humanity and this, my beloveds, is why you strive and we strive to turn the tables so that indeed love is available to all and will bring peace to the soul and light to the soul.

For this to take place, my beloveds, for you to expel these conditions within yourselves, there must be an acknowledgement of the presence of the conditions within you and often you are repelled or repulsed that these things are active within your souls. Thus, first you must forgive yourselves, come to a place of compassion for your own condition of the soul. This comes with the strength of the Father's Love that inflows within you and allows you to release these conditions and allows the healing to take place from God.

Rather than self-judgment, rather than turning away, ignoring or pushing down these realities within you, beloveds, love yourselves and ask God to take these conditions from you and have compassion for yourselves as you are subject to the conditions of this world.

This does not mean that in every case you are responsible for those conditions that reside within you, my beloveds. Remember that often these conditions are passed down from one generation to another. They accumulate within each soul and are a part of these family groups. Often they are cultural, you are taught and you are shown error and this is a pervasive condition in the world. There are those times when your choices bring on unloving conditions within your souls. Choices that are often born from these inherited and taught conditions; choices that are made from fear and ignorance and a lack of love.

God has compassion for all, my beloveds. He wishes for the healing of mankind. He wishes for you to release all that is not of Him and His Laws and His Love and in order to do so you must have compassion for yourselves. To recognize that you are not evil in any way but because of the pervasive consciousness of this world at times you do evil. At times you act in ways that are not loving. At times you express things that have consequences within your souls which create a dark and unloving condition. But you are not alone. Millions upon millions of your brothers and sisters carry these conditions within and of course there is always choice and there is also, in many respects, a compass within your souls which indicates whether you are indeed performing a wrongdoing, thinking a negative thought, expressing anger and other inharmonious emotions.

Yet, humanity persists. It continues to embrace negativity as if some sort of satisfaction comes from the anger and the judgment and the negative thoughts, the unloving deeds and yet all this does is to perpetuate these conditions in the world.

Yet you, my beloveds, have chosen something different, you have turned to face God rather than humanity in this way. You have rejected the common course of the expression of mankind and come to realize that the expression of God's Love and the power of that Love within your souls is what you wish to adopt, to express, to be a part of this wonderful flow of Love. What made you chose, my beloveds? What was it within you that turned your face to God? And in that decision, you came to know your Heavenly Father and He has taught and nurtured you in the ways of Love. Something within you, my beloveds; your souls cried out and God answered your prayers, your longings and put before you the opportunity to change, to turn this tide of negativity around, to be in the light. To understand what it is to choose, to understand the power of Love, to help you to choose Light.

Now there are many, many souls in the world who are still entrapped in these negative conditions. Their lives are primarily governed by fear and judgment, by a desire to gratify those material needs and, in a way, they deny their true selves in this pursuit. You must have compassion for them, my beloveds. You must pray that the world changes towards light, towards God.

Far too many suffer from the lashes of the negativity inherent in the human condition. Too many through ignorance and a desire to belong to the human race adopt unloving behaviours and thoughts. They are fearful of rejection and they do not understand that there are other ways of being, even though they too possess this moral compass, this understanding of right and wrong as you call it. Yet often this is ignored because the desires for gratification, accumulation, power, well-being in terms of the mental concepts, play their part influencing those in the world and on top of this there is the influence of the negative spirits who are drawn to each soul who is expressing negativity. The Law of Attraction works in this way.

There are many, many factors which contribute to this deplorable condition amongst humanity. But you, my beloveds, though you do deal with the conditions of the world, your inner conditions which are being cleansed and healed as we speak, you are learning and growing so that you will be unassailable by the negativity of the world. You must have compassion, my beloveds, compassion for yourselves, for your families, for your brothers and sisters of humanity in the world, even the most degraded of creatures that lives amongst you needs your compassion, your love. You need to see them as God's Children, a soul created by God, indeed lost, indeed suffering, yet there is great potential for light and goodness.

God will bring all souls to light eventually and God needs you, my beloveds, to help Him in this; for you to express compassion and love in ways that He will guide you to do so, in ways where you will see the opportunities to infiltrate that crack within the amour of each soul and bring a bit of light. Yes, the process is often slow, the journey is long, incremental and tedious at times, yet as examples you must show that way towards light, towards goodness and self-love.

