With this souvenir collection “Messages of Love - Hawaii 2016”, we give thanks to God and His Angels for the blessed prayer gatherings in Oahu, Hawaii.

Our special thanks go to:

MESSAGES FROM CELESTIAL ANGELS

SPIRIT: ANDREW

Medium: Al Fike Location: Hawaii Date: January 13, 2016

God has brought you together, my beloveds. He has opened this door because your soul longings have brought you into this communion with one another and your desires to serve God, to be a channel of His Love, to be in that flow of His Will. You are in harmony with one another, my beloveds. You are truly brothers and sisters in this beloved flow of the Father's Love and care and keeping for each one of you. And each of you, my beloveds, steps upon a new threshold, a new opening that you may express your purpose in this world, that God will use you in powerful ways, that you will reach many, many souls together upon this Path that you have chosen, the Divine Path.

You will walk hand-in-hand in this wondrous journey and work to bring the Truth of God's Love to mankind and to be a part of God's plan for the salvation of mankind. Do you not feel the joy that is percolating within your souls? This knowing that you are perched upon a new phase, a new chapter in your lives, a deeper opening of your souls, a more beautiful expression of your beings, and a true acknowledgement of your Gifts and purpose in this world. Much awaits you, my beloveds. Much awaits you and you wonder, how and when and why and where and I say to you, my beloveds, do not let your minds run away with you in imagination. Allow your souls to inform your minds. Be contemplative. Be within yourself and be with God as you ask for His guidance, as you ask for Him to open your souls to a greater inflowing of His Love and in this will come all the answers you require, all that is meant to be will be, my beloveds, in this glorious flow of Light and Love which you have joined together to participate in and to enact God's Will in your lives.

Do you not see that God has cleared away the obstacles for each one of you, my beloveds? And you worry for the material and you need not worry, my beloveds, you need not worry, for provisions will be made and doors will be opened and Love will flow into all and every aspect of your lives and your work, and it will become clear and the simplicity of it all will become clear.

My beloveds, seek ye the Kingdom of Heaven and all shall come unto you and you know this, you have seen this in your own lives. You have put your pursuit of the Father's Love as the cornerstone of your life and now you will teach this, demonstrate this as you walk upon this world, wherever you go will be an opportunity to be a teacher, a healer, a Light touching many souls.

Go with your guidance and inspiration, my beloveds. Do not hold back. Know that when the Love is with you and you can feel God's Love coursing through you that you are meant to be with whatever individual is placed before you, whatever opportunity is laid before you. This will be your signal, this will be God showing you, indicating the service you are to perform for that particular moment, for that particular day, and as you do this, as you accept this way of being, my beloveds, all will fall into place, all will be clear, there will be no doubts or confusion and you will walk in faith, my beloveds, faith and a surety in your step and a joy in your heart and a singing within your soul that praises your Heavenly Father who has given you this wonderful gift of life and Love and insight.

So much awaits you, my beloveds, so many Gifts lie within you eager to be expressed, to be expressed through you. Beloveds, be in the Light. Love one another. Allow these bonds of Love to grow. Allow yourselves to trust, to be open, to be loving, to truly to be brothers and sisters as God means for you to be in this world and a shining example of this beautiful relationship the brother and sisterhood that is meant for all people upon this world.

It is the love within your souls that breaks down all barriers and in time you will truly know the other, you will truly come to appreciate and perceive and love your brother, your sister, and you will work together in harmony, you will be synchronistic in your efforts, you will not be confused in your communications, you will understand immediately and come to work in this flow in a beautiful, harmonious way and there will be no barriers, only Love, no misunderstandings but deep, resonating understanding amongst you, and this will come as you love one another and open to each other your hearts, your deepest aspirations, your longings.

Express your fears and your doubts. Bring them out in the open. Allow God to take them and disperse them, for these things are no longer truly a part of you. You are within the Light. Your souls beat with the Love, a deep and resounding heartbeat of Love. You must walk within this beat, this pulsing Light within you and God will guide you, my beloveds, to many places in this world. You are meant to work together in this way teaching, healing, loving, and discovering with each day what God means for you to do.

