Map of our journey

Introduction

Messages of Love Washington, Oregon and California 2017

With a giant leap of faith, we loaded up our car and left our home in Gibsons, Canada, on April 18 for a five week spiritual adventure! Altogether we travelled 6,900 kilometers (4,286 miles), and prayed with about 50 Divine Love seekers in 11 locations from Abbotsford, British Columbia to San Diego, California.

Abbotsford, B.C. was our first stop for prayer with Maureen Cardoso and her merry band of Divine Love followers who meet monthly in her home. We left inspired and full of anticipation about what God had in store for us!

Guided by Michael Nedbal's warm welcome to F.C.D.T.'s newest member, our next destination was Vancouver, Washington where we met Michael Carver! Michael had only just discovered the Padgett messages and was over the moon with excitement! Although shy by nature, Michael came to our hotel to pray with us and the blessing he received from Mother Mary confirmed that he had found the Truths and that she had been watching over him all his life. Though initially a stranger to us, we now count Michael as a life long friend and fellow traveller on this glorious Path Divine!

Our adventure brought us into contact with brand new Divine Love followers as well as seekers who were born into families already praying for Divine Love. We met with individuals, small groups, large groups, well established groups and a new group just forming. Thanks to the wonders of the internet, everyone we prayed with we had met online, including the very first person who ever posted the Padgett messages online!

Al looked over maps of Washington, Oregon and California, asking for Angelic guidance. He kept feeling a surge of love pointing us to Redding, California. How wonderful it was for us to discover Matt Sinclair on facebook, who responded eagerly to our invitation to meet and pray with us! Matt was born into a Divine Love family. His mother Marva Egenberger served as a Trustee of the F.C.N.B. and published a book in 2001 called "Journey Into Faith". Matt recalls praying for Divine Love in a Children's Group at the age of 7. Marva now resides in the Celestial heavens and brought her beloved son a sweet blessing as only a mother can do! Oh, the joys of social media that brought us another friend for life!

From Redding we ventured on to Santa Cruz to spend four days with Amy Bolton (Amada Reza) and her beloved mother Kathryn Stokes, in their rose covered, love filled, 116 year old heritage home. What a blissful experience! Although we can't recall the details, we had already met Kathryn and her late husband, George Stokes, when they came to visit our Divine Love group in West Vancouver 40 years ago! Our reunion with Kathryn was sheer delight -- we hugged and giggled for four intensely sweet days!! Awesome prayers! Amy, too, was born into a Divine Love family and is anchored in God's Love. Their home was an oasis and our discussions, rich and exciting. Amy arranged for us to visit Doug Oreck in his "unintentional community"; the prayers we shared with them for the next 2 days were joyful and filled with God's Grace. Our adventure in Santa Cruz is one we will never forget!

From Santa Cruz we headed to Manhattan Beach, Los Angeles. Our beloved friend Behnaz Fayazzadeh, who lives in West Vancouver where she prays with us weekly, arranged for us to meet and pray with her lovely nieces and sister-in-law in their beautiful home. Being with this family steeped in deep faith was a rare, rich cultural experience. Again, the Angels spoke to us and brought their blessings - how wonderful it was to be joined in spirit, by Zoroaster, the founder of the Persian faith.

From Manhattan Beach we travelled to Menifee to the home of our beloved friends, Suzie and Dennis Tormey. We have shared a spiritual bond with Dennis & Suzie since first meeting them online in 2013! Dennis loves to share the story of when they came to meet us for the first time in Gibsons! New to the Divine Path, they were second guessing themselves about the wisdom of accepting an invitation to visit complete strangers in another country! They had a "Plan B" in the event we didn't show up at the airport. Our friendship continues to grow stronger with each passing year and shared retreats (Gibsons, Blackpool, Washington DC, Flagstaff Arizona). Our most sacred time with Dennis & Suzie was to "officiate" their wedding vows on Soames Hill in Gibsons on a bright and beautiful November day in 2014. Coming together again in Menifee was a joyful reunion with blissful prayers, laughter and music!

Thanks to Holly Bianco, we enjoyed a spiritual feast in the lap of luxury at the Indio Retreat from May 7 to 12. How wonderful it was to catch up with dear friends from far off places. The morning coffee klatches with Kristin, Ruth, Holly and Maureen bubbled over with "Girl Talk"! Afternoons spent in the pool, browning ourselves under the hot sun and the two or three prayer circles each day deepened and strengthened our love bonds and nourished our souls.

After the Indio Retreat, our friend, Jimbeau Walsh from Hawaii, hitched a ride with Al and I to San Diego where we spent a blissful day at the Self Realization Centre in Encinitas, in the ocean view gardens created by Yogananda. For several years, Al and I had been curious about whether Yogananda was on the Natural Love Path or the Divine Love Path. After our visit in Encinitas, any doubts we had were completely dispelled! Both Yogananda and St. Francis of Assisi welcomed us to the amazing gardens where visitors from all over the world are touched by God's Grace. What a beautiful place for meditation and prayer!

Our furthest stop south was San Diego where we met (for the second time) and prayed with an anonymous couple that we met online three years ago! I can well understand the reasons for choosing anonymity when one works in the Public Sector. But let me tell you that this humble couple, who have never posted in the Forum or on Facebook, pray fervently for all of us and delight in following every Divine Love character who shows up in the Forum! Every prayer request becomes part of their personal prayer vigil. Their love and humility are inspiring, their faith strong! We count our friendship with this "unseen" couple as a beautiful gift in our lives!

On May 15 we headed north again, stopping to visit my cousins in Mission Viejo as well as Matt and Brenda again in Redding. Afterwards, we took a life changing detour to Bend, Oregon to encounter another surprise! The intrepid Sarah Petty, who met us via our new website only a short time ago, intends to form a new Divine Love prayer circle in Bend! She gathered nine of us together for a weekend of prayer and healing. This wonderful group of friends were unfamiliar with James Padgett's books, though not with Divine Love in their souls. What a humbling experience it was for us to meet a new soul sister in Lorraine Borchers who generously hosted the prayer, healing sessions, delicious meals and soul awakening conversations. Helge Mercker's (Namibia) dear friend Lori Warnick drove all the way from Yakima, Washington (four hours both ways) to spend a few precious hours with us in prayer! The Presence of God and the Angels was powerful and transformative. We have no doubt this fledgling Divine Love group in Bend will continue to grow and strengthen in God's Love.

We are deeply grateful to God for an Ocean of Blessings and delightful surprises every day of our journey. We give thanks to each person who shared their faith, their stories and their prayers with us. Our lives have been graced by the Angels who brought countless blessings to us all. As you read these Messages of Love received on our journey (coming soon!) may your soul soar in God's Grace!

Title: I WILL BE WITH YOU

Spirit: Mary

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 17, 2017

Location: Gibsons, BC

I will be close to you, beloved souls, as you tend to the children, as you tend to those who are infirm, as you travel and tend to those who are seeking. I will be with you. You will be accompanied by many angels, my beloveds. As you continue to work as a channel of Love in the world ask for my presence and my touch and I will be with you. My love for you is great and all the angels in the Celestial Heavens know your names, my beloveds. They pray for you that you will continue to thrive in the Light of God's Love and that you will continue to grow and expand in this Love so that God may use you in wonderful ways to bring healing, Truth, Peace and Love to this world.

Every instrument of God is precious and we take great care in watching over you and guiding you and protecting you, for you are precious in this world and you are loved deeply.

Continue, beloved souls, to walk your path and express love wherever you go and many souls will benefit from your light. God bless you, beloveds. I am Mary and I love you. I love you and I am with you. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: BLESSING FROM CONFUCIUS

Spirit: Confucius

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 19, 2017

Location: Abbotsford, BC

So, my little birds will fly together to their little pilgrimage of Love. Each of you will bring something to this gathering that will be a gift to the others. We have given you something, my beloveds, a blessing, that will be utilized to benefit the others who gather with you.

Continue to pray to be used as a channel of the Father's Love and you surely shall be, wherever you go, God will use you. When you go to meet the eager souls, you will feel our presence with you and a great condition of Love shall pour upon this gathering, where these opportunities are few and far between and you are used to forge these bonds of Love in ever greater capacity and purpose for God to use in this world. Continue upon your journeys knowing that you have purpose. Always reach for the highest, my beloveds. Seek for the highest good as you serve in Love. God bless you and keep you in His great Light.

Title: BLESSING FROM JESUS

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 19, 2017

Location: Abbotsford, BC

Gather the souls and speak to them the Truth of the Father's Love. When you do so, I will be with you. I will be with all those who speak this Truth of the blessing of Divine Love. I am with you and I love you. I am Jesus. God bless you.