Beloved souls, you carry this light and the truth and this Love within you. Do not hide it. Express it wherever you go. Be this Love. Be a compassionate soul filled with joy, liberated from the tyranny of the human condition, expressing the truth of the light within your souls with every breath and every step. In this way you do God's Work. In this way, your life brings on meaning and purpose and a powerful beacon of light that will reflect upon the world. Yes, many will not see nor understand or acknowledge your light and why your light exists but many will notice. For as you pass by, you will emanate a condition like a breath of fresh air and this will draw souls. It will peak their curiosity. Their souls will be moved by your condition of love and God will place before you many opportunities to bring love and truth, a touch of comfort and compassion to those who suffer and those who are curious and those who are eager for the truth.

Every day is an opportunity to express compassion and love and forgiveness. For yes, there will be those who wrong you, who malign you, who are just expressing their own pain within the orbit of your life. You must forgive them and have compassion for what they express reflects their inner darkness or confusion, pain and suffering.

Often it is reflexive to judge and to withdraw from those who are particularly hurtful and difficult. You must strengthen yourselves in love so that when you are near a person in this condition you can give love in a way that is not hurtful to yourself but beneficial to those who hurt you. You must also stand up for truth and sometimes that stance is merely a look of compassion, a nod of acknowledgement of the others pain. Sometimes even a smile will affect those who are in pain; for the normal response would be anger or defensiveness and judgment. When there is no judgment, when there is no hurt within yourself, rather there is love; this is startling to the individual who is projecting negativity, it sends a message, it sends a profound message and in this way you have called upon that individual to cease their negativity, to take heed of the condition of love within you and it will neutralize those conditions for a time. Thus you will become immune to those who would do harm in some way to you and you increase your strength as you are tested in these conditions. When you have compassion for those individuals and you have not reacted negatively towards them, you have adopted a stance of love, of saying you are my brother, you have a soul, I have a soul, we are children of God.

Beloveds, do not judge, do not react, do not project negativity and do not indulge yourselves in anger. You may perceive a truth about another or about yourselves but in that perception adopt compassion and love and when you act in a way that is not of love, forgive yourselves and learn from those circumstances and ask God to help you, to change your behaviour; to turn them around so that you are truly expressing love and harmony in your lives.

Yes, each moment is a choice. Each thought is a choice. Each reaction is a choice and now that you carry within you the glowing light of God's Love you must come to a place of love, acknowledging that which is within you and be compassionate, forgive, express love. It is within you; you have the power to do so. You are no longer a part of this terrible flow and reality of the human condition. You have chosen something else; something beautiful and powerful and you have chosen to heal yourselves through Love as God touches your soul. Remember your choice, beloveds, remember that you have chosen truth over darkness, joy over pain, forgiveness over judgment, love over hatred, you have chosen this, you have changed your heritage, you are contributing to the flow of humanity with light as a channel of God's Love.

Your ambitions and desires and prayers are to change the world. To bring the world to this place of love. If you cannot express compassion and forgiveness in this, then you are truly not changing the world. You are joining the world in a place that is not of love. And yes, indeed you are still human and these vestiges of behaviours and reflexive reactions, emotional responses, thoughts bubble up within you but these are opportunities to change, to redirect these thoughts and actions into something else and to do so with self-compassion, to understand that what you have asked of yourself, what God has asked you to do is not an easy task for you, as you run against the current of the earthly conditions, this is not easy. It requires strength. It requires you to be aware at all times how you are in the world, what responses you have, what thoughts.

But with the strength of the Father's Love guiding you through, His Hand upon you, the support of the angels, it is quite possible that you will succeed to let go of the last vestiges of negativity within you; those things you inherited long ago. Those conditions that were poured within you as a vulnerable child, those choices you made at times in your life. All these conditions, my beloveds, are being influenced and healed by the Father's Love, the miraculous power and glory of this gift to heal the human soul and make it into the divine soul, acting within you at this very moment. It is possible, my beloveds, to take these steps which I have described and implored you to choose.