And we will be with you, we will surely be with you, my beloveds, as you walk your Path in service and Love, in joy and harmony we will be with you, never to leave, always to support and walk with you with every breath and every step you take. Beloveds, be at peace and know that you are truly loved and we are joyed with your coming together to establish and strengthen these powerful bonds of Love, so important, so necessary to bring Light into this world, to expand the network of Light, to bring circles and centres of Light in this world, to do God's bidding, to utilize your Gifts, focus upon this Path and purpose. Beloved souls, you are with God and we are with you and we are all in this Light and His presence. Beloveds, God bless you, I am Andrew.

SPIRIT: JESUS

Medium: Al Fike Location: Hawaii Date: January 16, 2016

My beloveds, I come. I come. I am Jesus. I come to pray with you for the Father's Love...and you must bring an open heart and your glorious Light, your presence with God in your prayers and your essence that flows to those who are longing and seeking. It is in this wordless way, this loving Light embracing of another soul, your prayers for God's presence and for us to assist in all that will unfold that your day will be successful and those who come are innocent, are humble souls who seek, will be given the Truth and Love, will be given peace and healing and in so doing you do God's Will, you will complete your mission to touch the souls who hunger as God touches them through you, and you allow this in all its fullness and power, you allow this to be, together in loving harmony, beloveds. For precious in the eyes of God are those who desire to do His Will in the flow of His Love and will be touched as they touch others, will walk in Light as they spread Light, will be gifted many blessings as they desire to be a channel of Love in the world.

Blessed are you, my beloveds, for you eagerly seek to be that channel of Love and you eagerly seek the Truth, you eagerly beseech God for His Love to flow into your souls.

And so it shall be, the blessing, the benediction upon each one of you, will flow upon you in great power and beauty and will change you irrevocably, will set you upon the eternal Path of at-onement with God. Blessed are you, my beloveds, for you seek this, you hunger for this, you are eager for this, and your desires, your prayers, and your actions will be answered by God and He will implant within you such wisdom and Love and joy and peace, that you can but be that Light in the world.

Beautiful souls, walk in Light and be in this simple way in service to Love and enact God's Will, making changes reverberating throughout this world. It will change this world.

Beloved souls, God bless you in your efforts to love. I am Jesus and I will be with you, beloveds, and a host of angels are surrounding you. There will be great blessings for you. Be at peace, you have all been guided together and there is great purpose in this.

And this day is but one manifestation of the many days and many blessings. God bless you. I am with you. God bless you.

SPIRIT: CONFUCIUS

Medium: Al Fike Location: Hawaii Date: January 18, 2016

God bless you, my children, I am Confucius. Precious souls, God has gathered you together to pray for His Love, to be in His grace together, to experience His fellowship, to walk in this Light, to learn from one another, and to be loving and giving and generous to one another. Be the Lights, my beloveds. Be the Lights and walk in the Light. And you pray to be a channel of God's Love in the world, to be God's instruments in the world. Do you know what this is, my beloveds? Do you know that God can reach another soul through you by the very fact that you possess the Love within your souls?

This active agent of Love, allows God to work through you, my beloveds. And many souls are touched through you and you are not aware, but nonetheless, this touch manifests and ignites within them a longing, a longing for the Father's Love.

And you meet many souls, my beloveds, who have a drop of Love within them and when you are with them you reinforce and make greater this longing, for depending upon the power of the Love that is within you, my beloveds, it is like a bell toll, it rings in the ears of many souls and they come to long, to know this peace in a deep way, for God has touched them, that God desires to touch their souls where there is hope, there is a Light that is given, that is transferred through you to many, and this simple act of instrumentality is more powerful than any other gift you can bring to this world, my beloveds. It is the great Gift of Love. It is the Gift which will change the world, my beloveds. And though you have many Gifts and they are beautiful, this one Gift that you all possess and all those chosen, who are redeemed by the Father's Love possess, is the one great instrumentality, a channel of Love that will change this world.