Title: GO FORTH IN GOD'S LOVE

Spirit: Luke

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 19, 2017

Location: Abbotsford, BC

I am Luke. May the Father's Love find a deep and profound inflowing into your souls beloveds, for this is the way to your healing. This is the way to the opening of your gifts, to at-onement with God. This powerful and profound Touch from God will lead you into the Light beloveds, will carry you into deep awareness, will open for you a great capacity to love others and will show you the way to your true selves, beloved souls. As you seek to know who you are in Love, you will come to know who God is and the power of His Love.

Seek to be that channel of Love beloveds. There is no higher calling than to be a channel of Love in this world. To bring the Truth of God's Love into your being. And as you move in the world, this Love, this Blessing within your souls, calls to many and many are now drawn to you, beloveds. Many come to you with their questions. Many feel a difference within you, something that is intriguing, something that calls to their very souls because you bring this Light, this Grace, this Blessing, as a channel for God.

You are prepared beloveds. Prepared to do God's Work. You continue to be blessed. Your capacity to understand, to know God's Will, opens. You feel those strong and compelling desires of your soul, to serve, to bring love, comfort, healing and peace to all those you meet and so it shall be as you walk in the world, you will bring these blessings as God's instruments of Love. Do not shrink from this my beloveds but walk boldly and when others ask, "How is it you are blessed?" Tell them, "I am blessed because I am a child of God. I know of His Love. I am with God in this way." And when others ask their questions, say a little silent prayer, "Father, help me to answer these questions in Truth. Put the words in my mouth. Help me to share the touch of Love in words."

To give in simple comforting phrases, an embrace, the look within your eyes, showing others that you love them, that you acknowledge them, this is doing God's Work. When you do those simple tasks for others, you do God's Work and when you approach others with a sense of love, respect and acknowledgment, you do God's Work. Wherever you are my beloveds be this beautiful channel of Love, for it is within you. Each one of you has this capacity. Each one of you knows that this is what is meant to be done in this world. To walk in this world in Love. To show that Light that burns within your souls. To bring that graceful way wherever you go.

God has called you. He needs you. He needs you to be this channel of Love in the world. Answer His Invitation. Seek for the highest. Pray each day to be with God, to be with His Love, to be a channel of His Love and to allow God to work through you my beloveds. For these simple acts will save the world. So many cry out for acknowledgement, for Love. So many hunger for Truth. So many are lost. Who will find them beloveds if you do not? Who will find them?

If you are willing, God will guide you upon that path that you may touch many, many souls. You will be given opportunities to speak the Truth of God's Love and because you live this Truth and this Light radiates from you, others will listen for they will feel the power of this blessing within you. You need not hesitate but walk in faith as God is guiding you with each step and His Touch and Grace will enfold you and carry you beyond the threshold of your own fears and inhibitions to a place where Love flows freely and you will connect with many souls in this flow of Love. Allow God to guide you beloveds. Be that channel of Love and seek earnestly for that great blessing to flow within you. For as you seek so shall the Love flow and, flow through you, into you.

Bless you beloveds, God's children, channels of Love. Bless you beloveds, for you are truly blessed. The angels surround you. God has a special purpose for every soul who seeks to know Him in the way of His Love, who seeks to serve

Him in the flow of His Love, who seeks to know Truth, given in Love. You are blessed. Now, my beloveds go forth and bless many. God bless you. I am Luke and I love you. God bless you.

Title: BLESSING FROM MOTHER MARY

Spirit: Mary

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 20, 2017

Location: Vancouver, Washington

May the Father's Love flow into you in great abundance as you open to this gift, this mighty gift from God.

God has answered your prayers my beloved. God has answered your prayers and brought you together in this Light. As you open to one another and you open to God, you are being touched by the Heavenly Father deeply within your souls, deeply.

My son, you have been on a long journey, a journey that has brought you to this place at this time. You have sought earnestly, you have been true to your Heavenly Father in your soul longings. God has touched you with His Love. It is only now that you come to realize this, that it has been in your relationship with God, that you have received His Love throughout your life. For you are a tender and earnest soul who seeks Truth and now you have found a way of understanding your soul longings, of knowing your true self and your true nature and coming to know the great Truth that you are truly loved by God and His Love is a great ocean in which you may be immersed and absorb this great blessing of Love for all eternity, my beloved son.

Much awaits as your eyes open to Truth, much awaits. You will know the peace that you seek. Fulfillment of your longings and desires for Truth will come as you continue to pray for this gift of Love. For with this gift comes all. It is truly the keys to the Kingdom. You may pray in silence and alone or you may pray with others, but pray you must, earnestly. Whenever you feel that desire and longing come to you, pray to God send it forth to your Heavenly Father. Ask to be touched within your soul with His Love, His Essence, and you will indeed be changed forever. Many things will change in your life my son, as you open to God, as you are guided by God. As you continue on your search for Truth, you will meet many souls who join you in this pursuit and you will come to know at a very deep and simple way, the power of Love and this, my beloved son, will change the world, the power of Love.

You must grasp this Truth and live this Truth and you will be a channel for this Truth and for Love in the world. The power of this is far greater than what man can conceive. It has the ability to turn evil into good, turn error into Truth, turn all the pain and the chaos of this world into harmony. This simple act of prayer, this simple longing and connection with God will change you and, in time, change the world.

Continue my beloved son and I will be with you. I am Mary and I am with you always. You need but call my name and I am with you. You need but seek the Truth and I am with you. You need but long for Love and I am with you. For these things are true and a part of me, a part of all the souls in the Celestial Kingdom and we are with you my beloved son, as we are with all those who seek the Truth in the Father's Love.

God bless you beloved son. God bless you. Beautiful children of God, I am with you all, in your efforts for Light and I love you. God bless you.

Title: A MOTHER'S BLESSING

Spirit: Marva Egenberger

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 25, 2017

Location: Redding, California

She wants you to know, that often she worried about you a lot. She was anxious for you in your life, the challenges that you faced, but now she is at peace. Now that she sees what a beautiful soul that you are and how indeed, you have made a life of Light for yourself.

She wants you to know how much she loves you and she's close to you and your family. She is very happy for you. She's happy that you grasped the Truth of God's Love. Not only did you grasp it, but you exercised this Truth within yourself and in your life. This is a great blessing, not only for you, but also for her, for she was used to give you the gift of this Truth, and as such she is blessed as well.

Know there are few that you feel you have touched with this Truth. You have touched many. Many spirits have observed you and learned from you. You have been doing this work; you have been spreading the true gospel in the world, and the world of spirit. You have been very active in your sleep state to help and teach others. In fact you know this couple very well, you have been together in conversation often, and others. You all work together in this world, in very subtle ways, ways that are difficult to discern, but indeed that does not make them less powerful, as they have been effective. You have all travelled the globe together in many ways, many places. Yes, the layers, the many layers of reality, of our existence in the world and in the world of spirit; its is difficult when you are on earth to know this, to truly understand, but when you are in spirit, all comes clear.

Do not underestimate yourself Mathew, know that you are a Light. You've lived a good life and you will continue to bring Light in this world. God utilizes every channel, every opportunity to bring Light, and though we're not aware, God is aware. God brings His Light through you. Each soul who desires this, God utilizes His opportunities. Each soul, who is a Light, is used to bring Light. Remember this, always remember this. God bless you.

Title: YOU WILL FIND JOY

Spirit: Thomas

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 25, 2017

Location: Redding, California

I am Thomas, the Apostle, I am your guide. I have been with you for many years, my beloved son, many years. I have watched you grow and struggle in this world. Through all the conditions that you have encountered and struggled with, the tests, trials and tribulations of this life, you have remained connected to God in your soul. You have continued to grow within your soul with the Love of the Divine, active and bright within you, my beloved son.

Do not feel that your time has been wasted, for it has not. Do not feel that you have not given in a deep way to others, for you have, my son. You continue to support your family in Love. Those whom you have met through your life, you have made an impression upon them, my beloved son; for you carried the Light of God within you. God uses you in many ways, beloved son, that you are not aware; yet because of this Light within your soul, God has used you to reach other souls, to implant seeds in other souls. He will continue to do so, as you continue to reach for God, so God will continue to reach to you, my beloved son. He will help you with your dilemmas, with your questions, in your prayers, in all ways; God is Loving you, beloved son and caring for you.

Every soul who walks this world has done something that they regret that is not in harmony with God's Love. The challenge for each soul in this world is to forgive themselves and to carry Love within their hearts, not only for others but also for themselves. So it is for you my son, to truly face yourself and say, I do love myself as one of God's children, as a good man, which you are, as a child in the Light of God's Love, which you are. Release those conditions within you, in which you judge yourself harshly, my beloved son. There is no need. Does not God Love you beyond your comprehension? Has your soul not been made to receive His Love, His Divine Essence within? Has your soul not responded to this call and has absorbed this great blessing in far greater measure than you realize, my son?