Pray to bring a strength and a positive condition within you. To express the love within your soul in all things. To catch yourself when you are about to react in old ways and to change those patterns of thought and action and reaction. You are strong enough and if you feel you are not, then ask God to help you. Pray for strength and love, compassion and forgiveness and you will find that within you, there is a solution, a correct course to take to bring greater light within yourselves and greater light within your world.

The power of the human soul transformed by the Divine Love is immense but for this great power to be unleashed within you, expressed in a pure way you must exercise the power of forgiveness and compassion, to truly love yourselves and to love all those around you, not as a mental exercise but as a truly deep and authentic expression.

Please, my beloveds, please love one another, love all those you meet, be an expression of love. There is much love within you. You carry this light. Be the light. Live the light. Carry the light wherever you go and pray that the light will increase with each day and each moment of your life. There is much work to do and you are on the verge of a beautiful expression, a powerful journey of service, of giving love and compassion to the world, a channel of God's Love.

Please, my beloveds, release those conditions that hold you back and walk in light, beautiful light that comes with God's Redeeming Love.

God bless you beloved souls. I am Luke. I love you and I walk with you on this journey. Continue in your deep and abiding prayers to God, all else will unfold with this connection with your Creator and His Love flowing to you. Beloveds, God bless you, God bless you.

Title: Stand Up For Truth

Yes, your circle is very large indeed. You have brought in many souls who are on this earth plane to this circle and many souls who are in spirit. Basking in this light all together, beloved souls, and God is pouring His Love within you, answering your prayers, bringing you to a place closer to His Great Soul.

There is a great deal of error in this world of yours, layers upon layers and there is a great deal of pain in this world. Many, many suffer the pangs of feeling unloved. Many suffer from physical disharmonies and ailments. Many suffer the abuses which they put upon one another and all is predicated upon the error that they see within their minds as truth.

You must confront error, my beloveds. Stand up and bring love where there is error and disharmony. When someone comes to you in pain, stand up and bring love and when someone speaks in terms that are grossly in error stand up and speak the truth. The conditions of this world will not change if there are not those souls who are willing to give love, to address error, to speak truth, to be a channel of Love for God.

And indeed, this world is in great need of reformation and change and some make efforts in this regard, some come together collectively and confront the error. Pray for those who are strong enough, clear enough to confront error. Confront the institutions of this world which do not bring life to this world but deplete and take from it because they desire power and financial benefit and those who believe that war will solve political problems. No, my beloveds, love will solve whatever problems come your way or come the way of any nation or group of individuals. You must sow love, sow the seeds of love and truth wherever you go. This is done by saying a prayer each day, "Father use me as your channel of Love. Use me so that You may reach out to many souls this day" and this will be so.

You see, when you set forth your intention to bring change into the world, bring light, bring love, bring truth, then God will respond in powerful ways if that intention is true and clear and done in love.

The power of prayer, my beloveds, will bring change not only to yourselves but to this world. You know these laws. We have taught you many things, how to pray, the power of love, how your soul is transformed through love. We have taught you many things. Each day is a testing ground, an opportunity to apply what you know to be true, to walk that road of God's Love. As you walk and pray and assert yourselves in the world, many angels will accompany you, God's Hand is firmly upon you and you become a channel, an instrument, of God's Will and Truth and Love.

Yes, much of this is very subtle. You may not recognize the effects of your efforts and God's efforts working through you in the moment but indeed the seeds are sown, the seeds of truth, the seeds of desire for God's Love. So I urge you, my beloved, beautiful souls, continue to move in the world as God's instruments and channels. Move in the world. Walk your truth. Talk the truth that you know and may all be bathed in love, a wonderful flow of the Father's Love.

And as you continue and proceed upon your path of life, this channel of love, this power of truth, this attempt to bring light and truth to the world, you will only get stronger and in time you will see direct and powerful results of your gifts as you are led by God, as you come to know God's Will with greater clarity and depth.