Nurture this Gift, my beloveds, through your prayers to receive the Father's Love in greater abundance and the bell toll shall become stronger, deeper and more resonant, and others will feel this and the reverberations of this invitation of Love will reach further and further into this world, my beloveds, as you grow in this Light, as the Light within you becomes brighter, as you accept this and allow this great Love to transform every part of your being, you will then become God's instruments and channels of Love in a deep, clear way, my beloveds. This is the invitation which God extends to you, and to all the children of this world. Come drink of His Love, these living waters that will transform you and make you that great channel of Love, a beacon of Light, and bring you into at-onement with God, that His Will may be done in this world and you may know this Path, that you may wish to do this in this way, you may wish to renounce your own willful ways and accept God's Will and then you may walk this world as His instruments each and every day, each and every breath, each and every step you will be given God's Will, beloveds. This is what God desires for you to be in this world, this is what the world desperately needs, for the more instruments that can walk this world, ringing the bell toll of Truth and Love, the greater the impact, the agent of change, it will enliven and enlighten this life force.

Beloveds, each of you desires this and each of you struggles with this desire that comes from your souls and each of you are perplexed in your own way as to how this can be in your lives. And I tell you, my beloveds, as your soul has ascendancy within your consciousness these dilemmas will disappear and your resistance will be burned away by the power of your faith and Love, and you must allow this to be within your being and indeed you all have your own path to go and you determine when this will happen in your lives, for you are given the gift of free will. But, my beloveds, this is your destinies.

You will come to that place of knowing God's Will, of being God's clear and vibrant channel of Light in the world and you will walk in such grace and peace and joy that you will look back upon your lives and ask yourselves why it took so long to come to this place of great joy and peace? Why did I resist for so long? But you are human, we know this. You have many concerns and many distractions and God does not love you any less for living your lives as you so choose, but desires that you live your life within His life, His being and His Will.

So I beseech you, my beloveds, to consider that there is another way, and that you are working towards this pure and beautiful flow of your life within God's Will. It is coming for each one of you, my beloveds. Choose this way, choose to work toward this goal to allow all the impediments that may hold you to fall away and you may know this great and wondrous Love in all its forms and that its impact upon your life will be complete and change all and bring all into alignment and harmony with God. Beloved souls, you are blessed and you are beautiful and you shall walk this world in Light, my beloveds.

Confucius loves you dearly, beloved souls. I am with you often, beloveds, beloveds God bless you.

Title: The Power of Prayer

God bless you, beloved souls. Indeed it is important to pray. It is important to start your day in prayer and to set out your intentions to God, and to listen for God's intentions for you, my beloveds. For as you pray and open that channel and that connection with your Creator, as you receive His Love flowing in your souls, as you open your minds and your hearts, you then are receptive to God's guidance, you then draw we angels into your midst, you then set up the flow, the process, the unfolding of this Light and guided outpourings to all those you meet.

The discipline of prayer, the art of prayer, the beauty of prayer is very important, my beloveds. It is the foundation from which you walk in this world as God's channels of Love. For as you continue to connect with your Heavenly Father, whether that be for a moment or for an hour or for a morning or in an evening together as a group, whatever way you pray together or sing together, you are affirming the Truth, you are affirming the desires of your souls to be in harmony with God and His Love. Beloveds, do not neglect these efforts and this discipline. And it is not so much a discipline and a burden, but a Gift and an opening which you with your free will have decided to be in God's presence, to be open to God's flow of Love and Light, peace and healing, kindling the joy within your souls, bringing you into greater harmony with all of God's laws of Love and affirming the Truth that you walk in this world.

Prayer, my beloveds, it is your anchor, it is your foundation, it is what is required of you as you walk upon this Path Divine. And not prayer that is a recitation from your minds, but prayer that is a longing from your soul. For as you well know it is this sincere and true longing, these aspirations and desires from your soul presented to God in whatever form is comfortable for you to present. These aspects, the power of your longing, of your reaching out from the very center of your being to the very great Soul of God's Being that will elicit answers, responses, healings, outpourings of His Love through the Holy Spirit.