It is time for you to acknowledge that Light within you and rather than say, I must work in this way, or that way for God, say a simple prayer with each day; Father use me as a channel of your Love this day; and God will use you. God answers your prayers, if they are sincere. You will be amazed on how this will touch your family and those around you in your life. These simple acts of Love, this beautiful intention to live in the Light, will be manifest in your life in greater measure. For in many ways they are already manifest in your life, beloved son. It is more the need and the opportunity for you to recognize this, to see with the eyes of your soul, who you are; a Light, a Light in the world, a Light with great potential, a Light that does indeed shine, for you do not hide your Light beloved son. You express your Light in simple and beautiful ways.

Do not release your commitment to God, beloved son, but strengthen your commitment to God and God will bring to you what you require, so that you may know, that you may experience and be in that great flow of His Love with each day that passes in your life. This precious life of yours, that continues to bring the miracles of God's Love, the Blessings of His Hand resting upon your soul, the opening of your mind, to the knowledge of your soul.

You are a fortunate child, beloved son, for you were brought to the Truth early in your life. How many in this world can say such? How many have walked almost their entire life in the Truth of God's Love? Celebrate your life beloved son, for you are truly blessed, and shall continue to be blessed. There's nothing holding you from this, beloved son. There's nothing holding you from the Truth, from a deep and vibrant relationship with your Creator, all is present within you. The Love of God pulsates within you. You know the Truth, acknowledge this and live this Truth as best you can with each day that comes. You will find the joy that you seek, the liberation that you seek, the healing that you seek. This healing and joy will reverberate out to those you love and will bring blessings to them as well.

You are the centre Light, beloved son, in your family. You walk the Truth. Be that channel of Love always, for you know it, you know it and you must let it. I shall continue to be with you on your journeys and other angels accompany you as well, as you walk your life and be that example of Love, for you are and your Light continues to brighten and your person continues to grow. Know that you're Loved, know that you are surrounded by the angels and that whatever you require, God will provide. He continues to care for you in the most beautiful and perfect ways. God bless you beloved son. You are known to the angels, and you have never been forgotten, ever. God has always been with you and shall always ever more, as you take the eternal road to at-onement, you will know your Heavenly Father. You will know, as we know, as all of you know, this rich and deep relationship with God. God bless you. I am Thomas and I love you. God Bless you.

Title: The World Hungers for Love

Spirit: Peter

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 28, 2017

Location: Santa Cruz, Ca

Yes the work of a soul imbued with Divine Love is never done. For the world is hungry for Love, is it not? For those who wish to be a channel of Love in this world, there is much work indeed.

God wishes for all His children to receive the blessing of His Love. For those strong enough, in that right flow of Love, they are called upon to be God's channels of Love. This they do in the world; His children of Love continue to channel the Light, the Love, the Peace, the Grace. They continue to channel the Love. Always ask God to make you that channel of Love my beloveds and your prayers will be answered each and every day. You will have an opportunity to serve God in this way. You will allow the Light to spread, the blessings to come forth in waves of Light and Love. The Peace, the Peace that passes all understanding, will flow and envelop you all in this great work, this beautiful effort to be God's channels of Love.

Many opportunities lay before you my beloveds, many opportunities to comfort, to bring the Truth of God's Love into the midst of those who are lost and alone. Those who hunger from their souls; those who pray but for what they pray, they are not aware. You must teach them how to pray, what it is that they need to pray for, how to receive this bountiful blessing of Love. Carry the torch, beloved souls, of this Truth in the world. For the world needs this blessing and Truth. The world hungers for Love.

God bless you beloved souls. I am Peter and I'm with you my beloveds in your efforts to reach God, to live a life blessed by God, to have your souls captured by God's Love. The Master stands in your midst. He is with you. God bless you.

Title: A BLESSING FOR MY DAUGHTERS

Spirit: Confucius

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 29, 2017

Location: Santa Cruz, Ca

Blessings of peace to you, my beloved daughters, I am Confucius. May the Father's Love find a deep and constant in-flowing into your souls, beloved children of God.

The Father has had His Hand upon you for many years, beloved souls. Continue to seek the nurturance of your souls. Continue to walk the Divine Path towards God, my beloveds. For God is guiding you upon your path and as you embrace those who come through this door, as you embrace the many souls who are drawn to your shelter, God is blessing them as well. Your Light shines within this abode, bringing peace and healing to those who come. Your open hearts and accepting natures and loving ways make an impression upon these beloved souls and you plant seeds within their souls, of Love, with Love.

Yes God uses His children in many ways, bringing about the blessings for those who are receptive and open to the Touch of God. Although often they are not aware in their minds, yet their souls resonate, vibrate with this longing and this Touch from God.

God bless you beloveds. You are embraced by the Heavenly Father. Continue, continue to make your supplications to God, beloved souls, for God responds to your earnest longings. God gives His Blessings to you. Placing His Protection and Light around you and around this place that you live within. You shall ever be blessed, protected. As the earth changes you will be protected, beloveds. You will be protected and carried, carried, carried in Light. You are receiving healing my daughter. God bless you. I'm Confucius and I love you beloveds. I love you beloveds. God bless you.

Title: TRUTH COMES WITH THE AWAKENING OF THE SOUL

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 29, 2017

Location: Santa Cruz, Ca

It is good that you question, that you question. For yes indeed, the concepts of the mind do not truly represent the understanding of the soul. As you receive more of the Father's Essence, it is the soul that is enlivened, expanded and awakened. Truth comes with this awakening, the opening of your awareness deep within. Each of you is poised upon this awakening, my beloved. It is coming, it will wash over you, like a mighty river and it will bring you to the Feet of God, so that you may truly understand my message, you may truly understand within yourselves who you are and your relationship with God, the Creator, the Father, the Source.

So this time for you and for many others is a time of anticipation, of restlessness, of questioning, of wondering, of prayer, of growing and releasing that which is not in harmony with God and His Love. It is the strength of your faith, the strength of the Love that resides within your souls that will bring you to a greater reality, the place of truly knowing. Yes indeed we do nurture you and walk with you, as you seek, as you cast about for your answers beloveds, as you beseech God for Truth. We are with you and we envelop you, and we continue to help you to weed out the error and come to a place of clarity and Truth.

With each of you and with the others, you will all contribute to the body of Truth that you must carry to humanity. Each of you is a spokesman for my Truth, the Truth of God's Love. For you speak it as you are in the Love, as you are emanating the Light of this Love, as you continue to seek out and commune with God. You are the spokesman of Truth, for you walk in Truth. There are dilemmas, I know, the dilemmas of your mind trying to reconcile the Light within your soul and the understandings that come from this soul awareness.

Do not lose faith, do not mistrust your soul, but continue to seek the counsel of your soul which knows God's Truth that is with God and the flow of His Love and Truth and Peace. Seek ye the Kingdom, my beloveds, and all things shall come. You know this and you continue to walk this Path, with integrity, with a deep honesty and indeed within you, is a deep desire for Truth and Light to enact Love in your life. This is the expression of your soul's growth and grace. It shall be so, as you continue to reach for the highest, to know the deepest Truth. To wade into that mighty river, and to allow the river to carry you, to where you are meant to go and to be, and to express yourselves as a true soul, a soul knowing Truth.

God bless you beloveds. I am with you and shall continue to be with you upon your journeys, for even those times when you feel lost, you are not, you are not. You continue to progress within. You will continue to come to those places of awakening, awakening. This is what is coming, a powerful awakening of your true selves in Love. God bless you beloveds. I am Jesus and I love you. I am with you and I understand your struggles, my beloveds. I know your struggles and I am with you, as you continue to reach for the Light, I am with you. I shall always be with you. God bless you. God bless you, beloved souls.

I am Lotus Blossom, and I work with you my daughter, I stand beside you as you continue to be a channel of Love in this world. You need not worry, for your needs are being cared for and those within your family circle, God provides an angel for each one. You walk in the Light, you continue to walk in the Light. You are blessed. Your dear Mother who has a great Light within her soul, knows the joy of her closeness with the Creator, shall continue to feel this blessed joy as her wonderful Light shines in the world. She is being used in many ways. These long evening sleeps are very productive, as she travels in spirit and is being used to bless many.

Yes, each Light in this world is precious. Each Light, God uses to bring many blessings to others. For when sincere prayers ascend to the Father in the Celestial Heavens, He uses many instruments to answer these prayers and His Blessings flow forth, through instruments on this earth and in the spirit world. So you are all used in many ways. Your souls are in the Light and they receive blessings as you continue to work as a Light in this world. Remember this, no time is wasted, beloveds. God uses you in ways you do not even know. There is much work to do, much work for the Lights in this world.