You each carry much truth within your souls, a burning light of God's Love. This is rare in the world, my beloveds, both knowing and possessing the Love of God. There are many who possess a measure of this Divine Love but do not know it, cannot describe it, are unaware of how to pray for it. They have received it because their longings of the soul have reached God and the Holy Spirit has responded and they have experienced that moment of the Touch of God but most often they accredit it to other things. Their understanding is weak or obscured by their own dogma and mental machinations. You, my beloveds, you possess both clarity and love, a powerful combination, a gift and a soul potential which God will use to enfold others in Truth and Love. To bring that clear light and clear understanding to many in this world and in our world.

Continue, my beloveds, to walk in this light, to be ever clear and cognizant of the truth, to be a channel of love wherever you go and God will put many upon your path, will guide you upon many roads and will lead you down many avenues of service. You are beautiful, each one and you carry this lantern of love within you. Your eyes begin to open in ways so that you recognize the truth, the power of God's Love. You understand that you do carry a great jewel within you, a jewel beyond price, a treasure that no one can take from you, my beloveds. You shall share this great knowledge in many ways, through many avenues and portals, to build within your soul as your gifts emerge and flourish in the Love.

Listen to your Heavenly Father for He whispers the truth, He guides you, He teaches you and envelops you.

Beloved souls, you are loved and I love you and many angels are with you and all within the Celestial Kingdom pray for each one of you, my beloveds. That you may succeed in bringing these simple truths to mankind and there are others who will join you and who are connected to you that will do the same. This truth will spread. The light will grow. The wonderment of God's blessings in this world will be felt by many and recognized as blessings from God. The time comes for intense service to the Creator. It will lift you up in surprising ways and carry you to surprising places and set you down where you are needed.

Blessings to you, beloveds, continue, be humble and walk the Path Divine each and every day. I am Martin Luther and I am with you upon your journeys. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: A Channel of Light and Love Has Opened to the World as you Pray Together

God bless you beloved souls and you have accomplished much upon this short journey together and new shifts and blessings and new awarenesses have come to you as you have sought the Father's Love and come to that place of communion, of togetherness and fellowship and now you are more deeply bonded together because you have shared something profound together and in this bonding, this deeper fellowship will come a flowering of many blessings not only for you individually and collectively but a sort of channel for the world to bring blessings through to many.

You will walk together for all eternity, my beloveds, upon this journey to atonement with God. And you will continue to grow in the Love. Your souls will flourish in the Love. Your beings will find that great balance and wholeness in the Love.

Where, as you have prayed that your soul will take precedence over your mind, this will come. You will be transformed by the Holy Blessing of the Father's Love. As you continue to pray for that great blessing, many more changes will come within you, shifts and understandings. And yes you will come together again and again in various forms, groups, and pray together and God will use this light; this collective prayer with the power of what you generate together with God and with the angels will be used to flood this world with Light, to flood this world with Love.

Remember these days together and when you feel alone, think of your companions, think of those who love you, draw them into your consciousness and you will feel the deep peace and comfort that has come with your prayers together at this time.

Many blessings come in many different forms. With this bond between your souls, you now have access to more powerful channels of love to support you.

So, my beloveds, be together in your hearts. Love one another and keep one another alive within your awareness, your prayers. Allow the bonds of love to have their benefits for one another. And these bonds, this circle will grow. Many are coming. Many will feel the power of this light generated. Many will come to know you as someone that they can trust and listen to, be comforted by and you will give this simple truth in love and you will envelop in love, and you will allow God to work through you in Love.

We are pleased that you have come together and you have listened to our teachings. You have prayed in powerful ways. You have spoken your truth. You have shared your love. You have generated a great light.

Beloveds, this gift from God, this time together is given freely in love because God envelops you and His Care for you is deep, abiding, encompassing and you have answered His Call to come together. His Children wrapped in light, brought close to the bosom, succored with Love and Truth. Remember that God is always close. That these blessings and benefits can come to each one of you in prayer. You are meant to be close to God, to feel what you feel now, to be free of those anxieties and worries and cares of the material world and that you carry within you a deep peace, a powerful light, a beautiful knowledge of love.

Protect this light always and grow this light every day and you will walk with joy, with a power of truth, an aura of love, a connection with God that does not falter but grows with each day.