Yes, my beloveds, it is that sincere prayer, whether done in words, whether it is pure longing or a combination will elicit a response that you desire and open you to the great world of God's creation and the great possibilities that lie within your souls. Potentials, gifts, insights, visions and great and powerful guidance which will lead you forward upon your Path and open up that great channel of Love in the world.

Beloveds, continue in your prayers, reaching ever higher, seeking ever greater Truth and more Love through your prayers. God communicates with you, beloveds, and through your prayers you draw the highest of angels to you. The power of prayer, the power of prayer, beloveds, you seek this, you acknowledge this and you use this Truth to further your own growth and to bring greater Light into this world and to those whom you love and are connected to, to many other souls who benefit from your prayers.

Continue, my beloveds, to pray and pray often and be sincere and true in your prayers, beloveds.

May God bless you mightily as you open yourselves to these blessings that shall come in great torrents and little trickles and touches and drops, a mighty rain of Love pouring upon you, beloveds, through your prayers, may you be gifted in many ways. God bless you, beloved souls. I am your teacher Augustine and I love you and I love to hear your prayers, so beautiful, so pure. Beloved souls, may God bless you mightily in your efforts. God bless you.

Title: A Sanctuary of Light

God bless you, dear souls, who gather in Light, and whose souls are earnest and seek Truth and earnestly live Truth in their lives. Do you acknowledge the far reaching impact you have by doing this, my beloveds? That every action that you take, every gift of love that you give, has a ripple effect in the world bringing greater Light, bringing kindness, love, healing to many, and how important this is, my beloveds, to act in this way in your daily lives, to walk in this Light, to be in God's Grace. And you create here, my beloveds, a sanctuary, a place of Light, a place where you may replenish yourselves, a place where God has touched this very ground with His blessing. It is a fountainhead of nourishment for your souls. It is where His Love may reign supreme, in this place. It is a gift from God and you, my beloveds, through your prayers, through your actions, through your efforts, through your intentions, through your love, you have created a sanctuary of Light.

And God wishes for you to maintain this place of Light, to draw in those who are in need, to welcome those who come through your threshold. Be that channel of Light, my beloveds, be that channel of Light and walk your Path of Light, giving love, seeking Love, for God's Love will pour into your souls in endless abundance if you but ask, if you open this door within you and say: "Dear Creator, I wish to receive Your Essence into my soul, I wish to walk this Path of Your Love. I wish to be a channel of Your Love in the world". And in this you will enter the mighty flow of God's Love and be His channels of Love and walk in this Grace that is God's Grace.

Beloveds, know that you walk in Light. Do not allow those who would denigrate you and call you down, to have any effect upon your being and know that you walk a Path that is righteous and beautiful and full of Grace, beloveds. Walk this beautiful Path and the angels will walk with you and help you upon your way, guiding and protecting, supporting you in your efforts to not only make your life more beautiful and in harmony with God, but to make this world more in harmony with God.

Beloved souls, carry on in your efforts. Serve others through what you refer to as 'right action', a channel of Love. And be at peace, beloveds, for the hand of God is upon you.

And you are with God in your desire that comes from your soul to be in alignment with this Divine Grace, Divine Will, and Divine Love.

Beloveds, I am with you, I am Peter and I am with you in your efforts, God bless you, beloveds.

SPIRIT: JOHN THE BELOVED

Medium: Al Fike Location: Hawaii Date: January 26, 2016

God bless you, I am John, known as John the Beloved.

Open your souls, beloveds, to God's Touch. Feel Him draw you up beyond the conditions of this Earth to a place of deep peace and wondrous presence and allow the Holy Spirit to place within you all the Gifts of Love that God has to give you, my beloveds. Do not falter upon your path, do not doubt that God is guiding you ever forward, do not worry for your material well-being, do not seek to place your will before the Will of God, my beloveds, but to seek out God's Will in every breath of your life, for in this search, in this prayer to God to know His Will, to be and have your life within His Being, you will find the answers to all of your questions, you will find that magical door that will open, that will present to you your purpose which God has put within each of you, my beloveds. Each of you has a unique and special purpose to fulfill in this world and this world is fast approaching times of deep change and transition, a healing for this world and for humanity. And each of you have been called to be an instrument for change, a channel of Love, a speaker of wisdom and Truth, and each of you has unique gifts which will be utilized by your Heavenly Father to help those around you to adjust to this transition and to be informed as to God's plan for the salvation of mankind.