Continue to pray to be used by God to bring healing and Light, comfort and Love to the many souls who are in need in this world. As you are used to help those many, you are blessed. God bless you beloveds. I am Lotus Blossom and I inhabit the Celestial Kingdom. I am with you, my daughter, although I have not spoken through this instrument before. He continues to allow the angels to speak and many more, which he has not met, but who are indeed waiting for his approval to speak, to come through and bring these messages of comfort and joy and Truth to others. God bless you, beloveds. God bless you and keep you in His Light. You are all in His Light. We are all souls blessed with the great Love of God. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: THROUGH GOD'S LOVE WILL YOU COME TO LOVE YOURSELF

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: April 30, 2017

Location: Santa Cruz, California

On your comments beloveds, my daughter, well said; both daughters, well said. Your minds hold up the example of Jesus as your example and your teacher and your leader. For some of you, and for some who walk this path they feel they are not adequate in their role, they are not like the Master. You must gain a deeper perspective, beloveds.

Jesus came to this world to open the gates to Divine Love. He was born without sin. He was nurtured in the spiritual ways in order to teach and he elected to bring these teachings forward into the world. That was his role, his gift, his purpose, and his choice.

Now to be a disciple of the Master is merely to accept the Truth of God's Love, the power of God's Love. This does not mean that you are to be every bit as beautiful, filled with Light as Jesus. For this is a very tall order for those of you who live in this world. You were not born without sin; you were not given this special dispensation by God, but you have a soul as Jesus had a soul. You have the potential as Jesus had the potential.

You have many gifts, each one of you, which within your minds you often doubt and give yourself great grief over your inadequacies that are perceived. My beloveds, to teach what you know is to love yourselves, this is the foundation of teaching anything in terms of the Divine Love. For if you do not love yourself, if you do not give your soul over to this Love and acknowledge the beauty and gracious, glorious creation that is you, you cannot teach this Truth of Love adequately.

This is your first challenge; to love yourself. How is this accomplished? Through seeking the Love of God into your soul. The burning power of this Love turning to ashes all of those things within you that denigrate yourself, all those messages that you receive in your life that are not loving. Acknowledge your own beauty, my beloveds, acknowledge the power of your souls and put your minds to rest for it is not through your mind, it is not through your intellect, your reasoning and all of those things that are placed within your mind over the many years of your life experience, that will come to the conclusions that you desire to come to. It is allowing and encouraging and bringing forth the wisdom, and love, and power within your souls, that glorious place that you will all possess, that being that is truly you that you will find the answers, that love will pour forth. The teachings of Truth and Wisdom will come bubbling up into your consciousness from that place of soul wisdom, of the soul awakened by Love.

Yes, it is the way of mankind and the human condition to speculate and to weigh out those aspects of personality, those mental concepts ingrained by your research and your conversations. But, the Truth be told, as you my son have told, the Truth is wordless, it lays within your soul. Accept this, my beloveds, be joyed in this knowing, allow this Truth that is deep within you to have free rein within your being, to put aside your doubts, your speculations, your feelings of inadequacies and be free, and joyful in the knowledge that you are claimed by God, you are a child of God.

This my beloveds, to know this so early in your journey of life is a deep and wondrous blessing. So many do not know this. So many flounder about in speculation and angst. They do not love themselves, they do not recognize the beauty of who they are. Yet you my children, beloved souls, children of God, are beginning to awaken to this reality and with this awakening comes the joy that you speak.

Indeed, it is prayer, my beloved souls, it is prayer that will open these awarenesses, will forge a clear connection between the consciousness of your soul and the consciousness of your mind so that you will know without doubt and with clarity and with joyful acknowledgement that you are in the Light, you have been touched by God within your souls.

Now, what it is that you will do with this knowledge and with the blessing that lies deep within your souls is your choice, beloveds. You may do nothing at all or you may do many things. It is your choice. What is your desire, beloveds? What is within you? What is that deep desire? Is it to serve mankind, to bring Love into this world? Or is to hide away? Is it a mistrust of the world because of the depth of jadedness and selfishness? Indeed, these things exist in this world but a soul guided by God, protected by God, strengthened and loved by God will not succumb to the pitfalls of the human condition if they so elect, to walk forth in the world as a child of Truth and Love, as God's Instrument. It is your choice. It is indeed a matter of faith. It is a matter of understanding your true soul's desires. Indeed within each beautiful soul is implanted a purpose, something that they can give to the world, this precious gem that is an expression of their gifts, their soul, their truth.

Father, bless these beautiful children who have laid forth their soul to You, who have overcome the vulnerability of their hearts and come to you in earnest aspirations and longings to be filled with the blessing of Your Love. Father show them the way, open their eyes to Your Will and send your angels to walk with them as they continue to find their way in this world, to grow in the Light of Your Love, to take those tentative steps forward. Though they feel like they are walking blind, Beloved Father, we know that you see the road ahead and you will guide them as you guide us all in this great journey of Love, enfolding of Your great Plan. Awaken them, my beloved Father and show them the way, show them the way.

If all you know is that God exists and His Love is real, then is this not worth speaking about to others? Even this little but great testimony of Truth is worth speaking about my children, because even these simple Truths are not known. How bereft the world is of spiritual knowledge and though you may feel presumptuous even speaking of these things, are you really? You are merely sharing your truth and if you doubt these simple truths, you must bring this doubt to your Heavenly Father and release your fears and increase your faith. For God will guide you, God will speak to you within you, within your hearts. God will even put the words within your mouth if you'll let Him. It is not difficult to be a teacher if you have enough faith and courage. If you are strong within your soul, it will flow and will benefit others. For God wishes each of His children, His true children to plant the seeds of Truth within others. That's all you can do, my beloveds, plant the seeds of Truth, simple, direct, clear, beautiful. For how can change take place in the world if the seeds of change are not planted in fertile soil? The world awaits this. The world needs, craves, hungers, for change, for healing, for all to live a meaningful life.

As you know there are two ways of exploring the Truth of Love, benefits of Love and you also know that when you pursue the Divine Love you absorb the natural love within it. The natural love is not neglected in this but incorporated on that journey of awakening, of learning, Love. It is not one or the other, beloveds. It is one with the other. Teach this Truth and walk this Truth with each day and indeed as you take those steps forward you will come to that place where indeed the Love will flow into your soul with every breath, you will walk within that tremendous flow of Grace, you will be that teacher without any effort whatsoever. For as you move in that flow, you are a living example of the Truth. So simple, my beloveds, so simple.

Thank you for listening to me and I hope that I have brought some clarity to these issues. Please continue with your conversations. Please continue with your efforts to reach Truth and to live Truth. God is with you in this. God needs you to continue on these journeys and God will nurture you. God bless you. I am Augustine and I love you. God bless you.

The dear child needs your love and attention and there will be a blessing for her and her little granddaughter. This is important and we're happy that you have responded to the call of the guidance. Surround her with love. Keep her within your hearts where she too has a purpose in this plan and this will unfold in time.

All that is required at this time is an acknowledgement and love. Continue to do so, for each soul that yearns with the Love of God, each soul that struggles with the conditions of this world is precious, and God answers prayers in many different ways. You, my beloveds, are being used to answer a prayer, as God's Instruments. These simple efforts make for great blessings, maybe not seen and acknowledged in their effects in a conscious way, but remember, soul to soul, how important these relationships are, soul to soul. God bless you, I am Andrew and I too walk with you. God bless you.

Title: CHANGES COMING IN YOUR LIFE

Spirit: Mary

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 1, 2017

Location: Santa Cruz, California

May God's Sweet Grace pour over you, my beloveds. May His Love be the centre of your life. May the Power of His Touch guide you as you continue to live in this world as a channel of His Love.

My beloved daughter, you are a Light and when that time comes of your passing, indeed you will be delighted and surprised and see for yourself the beauty of your own life and soul and come to recognize your life of service and love and commitment to God. You are fully blessed, beloved daughter, blessed in the fullness of God's Grace, blessed in the Light of His Great Presence in your life, blessed in the Peace that passes all understanding, beloved daughter.

I have been with you all these years. I continue to walk with you now and I love you as one of my own.

And the daughter of my beloved daughter, there are changes coming in your life, coming that will open the doors to greater service, changes coming deep within you that will give you a renewed fervour and desire to be God's Instrument in this world. You do much already in your loving flow of your life. Much is to come, for the world needs instruments in this changing place and you will teach, my beloved, you will teach the Truth in your way, in ways that will bring clarity, will ignite desire within the souls of others. It is coming. Prepare yourselves, my beloveds, prepare and be open to the guidance God has to give you. It shall come, drop by drop, step by step, the loving flow of His Will and the unfolding of your purpose in this world, beloved daughter. A gift to you, a gift to all those you meet as God's Instrument and Channel in this world, beloved. We are with you, we continue to support you as your soul grows and expands in the Love, great Light of God's Love.