You are loved, my beloveds, truly know this. Bring this love deep within you and acknowledge your own beauty, how beautiful you are. Love yourselves as God loves you. Love others as God loves you. Be in the flow of His Love always. And I love you, beloveds. I am Andrew and I am with you in this Great Love. God bless you.

Title: It Takes Strength To Do God's Work

Each of you will be blessed upon your travels returning home and these blessings that you have obtained through your time together have created shifts within your souls and this will reflect within your lives as you carry on in your life, as the flow of your life unfolds in the Light of God's Care and Touch.

There is much work to do, my beloveds. So much will be required of each one of you as you continue to discover the purpose which lies within your souls, the Will of God manifesting through your persons. Much will manifest, beloveds, as long as you are able to not obscure the flow of God's Will within you, through you. It takes a strength, a strength of faith, a trust in God's Will, a willingness to step beyond your comfort zone, to walk in this world as God's instrument.

You have all seen examples of this in your lives. How a dear and bright soul is willing to follow their guidance, to step forth as a channel of God's Love, to enact God's Will and blessings to those around them. They do so because they allow their day to unfold in the flow of God's Love. They trust in that beautiful flow. They are inspired by God, guided by God. Much is accomplished in this way and it is the somewhat unorthodox way of life. Some will be puzzled by your motivations and actions but pay them no heed, my beloveds. Know that God has you firmly within His Grasp and will guide you through. You will not suffer. You will know no lack or deprivation. You will be free in the light, in the flow of God and His Intentions for you and for those around you.

And I dare say, in many ways you will be honoured for your efforts, acknowledged and respected for your willingness to go beyond your needs and look at the needs of others and attend to those needs in loving ways, to be strong in love, to be wise in love, to be generous in love. Follow your hearts, my beloveds. For within your hearts lies the beating Will of God and His Love, outpouring, manifesting, healing, comforting and enveloping.

You need not worry when you return to your homes, for with God uplifting you that which has been a challenge will become easier. You will manage and many other doors will open for you, to express your beautiful selves in creative, loving, powerful ways in the world.

This does not mean that the conditions of the world will cease to be enacted around you. No, my beloveds. You are in the world, but your attachments to those conditions, your reactions, concerns and worries, fears even, will begin to fall away and you will walk with a new stride that is enlivened with joy and deep wisdom and a loving demeanor. All will unfold as it should. Be comforted, my beloved brothers and sisters that you have indeed entered a new phase in your spiritual life and in this way it will be reflected in your material life, in all aspects of your life.

Be at peace, my beloveds, and know that God has you firmly in His Grasp and will guide you forth in ways yet unanticipated, unimagined but will be so and doors that seem firmly closed at this time will open, my beloveds. Opportunities which you have not even dreamed of will be placed before you. It is for you to have your eyes opened, to recognize what God lays before you and it is for you to be strong enough to take up the challenge which God lays before you.

For when God entreats you to act on His Behalf, this is not a trifling matter, an easy task. No, my beloveds, it requires you to grow, to grow within this flow, this task of love, to stretch beyond what is comfortable, to acknowledge that the power of God's Love, His blessings will support you in the work which he will entrust you with and I would advise you not to formulate plans and ideas that are purely of your mental machinations and ambitions. No, my beloveds, you are now asked to operate from your soul. To be God's instruments in this world. To walk in that light, fully, without fear, without doubt, without judgment, to trust, to trust in a greater way; an elevated perspective which will show each step as it is required to manifest in your life. Remember, when God has His Hand upon you and your life and the enfolding of your life, all will come into place in harmony and it will flow as you are willing to accept what is laid before you, as you go within yourselves and acknowledge the rightness, the harmony of that particular step. As you choose to step forward and do so in joy and anticipation, excitement for what is to come.

Those who are firmly entrenched in this world will not understand, they will be puzzled, they will try to draw you away from these choices, these actions blessed by God. You must bless them in love and for those you love who will be afraid of your choices, you must ask God to enfold them and care for them, bring them into harmony and alignment with His Will.