Beloved souls, you find yourselves in this unique position, unique, for so few in this world seek to be used in this way. Yet each soul has a purpose, very few souls come to realize this while on Earth. Beloveds, walk your path, walk your path in faith, in strength, in peace, in joy. Walk your path with your eyes open, the eyes of your soul, that you may discern God's Will for you, my beloveds, that you may walk in this Light and Grace and flow of Love, that you may come to know what it is that you are meant to do in this world. And in this knowing and the fulfilling of this knowing you will have the deepest joy, the greatest sense of fulfillment that any soul can know in this world.

Yes, my beloveds, you are needed, you are needed in the world and you must be open to God's guidance, to follow that Path that is unique and beautiful and powerful and seek to serve with humility and with a desire to put aside your fears, your willfulness, your preconceived notions and to adopt the Truths of Love, the guidance of God, the Path of Light, the knowing that comes from your souls that what you do is what is meant for you.

Beloved souls, the angels surround you. The angels surround you and God's great care and protection and Love and presence is in your life, in your being. What more could one ask, my beloveds, then this special Gift, this special Gift that comes with His Love.

Seek out the opportunities that God has laid before you, be open, and be vigilant. Ask that your souls be ignited by Love, that the faculties of your souls may come alive, that you may truly know the meaning of my words and the understanding of your true selves and true purpose and true Gifts.

Beloveds, walk with God and you will be guided ever forward with the Master Jesus leading the Way. Be at peace, my beloveds, and know that your coming together is of no accident but yet another Gift from your Heavenly Father. One of many that shall come in great abundance, in wave upon wave of loving directive, guided, powerful, purpose. And you shall focus on this and come to know this and be familiar with the ways of God and the ways of your soul. Beloveds, be at peace and know that God loves you beyond measure with such great abundance, to see this Love, to truly know this Love, to be lost in the feeling of being overwhelmed and swept away by this great, glorious Love. Beloveds, be at peace. I love you, I am John and I love you.

SPIRIT: FRANCIS OF ASSISI

Medium: Al Fike Location: Hawaii Date: January 28, 2016

God bless you and I am with you because you have requested my presence, because you prayed to know the Truth, because within your hearts you know that you love God and within my heart, I love God. And there are many in the Celestial Heavens, all within the Celestial Heavens, who love God, for those who reside there are close to God, are seeking to be close to God through knowing Him and receiving His Essence of Love.

And yes there are many Saints within these Heavens, although they are no different from the others. For all commune together equally impassioned by their love of God, and the Love of God that resides within their souls. And yet there is one who outshines us all, it is the Master Jesus, whom is the head of the Celestial Heavens and closest to God. And through his Love and his wisdom we all are guided by him and we all come to know of the Father's Will through the faculties of our souls, and we have glorious happiness in this place, beyond anything you can imagine here in this world, for we are far removed from this world. We live in a world that is filled with God's Grace and Love, the beauty of His creation, the wonderment of all that is life, all that is Love, and all that is of His power.

Beloveds, continue to seek for this Love, this Essence from God, for I began my journey to Heaven when I walked this Earth. I discovered this Gift through my prayers, through my supplications to my Heavenly Father. And it changed me, it changed me from a man so entrapped in the material conditions of this world, seeking the pleasures and allurements of this world and I renounced this and released these desires, for I found something higher, more beautiful, and more alluring and that is my relationship with my Heavenly Father. And in this pursuit I learned much. I gained much wisdom. I gained the ability to love all that I met and what you call a channel of Love in the world, I became this channel. I embraced all whom I met. I walked this world guided by my Heavenly Father and His angels. And I had a deep relationship with my God and I was influenced by His Heavenly angels who taught me much and my deep love for nature grew and grew. And I walked in my Father's Kingdom on Earth. The forests, His beautiful creation, and I communed with the animals and the plants and the beauty all around me.