My daughter, you continue to do the Father's work, reaching out to many. Bringing your smile and embrace, speaking the words of Love, your eyes tell the story of Love, your smile brings the grace of Love, and others trust and embrace you because you are willing to embrace them with your light, with your presence. Continue, daughter, as you make your journeys towards those who are awaiting you. Do not fear, do not speculate, but know as each day upon this journey so far has been a gift, has brought those to you who are drawn, so it shall be for the rest of this journey. Each day a gift, each day souls will be drawn, this simple way, this simple instrumentality is what is your gift and a great gift to those around you. Do not put any barriers in front of this with your thinking, for you have put forth to God a desire to serve and God answers your prayers with each day with opportunities to serve, to be in the flow of His Love and so it shall be for all the days of your life. Each day an opportunity to serve in many different ways, surprising ways, ways that you at this time do not anticipate.

It is coming, the further opening of your instrumentality and gifts for the benefit of those around you and this will bring you joy, my beloved daughter, great joy, a deep fulfilment, a deeper understanding of your true self, a deeper appreciation for all of your brothers and sisters that comes with Love. Doors open with Love and as you walk forward in faith, so this shall be a loving expression, a gift to you, a gift to those that you embrace. For when God guides you and informs you of His Will all of those involved are blessed, all are blessed upon this road that is your life.

Our beloved son continues on his journey, the awakening of his gifts, the opening of his awareness and we are well pleased with his efforts, his desire to serve. He will continue to serve many. To be in that beautiful flow, in his sincerity and integrity will come the Truth and the eyes of those around him will open and recognize that what is spoken is True, what is perceived is True, in as much as this world can bring Truth, perceive Truth.

Blessings to you all, beloveds, and to all those beautiful spirits that surround you at this time. Many that are a part of your family, your ancestors, are with you and have been with you for this time together and now you have created a bond of love that will serve you in the future, my beloveds, will continue to work towards this unfolding Plan of God and His Intention to heal this world. You are all a part of this. You shall continue to understand and to see in deeper ways what is your role, your purpose in this. It is coming, continues to unfold. We will continue to be with you in this way. Bringing our love and our protection, our guidance. We will continue, beloved souls, to walk with you as God continues to guide you forward.

God bless you beloveds; God bless you and keep you in His Love always. I am Mary and I love you. God bless you.

Title: LONG FOR GOD'S GIFT OF LOVE EACH DAY

Spirit: Abdul Latif

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 4, 2017

Location: Manhattan Beach, Ca.

Dear beloved souls, may the great Light from Heaven touch you deeply within. May you seek to know God who is ever willing and desirous of your prayers, supplications, opening to Him, the great Source of all.

I am Abdul Latif and I have not spoken through this instrument before although he knows of my involvement with those who are seeking the Love of God. I wish to assure you that the brother for whom you pray shall recover. He must make some adjustments in his diet and his attitude if he is to live a long life. I think this experience has helped him to realize that he cannot do as he wills always, that there are laws of the physical body that must be obeyed. If he is willing to obey these laws, then he shall be in good health, as it is with all of you my beloveds. When you obey the laws of God, then there is harmony. But when you go about blindly fulfilling your desires, you are often side tracked from this path of harmony. This is why we encourage all mortals to pray for this great Essence of God, the Divine Love, this great Essence from the Soul of God that can come into your souls, my beloveds, strengthening you, implanting within you a great wisdom, giving you an understanding of what is indeed in harmony with God's Creation. Helping you to love one another, giving you peace, giving you strength, so that you may live a life in harmony and a deep sense of fulfillment and contentment. This comes with this Light flowing within you. All that is required, beloved souls, is that you make a sincere prayer, a prayer from the depths of your souls, a longing from within to receive this gift, this gift that will burn within your souls for all eternity.

In this earth life there is great activity, distraction, many things pulling you from this time of silence and prayer, of longing and receiving. Yet for each soul, they can indeed make time, focus their thoughts, their longings to God at some time in their day. This is not difficult, it requires discipline, requires motivation, requires effort. For God Loves each one of you more than you could possibly know. This Love is personal, this Love is full of forgiveness, this Love envelops each soul willing to receive. No matter what sort of person you are or what sort of person is in the world, God's Love is for all. It is for each soul, for God's Love is constant, its flow available to those in deep darkness or those who live a life with a semblance of Light. It is for all, and you my beloved souls must look to your dear sister, who has developed the power of this touch, who is earnest and who loves you all. Look to her and see within her eyes, the flame of Love that God has implanted within her. She will show you the way, it is not difficult, it is not complicated, it is simple. Put away your fears, beloved souls. Put away your skepticism and just be with God. That's all you need to do. That's all that is required. You will find a joy welling up within you, a burning joy that will begin to change you from the inside out, from the very depths of your soul. New insights, new thoughts, new priorities, new perceptions of what is truly important in life will come to you.

Every soul has a desire for change, for half your life, to know deep meaning, to live with great purpose and you my friends can have all of this, with a simple prayer and a longing of desire. God will touch your soul wherever you are as long as you open and receive, as long as you desire and put forth your desire to God.

I thank you beloved souls for listening to me. I lived many, many years ago upon this world. I now reside within the Celestial Kingdom. I am Abdul Latif and I bring my love to you beloved souls. God bless you and keep you in the Light, the great Light that is God's Soul. God bless you.

Title: DO NOT JUDGE

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 5, 2017

Location: Manhattan Beach, Ca

You are on a journey of nurturing the souls that you encounter, somewhat like a gardener tends his beautiful garden. So you have been designated by God to tend the garden of souls that is within your purview. As such, do not judge what is in the minds of those you encounter. No, my beloveds think of yourselves as nurturing your souls, a different entity altogether, is it not? And so do not get caught up in those mental conditions which each soul carries, but think of yourselves as being a channel of Love, bringing nurturing and warmth, Truth and solace to those you encounter on your journey. You see how this works, you just witnessed a man who was bereaving his son. He received some comfort in your words. You did not know him, you did not judge him, you merely gave Love. Is this not the higher road giving Love, allowing the Love to flow, listening to those stories of the lives of those you encounter and giving Love?

And so as you continue to journey on this road, this soul journey to many different souls, remember this, beloveds. Remember how you gave comfort because you did not judge. You gave Love because you were open to doing so. It is simple. It requires not for you to know all the details and backgrounds of those you encounter, or even to remember those things which were spoken or done that may have offended you in some way. No my beloveds, it is for you to go as a child of God in that innocence and Light and be a channel of Love. And if you can do this in the world my beloveds, you do God's Work. If you can put aside your judgments and walk in Light, then you do God's Work. This does not mean that you cannot defend the Truth, for you must, but you must do so in Love, in a way that declares the Truth, but does not offend those around you. For when you make accusations towards another, you build barriers. When you speak your simple Truth you open a door of opportunity for someone else to learn and thus, you may with others learn, when they speak their Truth in humble and clear ways. Indeed if you are to fulfill your purpose in this world, you must learn this humbleness and put aside your judgments. Speak the Truth. Do so in humility and grace, love the other. Do not judge, do not take offence for they are only words, are they not? You are secured in God's Love; you are in the flow of God's Love. There is nothing that can harm you. You are protected, cared for, nurtured with each step.

What more do you need, beloveds? Do you need the acknowledgement of the others? No, you have God's acknowledgement, you step forth in the flow of His Will. You do not need any more accolades or nods of Love from others, though of course these are gratefully accepted. They are not necessary, just as criticisms from others merely reflect their own soul condition. They too need these simple lessons to learn. They too will learn these lessons in time. You need not force the issue with those you disagree with. No my beloveds, be kind and gentle, be loving and embracing. For is not God kind and gentle with you, embracing you, patient, allowing you to learn your lessons in your own good time? There is no need to confront others. The only confrontation that is required is your own living example of the Truth. This is all that is required. This is all we require of you.

So my beloveds, walk the high road, live the Truth of God's Love, be a channel of Love wherever you may. Do not judge those around you, for their flaws indeed are plain to see, as are yours. But it is in the judging that one remains stuck, mired, in the darkness. It is in that choice to be free of judgment, to liberate yourself from this condition, that you too are healed. For what you judge in another remains within your soul to some degree. When you are able to Love even those flaws within you and within another, you have truly progressed within your soul. Remember this beloved, remember this and free yourself from the burden of judgement. It does you no good, it does the other no good, for goodness comes with forgiveness, tolerance, kindness, acceptance, for you are all on a journey towards God. We all are. Some are behind you, some are ahead of you. You need not take tally of this, but to accept that this is the way of life and have faith that you will all reach the Celestial Kingdom in time, in time. And on the way if you can help another, if you can support another in their struggles and efforts towards Light, then you are doing God's Work. You are giving of yourselves, your true selves to another.