There will be the challenges, my beloveds. For as you shift and change and this becomes more evident in your life, those who look to you, rely upon you, are comforted by who you are in this material and human way must adjust and see you from a different perspective as you see your life from a different perspective. This does not mean that your life will become chaos and those about you and who rely on you and who love you will be hurt and distraught and you will sacrifice your love for them for the love of God, no, this is not the case. All will be blessed in a guided life that is in harmony.

So you are not to worry, my beloveds, but to accept the enfolding of a life blessed by God, to take that risk and to walk forward fully conscious of the choices you are making and how to make those choices that are in harmony with the world around you in this way. And God will help you, my beloveds, in this way you will not cause ripples of hurt or pain, you will bring those who are with you along into that greater light, you will show the way in loving, beautiful expressions of God's Will. Each follows a road which is unique to them. It is for you to discover your particular road, to know that you are on the right road. To be in harmony with God and His Will and the flow of His Love upon that road. It will unfold, my beloveds.

There is always timing and knowing in greater ways, deeper ways what is meant to be. It will unfold, and all will be as God plans for the salvation of mankind. Each of you have a place in this plan, a role to play. For some, there will be dramatic changes in your life, for others it will be more subtle.

God will not push you beyond that point of breaking. No, my beloveds, but he encourages you to reach beyond your present understanding to change those behaviours that are not of His Love, to go deeper within yourselves so that you may release those conditions within you that are not in harmony with His Love. And in all these ways your lives will change in an inevitable way. For as you change within, so there shall be changes without. As you continue to grow in the Love, so your perceptions change, so your capacities to love, to be a channel of God's Love are deepened and expanded.

Life is change, my beloveds, and with change comes growth and with growth comes change. This is a law and it is part of the Law of God's Love. Transformation, release, healing, revelations, deeper understandings, parts of yourselves which you are not even aware are within you will emerge; beautiful, beautiful gifts. Your eyes will open, my beloveds, and you will be guided by God and in this you will know such a deep fulfillment, a resounding joy that you will look back and think why, why did I take so long to come to that place, that place of service, that place of joy and understanding, of love manifest in every part of my being and my life?

Yet you are human and this does indeed take its time, its pacing to overcome the challenges that each of you face within your lives. You have come together at this time to support one another in this inevitable evolution of your souls, to be freed of the encumbrances of your souls and to enact the bounteous, beautiful gifts within, on behalf of God; harmonized with His Will, His Desire for you to bring light and comfort, truth and joy to all those you meet.

Continue, my beloved beautiful friends upon your journeys of awakening and loving and being in light.

We are ever with you, never to leave, always to be in support and love. It is our delight to see you emerge, to grow in the light, to be those beautiful souls which God has implanted within each one of you, unique and truly cherished. It begins with this day, this moment, this awakening, coming further to that place of daylight, truth, harmony, love, that comes ever closer. You are well on your way my beloveds and may God bless you with every step. We love you, are with you. God bless you.

Title: Do Not Worry, We Are There to Help

(Post-Retreat Message)

I will be there when you sing and I will bring joy into the room for your beautiful song is a joyous song. Indeed, rejoice of the Love of God, rejoice for your beautiful lives and you beautiful souls, beloveds, rejoice.

And the angels will help you with each step of this day for you have made prayers for this help and the angels are happy to assist you. If there are hurdles to be overcome and arrangements to be made, remember this, the angels are always willing to help you. Make those prayers, asking with humility and with sincerity. I am not suggesting that you place all your material concerns before God, for you are quite capable of dealing with whatever concerns may come to you, but there are times when you feel anxious, when there is something of import that some assistance from the angels would benefit the outcome. And if this is in harmony with God's Laws, then we may come to assist. This does not mean that every request will be answered or will be successful in our interventions, but often it is. Often something unique and special can be given so that outcomes become positive, are amplified in joy and love and we are joyful when this happens in your lives. We are happy to be a part of it and, as God has blessed us in many ways, we have little tricks up our sleeves that can help you.

Blessed and beautiful souls, you will continue to be carried by God and attended to by the angels. What a joyful gift this is to rejoice in this beautiful flow of love and blessings. Always bring your joy forward, my beloveds. Do not get caught up in negative thinking or conditions. When you ride that crest of joy, you are above these things and they do not hold you back.