And I found a different life, a life greatly fulfilling and beautiful, and a life so different from so many and yet, this unique life which I lived brought me great happiness and fulfilment. I indeed struggled, as all do in this world, but beyond this great struggle came great rewards and spiritual awareness and a love for all and a love for myself and appreciation for what God has created, both within me and in this world.

I walked, I walked to many places. I reached out to many souls and I lived a humble life, a humble life whose simplicity and the power of love created a great Light which today still burns within the minds of many, for they acknowledge my efforts to be close to God.

And I tell you, that it is this Love from God that was the key to my life, the power to my spirituality, the great opening to my relationship with my Heavenly Father that came from this desire within my soul to be with God, and He responded by touching my soul deeply, transforming my soul completely and showing me the way to at-onement with Him, the Way which the Master Jesus taught and as so few know this Path to at-onement in a conscious way.

But here, my beloveds, you beautiful souls, many of you understand this, you feel it, you know it and you pray for this Gift, so powerful. Continue to do so, beloved beautiful souls, and you too will walk a spiritual path that will open many awarenesses, shall clear that connection that you have to your Heavenly Father and you will know the treasures which He has to give to each one, each of His children who seek to know God, shall know God as their souls are enlivened by this great Love, His Essence, His Touch. And we in the Celestial Kingdom will pray with you and walk with you as you seek this Truth, this simple Truth, higher than all truths, more powerful than any other truth in the universe.

To come close to God in this way is to fulfill your deepest soul's longing, for every soul longs to be with God and every soul has the capacity to be with God, if it is enlivened by His Essence, this Touch which you must pray for and open to. It is a choice, it is a beautiful Gift and I encourage you all to come to understand, to truly know this great blessing. It is available to all. It does not require churches. It does not require dogma. It is simple. It is a simple request--earnestly given from your soul, the very depths of your being. And in this request the answer is given, the Holy Spirit sent to bring to you the Essence of God. And this Essence will remain with you for all eternity, for those of us who reside within the Celestial Heavens exist for all eternity, this sure knowledge within us, for the Essence of God is eternal and the blessing of His Essence within us burns for all eternity and grows as we continue in our prayers and openings and desire for this Gift. It never ends and oh what glory, oh what wonderment we experience, the great and deep joy and peace within us that comes with this Gift, this wondrous Gift that opens our eyes and brings us to see God in all His Glory. And this opening and expanding and Light and understanding continues, continues as we ever seek our at-onement with God.

JOHN THE BELOVED'S PRAYER

Medium: Al Fike Location: Gibsons, BC Date: August 22, 2015

Father, help me to be that channel of Love in the world.

Show me how to love.

Keep me within Your Grace.

Guide me as I walk this Earth.

Fill me with Your Love.

Beloved, beloved Father, fill me with Your Love and I shall listen to You, obey You and know Your Will.

Help me, help me, Dear Father, to reach You always, to be in Your Grace and presence, and may Your angels be with me always and Your Love flow into my soul always, for I want to walk to my at-onement with You.

I want this deep within me.

I know this is what you want me to do and this is what I want to do, to be at one with you, to know Your Love completely, to be within you.

OUR CELESTIAL GUIDES AND TEACHERS

The messages we received were from Angels—Celestial Spirit Guides and Teachers who once lived on Earth...yes, they were human once, and through their soul longings, were transformed from the image of God into Divine spirits by praying to God sincerely for an inflowing of Divine Love. In the spring of 2016, they included:

Jesus of Nazareth, now Master of the Celestial Heavens and several of his apostles: Andrew, Peter and John the Beloved.

Confucius, an ancient Chinese philosopher.

Augustine, when on Earth, Bishop of Hippo.

St. Francis of Assisi, founder of the Franciscan order.