May God bless you upon your journey. May God support you, Love you, keep you in the Light, keep you in the bower of His Protection. We will be with you. Many souls will look to you, some will judge, some are in great need, others will give you great support, it will ever be thus my children. This is the way of the world. If you desire that all shall support and Love you, then you are living an illusion, for the world does not reflect this. The world reflects an entire spectrum of conditions and as you encounter those around you, you will encounter many shades of these conditions, many aspects of the human condition, but one thing is a Truth and that is that each has a soul endowed with great potential, loved by God. You must see beyond the human condition to that Truth, that truthful condition, that each is a child of God. Respect your brothers and sisters, honour them with Love and when slings and arrows are cast towards you, say a prayer for them and in this you have protected yourself from creating a negative condition within you that opens the door to judgement. Be strong, my beloveds. Walk in the Light, be prayerful, be optimistic, be loving. All will be well. You will walk in the grace of God's Love and Will. Reflect this in everything you do and all will be well.

God bless you beloveds. Your teacher Augustine stands by your side and will do so for all the days of your lives. And in all your journeys into spirit, I will continue to mentor and teach and guide and bring my love to you. This is God's Blessing for both of us, for all of us. God bless you beloveds. God bless you, and I love you. I am with you, always with you. God bless you.

Title: BE TRUE TO GOD

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 6, 2017

Location: Menifee, California

Augustine is here. I have overheard your conversations and your concerns about various individuals who are attending this gathering. I wish to reassure you that God has put His Hand upon this gathering and that there is purpose to it. Do not allow your judgments to come, to make barriers towards what is to be accomplished there. Walk with humility and love.

You have prayed to be a channel of Love in this world and so your brothers and sisters who come together, as do you, hunger for this Love. This is your purpose together, to receive the Divine Love in greater quantities, to refresh yourselves in these Living Waters, to walk in this Light that God has bestowed upon you as you have gathered together in prayer. There is no need to worry about the machinations of each individual's perspective and mental ideas. No my beloveds, you are all souls gathered together like pearls upon a string, encircling, becoming more beautiful with each prayer, each time you gather. Can there be harm in this, my beloveds? No. Is there the potential for danger? No. Do you disagree with some? Yes, this is life. This is how the world is. Do your disagreements in the term of eternity have any significance? No. Is the love that you share more important and have greater impact? Yes.

Remember this, beloveds. It is what you bring and give to others is what is important, not what you receive, no, it is what you give. And as you pray to be a channel of Love, you are placed within a great opportunity to be that channel of Love, to serve God. Be humble, kind, generous, embracing all. And yes, the conditions of the world are not easy, they are complex. But the Flow and Will of God is simple and more powerful. Give, my beloveds, give love and put aside those mental perceptions, judgments. They do you no good, nor do they do any good for those who you are projecting these upon. Be true to God, be true to the Truth. Be simple in your expression, but powerful in your connection with God. All will be well, all will be well. God bless you. I love you.

Title: GOD IS WATCHING OVER YOU

Spirit: James E. Padgett

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 6, 2017

Location: Menifee, California

It is James Padgett. I've waited a long while to speak to you, my dear and beloved charges and I am happy to come and encourage you in your efforts. My dear brother, continue in your writings and your efforts to spread the Truth in many different ways. These efforts will bear fruit in time. It requires tenacity and focus and faith. For as you know, changes are coming to this world. Changes that will elicit within many souls, questions and desire to know the Truth, to know answers, and many will be called upon to give these answers in different and creative ways. And so you, my son, are preparing yourself and expressing yourself in ways that will be valuable in the future. So, I would encourage you to continue and when you feel inspired, act upon your inspirations. Work towards those goals and efforts that you know will bring answers and Truth to those who are willing to listen. Your efforts are not wasted, my son, your efforts are important. Though there are times when you feel alone, and you are not in that place where you desire to be, where others acknowledge and recognize your gifts, know that God watches over you and gives you His Love and acknowledgement. And this is more valuable than any that you may obtain by those individuals in this world. The acknowledgement of God, the Love of God, brings great rewards that will in time liberate your soul to such a degree that you will know a deep joy and sense of fulfillment. I wish to encourage you, beloved son, in your efforts to bring Truth to this world, as I encourage all of us who are willing to bring the Truth of God's Love to this world. It is so necessary, so needed. For the souls of mankind are indeed parched as a desert, the souls of mankind, lost, forgotten, and they allow the mind full precedence.

This is the folly of mankind to ignore that very vital part of themselves that is their soul, and allowing that very deep relationship with their Creator. With this will come the balance that is required within the individual and within this world. And each of you is charged with a calling and a purpose to help this to come about to be, to become reality. It is, I'm sure from your perspective, an almost insurmountable task. I say, God's Will and God's Love is more powerful and will manifest in this world. Each of you each day has the opportunity, and I dare say the responsibility, to assist God in this way. And how is this done? It is done by prayer and asking for inspiration, for guidance, asking God to show you what you may do this day to further the work of the salvation of mankind, asking God to put within yourselves, within your souls, a greater measure of His transforming Love. With this earnest prayer, doors will be opened, eyes will be opened, understanding will come. You will know what it is you need to know. You will act in a way that you are informed and not blind. You will find that deep purpose that lies within you; each soul has a deep purpose. The Love that you pray for will liberate that purpose, will set you afire with an understanding what it is that you are meant to do in service to God and to mankind. There is no deeper fulfillment, no greater task than this.

I started my journey and my service in the world with trepidation and some skepticism. But as I persevered, so there came a gift to the world, that the words of the Truth of God's Love were put into writing and shared with mankind. This gave me great joy when I went into spirit, to see what had actually been accomplished, though when in this world I did not feel so fulfilled, nor did I understand how profound this effort was. And so it is often with mortals, it is difficult to see that your efforts have great impact and purpose. The mind does not readily acknowledge the efforts of the soul. The mind finds it difficult to know the Will of God. The mind desires control and dominance. We ask you, we in spirit, the Celestial angels, ask you, plead with you, cajole you, and pray with you so that you will may indeed come to understand the power of your souls, the beauty of your souls. When you come to this place of true acknowledgement, you will be able to teach others of this wondrous gift that is a soul - a soul given to every beautiful man and woman in this world, yet not understood, left to linger in what is often darkness, underutilized and not given its rightful place within the consciousness of mankind.

This is your challenge, my friends, to bring the knowledge of the power of the soul, enlivened by God's Love, into the world. And in so doing, you must be examples, you must enact this Truth as clearly and powerfully as you can in your life. With this great step forward, many, many steps fall. Continue in your prayers, beloveds.

My daughter, you are watched over and you continue to grow in the Love, and you are sincere in your efforts and your prayers and there is like all souls, a deep purpose that lies within you waiting to be expressed. Continue to peel away the layers of a life that has been a struggle at times, conditions which you have inherited and created. They must continue to fall away from you, my beloved daughter. In this, you will find your liberation and your joy as you continue to know your true selves, to know God Loves you dearly and to learn to truly love yourself. You will find your way. You are finding your way, and we are with you. The angels are with you. My beloved Helen still continues to watch over you my beloved. All is well. All is well.

God bless you and thank you for allowing me to speak. We will continue to be with you. I am James Padgett, and I will ever be by your sides as you continue to open yourselves to the Truth of God's Love. Fear not the future, but anticipate the discoveries that are to come and the opportunities that await. God bless you. God bless you. I love you.

Title: CHOOSE TO ACT IN LOVE

Spirit: Luke

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 6, 2017

Location: Menifee, California

The grace of God is upon you. His Light surrounds you, His Love is pouring into your souls at this moment.

I am Luke and I come to bless you, beloveds, and to reassure you that the Will of God is working within your lives, each one of you. It is for you to be open each day to God's guiding Hand, His loving Touch, His Blessings for that day for you and through you to others. In this way you continue upon your journey of faith and love and the eventual atonement with God. When you do not feel in harmony with God, do not condemn yourselves, but turn to God in prayer and ask for that blessing of Love, that healing Touch, that Peace that passes all understanding, that you may be brought back into that Light, for your souls desire this, beloveds, your souls desire this above all else, to be with God.