For God wants you, beloved souls, to be His lights, to walk in light, express light and to be a channel of His Beautiful Love wherever you go. God wants you to do this in a way that it is within the natural flow of your day, where you do not have to even think about it, but to be it. To be so much a part of you that it flows freely and beautifully and naturally from you the love of God, the light of God, the beauty of His Love spread all about as you walk through your day with a smile on your face and a glint in your eye saying "I love God. I love my life. I love everyone". In this way, you will draw many, many souls to you who will be inspired and comforted by your beautiful demeanour, your lovely light. Where God can bless and intervene and bring a higher result and purpose to something, so God will do so through His instruments of love.

It is all in your approach, my beautiful friends. So have a smile on your face and joy in your heart. Be positive and have that faith that says "In the end everything will work out, for God's Hand is on me and God's Love is in me and I am in the flow of God's Love, He works through me".

What greater ally can there be, this great blessing, this beautiful gift of care and protection, love and light. There is nothing to worry about, beloveds. As you walk in this light God carries you, He Loves you and you are blessed in so many ways.

Beloved, beautiful friends, your friend Goldie is ever with you and wishes to bring joy into your life. May that little tickle and sparkle be yours always. I will be there to add joy. God bless you. I love you.

SPIRIT: AUGUSTINE

Medium: Al Fike Location: Punalu'u, Oahu Date: December 12, 2016

Title: Discerning the Will of God

(Post-Retreat Message)

It is Augustine, your teacher, and I wish to discuss the topic of the Will of God. How it is manifest in your lives, in this world.

Think of the Will of God as a light emanating from the sun. This light is pure and direct and powerful. It has many attributes. The Will of God is like this, it shines forth from God into all the universe and is unimpeded with the conditions of God's Creation in their pure form, but when the Will of God comes to this world, it is obscured by the clouds of the human condition. That sunlight is diffused and not direct. At times there are clearings and a direct light hits your being and creates inspiration, even revelation within you as your souls are quite able to receive this beautiful inspiration from God, His Will resonating within you and often that clear sky becomes covered again by the human condition, the light becomes diffused again.

As these conditions roll in, you also become somewhat confused, your thinking diffused so that the Will of God is not as bright and clear and powerful within you. Whatever God has guided you to do often gets distorted by your minds as you think and review this gift of inspiration. So you go about your daily life in an effort to apply what is given in guidance and at times this does not seem satisfactory to you because of the weakness in the illumination of the understanding. You must return to your Heavenly Father in prayer, ask again for His guidance, ask for confirmation of this guidance, bring your focus back to what has been asked of you and the angels will help to bring you clarity.

In an ideal world, a world clear of these conditions, the Will of God given to the soul, enlivened with the Father's Love, would be clear as day. There would be no question, there would be only a joyful enactment of whatever is given in guidance and direction. You, my beloveds, have a difficult time often discerning the Will of God, to collect these diffused rays of light within you, to make sense of it. There are some more attuned than others and are able to discern more readily these bits of guidance but most of you struggle. You have within you certain ideas, perspectives; you filter the information, make it anew at times, make it something else that is not relevant to this flow of God's Will. And so it goes in your life. You feel you are being tested when the understanding is unclear and you act upon it and find results that are not satisfactory. At times you feel guilty or inadequate or even that you have been abandoned by God. This is not so. You are guilty of nothing other than trying. The results may not be as you expect but they are results nonetheless and God never abandons you.

You are to move forward with the grounded viewpoint that not all of God's Will can be enacted in this world in a pure and powerful way. There are times when this can be so and the flow of His Will has direct and wondrous results and in these times you should celebrate that the clouds were indeed lifted and the light did indeed shine and you were blessed and those around you were blessed with whatever God intended for you to be blessed with; that whatever action happened in the world brought light.

You must understand this, my beloveds, that God's Will cannot always be enacted in the world in a pure and unadulterated way. No, my beloveds, but as you grow in the Love, as your souls expand in the Love, this acts to clear away these conditions and brings you into greater alignment with His Will and you begin to develop the faculties required so that you may hear and see and understand in a clear way what that Will is. And even then, my beloveds, you still must deal with the human condition in this world and this is a challenge.