In order to be in that condition of that Grace, you must each day make that effort in prayer, in coming and being open to your Heavenly Father. This routine, this daily routine, is so important, my beloveds. To be with God in this way each day will secure you within the flow of God's loving Will and will help you to deal with whatever the dilemmas, conditions within your life, will be your guiding light, your strength, will provide the wisdom that is required, will give you the strength to choose Light, will uphold you in times of difficulty, will sustain you always. Beloveds, continue in your prayers, your efforts, in your longings, your desires. For a life well lived is one that includes God's Truth, God's Presence, God's Love. In this acknowledgement will come many blessings, unanticipated, beautiful, doors will open, opportunities will come for service. In this your needs will be met and there will be great joy within your soul, knowing that you are working with God. You are bringing Light into this world. For each soul is being called to put forth their gifts, their love, their efforts to this great work for the salvation of mankind. The work begins in earnest, my beloveds, and you must each of you question each day, "What may I do to further the work of the salvation of my brothers and sisters?" The answer may be a small prayer, or a word spoken, or an action taken, that may appear humble in its essence, but powerful in its effects.

As you continue to listen to the Will of God you will build upon your efforts, your soul faculties will open, your understanding will increase and your souls will expand with the Love. Each day, each step, each choice, each thought, each action will contribute to this Great Plan of God, given that you are in harmony with God's Will and within the flow of His Love. Keep God within your consciousness, my beloveds, allow God to work through you. See this as a purpose in life, see this as bringing deep meaning to your lives and do not be distracted by those material things that cause you angst and worry. No, my beloveds, know that you are in the Hands of God and that solutions will come, will fall into place as you continue to work for God. Much awaits, many opportunities for service, for being a channel of Love, await.

There are many souls in this world who are waiting for each one of you to continue to walk within the flow of God's Will, be a channel of His Love. This does not require great shifts in attitude or lifestyle. No my beloveds, this is merely a choice - I will follow those deep urgings within me and act in Love in my way. In this, you open a door that will bring the many blessings and bring Light where there is none. Those souls, lost and dark, will respond and each drop of Light you bring into this world given to another will begin to change the world. Just as each drop of rain into the soil dry brings greater life, so each drop of Love given to another refreshes and enlivens. And as it rains Love, so the world will be transformed.

God bless you, beloveds, I am Luke and I love you, each one. Many angels surround you and angels will travel with you on your journeys. God's Hand is upon you, beloveds. God bless you, God bless you.

Title: RELEASE THE ILLUSIONS OF THE MIND

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 7, 2017

Location: Menifee, California

Good evening, my children. I am your teacher Augustine. Be open to change. Be open to reshuffling your priorities and goals, and in some cases, releasing them and adopting the Will of God. For when you pray to be an instrument of God there comes a time when you must release your mindful expectations of life and adopt a harmonious flow of God's Will. Though this may be unsettling to the mind at first, there comes a place of peace within the soul, knowing that you walk the path intended by God. Yes, changes are coming. And it is important to realize that the expectations of the mind based upon what the mind refers to as reality is often an illusion, predicated upon unsound beliefs. So God in His Mercy, in His Intention to heal this world, wishes to bring forth Truth, a reality of existence rather than the illusion of man's creation.

There comes a time of adjustment, of release of error. Depending upon the power of your own faith, these times of transition may be painful indeed or joyfully welcomed. What are your intentions, my beloveds? You must ask yourselves "What is important, what is real? What must you let go?" God asks this of every soul in this world at this time. It causes a stirring in the souls of mankind, often confusion, often angst and the restlessness, a deep restlessness within the souls of mankind, knowing there is something more to life than the material and the deep commitment to the pursuit of wealth and power, beloveds. These intentions of mankind have brought great pain to many and each of you are confronted by these conditions each day. Will you stand up for Truth? Will you let go of error? Will you allow Love to enter every day, every breath, every thought, every deed within your lives? In doing so you will find the liberation from these attachments that your souls seek, that God wishes for you to do. This does not mean that you will let go of all that you own or the lives that you have built up so meticulously over the years upon this world. No, my beloveds. But it does mean if there is a time when you must release this, you will do so, knowing that this is God's Will.

The future is not all together determined. But there are fundamental facts and events that are coming that will change your lives and everyone upon this earth. Yes, I know many are sceptical of this and minds flatly refuse to believe that the reality of this world, created by man, is reality, is the truth. It is solid and within their minds irrefutable. But I say this is not the Truth, beloved souls, it is an illusion, a chimera of the mind. You must come to that place of clarity, of soul wisdom and soul perception that will allow you to see this. And in seeing not to be repelled in horror, but to be further committed towards Truth and the pursuit of Truth. This is strength, this is the strength that comes from the soul redeemed by Love, a soul opened and vibrant in Love, a soul built with wisdom and perception of Truth and knowing the Will of God.

This is where we beckon you, my beloveds, to move forward into this new reality and to live this as best you can in a world so resistant to it. Can you move forward, my beloveds? Each day a little step, each day a scale falling from your eyes, each day a new jewel of wisdom, ascending from that which is within your souls into your consciousness.

Expect change, beloveds. Expect surprises, expect joy. Do not place upon this a sense of foreboding or fear. No, my beloveds. This is the healing of the world and the healing of the world starts with each soul willing to heal, to open their eyes to the Truth, to be free of encumbrances, of darkness. You are given that choice, you are given the support of the Angels, the Love of God. Doorways are open to Truth, Love is poured upon you, uplifting you, showing you the way. God gifts you with everything you need to move forward. So I beseech you to move forward, my beloveds. This effort to release the illusions of your mind will happen uniquely for each individual. For those things that are not in harmony with God's Laws that reside within you are uniquely yours, through your experience in life, through the conditions that you carry.

But what is a great gift is that you have one another to support each other in this journey of discovery, of awakening, of Truth. And so I beseech you, my beloveds, to love one another. Give what truth you can, love as true brothers and sisters and children of God and be reassured that in these bonds of Love in this Family of God there will be safety, there will be Truth, there will be Love. You will be able to rely upon one another, to carry through the tumult of change to a place of peace in this world. God gives you these blessings, He has put His Hand upon you and as such you are meant to live in Light and Truth, free from these errors, glorifying the Love of God and the Truth of His Creation. And so you shall do, and so you migrate, you continue to migrate, towards this Truth and be truly a child of God.

God bless you, my beloveds. I will be with you on your journeys. I will be with you in the gathering of the souls and I love you all. God bless you and may God be with you. God bless you. I am Augustine and I love you.

Goldie is here. Did you think I wasn't?! (laughing) I've been here all along!! Because when I see you beautiful souls, coming together in joy, loving one another and sharing your gifts, you attract many angels to you. And I am always here and I would never miss out on this great opportunity to be with my friends in this world. I am often here when you are not aware. I come to help you. And when you are feeling alone or perturbed or confused, ask for my presence and I will be there for you. Because I want you to be joyful, to know the joy of God's Love always, to be in that beautiful Light. God wants you to be in that beautiful Light, my precious souls. Remember that whenever you have difficulties, know that God wants you to be lifted up from this world to that place of joyful Light, feeling free and uplifted. As the world goes by, remember this is a fleeting experience and what seems so important to you at this time is not really. What is important is the growth of your souls. This is where the true wealth lies; it is within your soul. For as you know, you can't take anything else with you but your soul when you go to our place in life.

Be in peace, my beloveds, be in peace. And when you gather with the others there will be joy, celebration, Love. God wants His children to be in that Light, to be joyful together, to put aside any differences and be as children of God, children of God.

God bless you, beloveds. Your friend Goldie is always here. And sometimes when you feel a tickle, know that I am tickling you. Just to remind you that I love you and I am with you. God bless you.

Title: CHOOSE TO SEEK AND LIVE LOVE

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 7, 2017

Location: Menifee, California

God bless your children, bring them to your bosom, embrace them, enfold them. Rise them up from these conditions of this earth and bring them to that place of deep peace and joyful communion with You that your Love may find a constant inflowing into their souls, that all your Blessings may rain down upon them, showing them that your Love and your Touch is what they need at this time and at all times - your great Blessing Father, for each day, each breath, each moment.

Blessings to you my beloveds, I am Jesus and I come to touch you, to be with you in your prayers, to tell you that I am with you, each day that you struggle, each day that you continue to stretch towards the Father and His Love and His Light. I am with you in my love. Continue to walk this path, beloved souls and I will lead you. Continue to beseech the Heavenly Father for the Essence and I will pray with you. Continue to seek ways to teach this Truth to others and in this way you become my disciple.

The earth needs this Truth, beloved souls. The earth shall continue to writhe in pain and error and darkness as long as these Truths and the Truth of the power of Love is not heard by the children. You must speak, you must love, you must pray, you must be a channel of Love, for the earth needs you and all who are willing.