Two challenges, one in the clearing of the conditions within your own souls and the clearing of the conditions around you in your life. As you continue to work in these areas, as you continue to pray for more of God's Love, as you learn discernment, as you grow, as you move in this world you become wise, your perceptions of the soul deepen, you begin to release those deep conditions which distort your thinking and your faith grows.

God's Will, will become apparent, and a powerful aspect of your lives. You will begin to release the burden that many of you carry a sense of responsibility of upholding this truth in the world and often you feel anguished when others turn away, do not understand and you feel guilty that you have missed opportunities and you do not feel as if you have done enough.

Beloved souls, it is in the growing of your souls that all of these dilemmas will fall away and find solutions and come into clarity. You are not alone. You are never alone and God is joyed by your efforts to be His channels of Love and to be close to Him. Do not ever feel that you are inadequate, that you do not give enough. There are always times to pray, my beloveds. If you feel you are at loose ends, pray. If you feel you need to do something more, pray. Dedicate your soul to the inflowing of His Love, for here lies the key to all. There is nothing to be concerned about other than concern about the relationship between you and your Heavenly Father. In this, the clarity will come, the light will shine, the guidance will be given and you will know the joy of that intimate and caring and deep and vital relationship that comes with the Father's Love and His Presence within your life, within your consciousness. It must be a constant shining light for each of you, my beloveds. Allow this beautiful expression to infuse and grasp and envelop every aspect of who you are and every aspect of your life for God's Will to shine through with great clarity and impact, to bring light and harmony.

You continue to struggle. You continue to grow. You continue to pray, this is good. This is the way it must be. And yes, so much of what you have benefitted from, the blessings that are given, the growth that you have made is hard won in this difficult world but you have grown stronger with each day, each prayer, each struggle, each triumph and you will continue to do so until your days are full of light and clarity, until you are rightfully within the flow of God's Love. This is coming. You continue to wade into that deep stream. It is coming. Have faith, my beloveds. Know that God's Love and His Will will triumph over all, and bring to you what your souls truly desire which is service and atonement, love and joy, wisdom and peace. It grows within you and will come to fruition in your lifetime.

Blessed are you, my beloveds, for you carry the flame of truth. You are committed. You are growing in strength and always continue, continue. Your teacher Augustine is always by your side, encouraging and teaching as are many angels who love and support you. You are never alone, beloveds, and we will never leave you. God bless you, God bless you. I love you.

“Continue in your prayers and efforts, beloved souls. Carry this flame. Hold it on high and declare:

‘I am a child of God

I am a bearer of His Truth

Which is His Love

Made Manifest in my soul’

Many await your declaration. Many await the true expression of your souls. Many await that clear channel of God’s Love contained within you.”

OUR CELESTIAL GUIDES AND TEACHERS

The messages we received were from Angels--Celestial Spirit Guides and Teachers who once lived on Earth... yes, they were human once, and through their soul longings, were transformed from the image of God into Divine spirits by praying to God sincerely for an inflowing of Divine Love. In November and December 2016, they included:

Jesus of Nazareth, now Master of the Celestial Heavens and several of his apostles: Andrew, John the Beloved, Judas, Luke, Matthew, and Peter.

Augustine, when on Earth, Bishop of Hippo.

Care, a Divine Love follower when on Earth.

Confucius, an ancient Chinese philosopher.

Goldie, a wise and joyful Celestial Angel.

James Reid, an author and Divine Love follower when on Earth.

Keea Atta Kem, an Egyptian princess, daughter of Ramses.

Martin Luther, German priest and theologian instrumental in the 16th century Protestant Reformation.

Mary, mother of Jesus of Nazareth.

Moses, a Hebrew Prophet of God who led his people, the Hebrews, out of bondage in Egypt and to the "promised land" of Canaan.

Seretta Kem, an ancient Egyptian chemist and healer.

Tahlia, a Incan healer when on Earth.

White Cloud, an American Indian when on Earth.