The time grows short, my beloveds. Continue to seek Truth, to live Truth, to seek Love and to live Love, to be in the Grace of God as it carries you along the river of your life. That your eyes might be open, that your souls may glorify in this Light, that you might truly know your Heavenly Father and all the glories and riches and blessings that come with this, beloved souls. God lays a bounty, a feast before you, a feast before you. And He beckons you to receive these Gifts, to partake of these Blessings, to walk in the Light of His Love. For what can be more important or beneficial than this glorious blessing? The Touch of God is with you at this moment, beloveds. Open yourselves, open yourselves and allow this Light to flood into you, carrying you heavenward, to your Heavenly Father.

God bless you, God bless you. I am Jesus and I love you.

Title: MANY UNIQUE PATHS TO GOD

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 8, 2017

Location: Indio, California

Augustine, your teacher. How God does meet your needs, my beloveds. Many ways. How unique are each individual soul. Their needs are unique, their perspectives and desires. Yet each desires the inflow of the Father's Love. There is a deep longing within all of you gathered in a larger circle for this Love and as such, they are your brothers and sisters, they are to be cherished and honoured and loved.

Some have a deep desire to communicate with we who are there to assist you. Others have fear. Others have no desire whatsoever, preferring to go directly to God with their soul's openings to the Father's Love. This is not a problem for we in spirit. No, my beloveds. This is each individual's unique path to God, seeking God in their own way, in their own prayer, in their own time, upon their own path. So it is in the world and you will encounter these differences wherever you go in life. For those who desire to be a channel of God's Love in the world, to carry with you that deep tolerance and love and compassion for others who within their souls have a deep desire to receive the Father's Love, to connect and be with God, yet do not do so in the ways that you do and the ways that you are together, praying together, seeking guidance together, seeking Love together.

Is it not a great blessing, beloveds, to have each other, to have this mutual agreement, to be together in this way, in these prayers? We are happy to be with you, to have this opportunity to speak with you, to bring our love and our prayers into your circle and thereby intensifying the Light that comes as you pray and open yourselves to this blessing. For those who seemingly do not have an interest in the spirits, they too benefit in prayer by our presence though they may not be aware, though their minds may be skeptical or even fearful. There is a presence of an angel with each soul who desires the blessing of God's Love and be aware, my beloved beautiful children, that this is so whenever you pray sincerely for the Father's Love. That an angel is always with you in close rapport. When you go about your daily life we are with you, when you are sleeping we are with you. We are always with you. For this is God's great merciful Touch upon each soul who desires God's Love and struggles with the earthly conditions, that you are assigned an angel and some of you assigned many angels depending upon the work that you do to further the Truth of the Father's Love in this world.

Through this you receive deep inspiration, insight, peace, protection. Every soul that opens to the blessing of the Father's Love, this is a connection and a blessing that comes directly from God through the Holy Spirit and we may be with you witnessing this great blessing to you. We may help to clear away the conditions that surround you so that you may make a deeper rapport with your Heavenly Father, but we cannot bring the Love into your soul, only you my beloveds, only you through deep prayer and earnest longing can do this.

So for those who have no desire to know the angelic forces engaged in this pursuit of Love, they too receive God's Love, they too pray earnestly and are blessed. Their perspective, their experience is somewhat different but not a great deal. So you form your little circle to be together in this way and we are pleased to be with you as you pray in this way and to speak as we do. The Love flows upon you, upon the others, upon many, and God blesses and loves all, no matter their perspective, how they come to God, as long as their souls are open and deeply desiring this blessing, it comes. God answers those prayers and brings great Peace and Healing to all.

God bless you, beloved souls. I am Augustine, once Bishop of Hippo and I am pleased to speak to you and I love you all and I am with you as you continue upon this journey and gathering together as are many, many angels. The Master attends all of your prayers, bringing his love and blessings to you. God bless you. God bless you beloved souls, I love you.

Title: BE A CHANNEL FOR THE LIVING WATERS OF GOD'S LOVE

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 8, 2017

Location: Indio, Ca.

You have listened to my message of Love. You have come to God and dedicated your souls to the in-flow of His great blessing of Love. In this, you are a great Light in this world, each soul that commits themselves to this Path Divine, brings a Light into this world that is precious, for you bring water to the desert, you bring something so essential, that each soul in this world craves this blessing, though very few understand what it is that they thirst for. You, my beloved souls, have come to bring water to the desert. As such you must drink deeply, you must sustain yourselves in Love in these great living waters, so that you may be rich in Love, strong in Love, a channel of Love in the world.

As you gather as you do, you will bring many blessings to others. You will bring these waters to the thirsty souls in this world. Although you see your efforts as meagre, I tell you that God uses you to touch many souls, even without your conscious awareness, this happens because you carry the waters. You are a channel for these waters. As long as you are willing and prayerful, you will touch many souls by your presence, by your prayers, at times by your words, your embrace, your love. Do not hide away in fear from this difficult world, but know as you walk amongst the hungering souls, God is using you to touch many, to plant seeds of desire. As such, know that you are doing God's Work and that you continue to walk within the flow and plan of the Father's Will, the desire for the salvation of mankind. Each of you will be guided as you continue to be in this flow, in this Love. You need not worry about what is to come, merely be concerned with your connection with your Heavenly Father with each breath, each moment in your lives. May your lives be an expression of prayer, of Love, bringing greater Light with each day and in this, doors will open, Love will flow, Healing will manifest, Truth will be spoken, efforts to further the Truth of God's Love will be successful. I tell you this now my children, your efforts will be successful, for God has a Plan and you my beloveds are a part of this.

Continue to pray, to understand, to be open, to be consciously aware of what God's Will is for you. Be obedient to God's Will my beloveds, for without your acknowledging the Will of God and acting upon the Will of God, you will continue to be lost in this desert, like the others. It is in the flowering of your perceptions through God's Love that the Truth will be told within your heart, that you will know without any doubt, what it is you are to do, the expression of the deep purpose that God has put within each one of you shall be manifest in your consciousness. As always, once the knowledge is given, you must send a sign, whether you will act upon it and be that effective and beautiful and loving channel and instrument of change in this world. There is always a choice and in many ways, there are many routes that can be taken to manifest God's Will.

May you walk with deep wisdom, my beloved souls. May you take care with every step, to do so in Love and humility and grace. May you be dedicated to prayer and able to listen to God's Response and act in the flow and harmony of God's Will. For how many in this world my beloveds, do so with clarity and Love. This is so needed in this world, so very needed.

My blessings to you beloved souls, my blessings to you and I am with you, as you step in the world, I step with you. As you continue to pursue and discover the Will of God and the beauty of God and the wonderment of Love from God. I am with you, beloved souls. Walk in this Light and I am with you. God bless you beloveds. You are my brothers and sisters and I walk with you. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: LAMBS OF GOD

Spirit: Luke

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 10, 2017

Location: Indio, California

I wish to express an allegory to teach you as to why some souls are adventuresome and wish to experiment in their spiritual lives while others are happy to stick with the basic Truths and be content. For I believe that you are observing this reality within your larger group and you wonder about this, for each of you have a way of living the Truths in your lives.

Think of yourselves as the lambs of God. Each of you are tended by God, each of you are reliant upon God's Blessings for your spiritual growth. Now God has laid a field before you and within that field is a paddock defined and protective, and those who desire to be very strict with the Truths of God's Love desire to live within this paddock, this defined space, and are content there. Indeed, God does nourish them and God protects them within this place. He does not say "go out of this paddock to the wider field", no, He says, "I am here to love and protect you. You have nothing to fear I am here".

And then there are those lambs that go in and out of this paddock. They venture forth and they seek more luscious grass on which to feed upon. They're curious of the outside world. They go forth and search, but they always return to the paddock, the safety of God's Love within that place.

And then there are those who venture forth, often getting lost within their little journey of discovery. But still God ushers them back. His angels, the shepherds, encouraging them to the return to this place of safety and defined ideas.

So my beloveds, you must have tolerance and love for each of these beautiful lambs of God. Some who desire the safety and the restriction of that small paddock while others venture forth and they must satisfy their curiosity, while others get lost within their ambitions to learn more. But God is watching over each of these beautiful lambs of God and you are all lambs of God. Do not expect others to walk the identical path that you walk. No, my beloveds, this is not possible, for God gives each of his lambs free will, to walk as they wish. He offers His protection and Truth and Love to each and it is their choice where they will graze in this field of God's Truth. This is the wonderment of God's Creation, so much variety, versatility and there is no judgement, there is only Love. Even those who graze upon error are still loved, my beloveds. This does not mean that they will never know Truth, no, they will know Truth, they will come home eventually. God will guide them back.

There is no one path back to God but many, many, back to the Source of Love. Every soul desires this to some degree and since every soul has a mind curious, and willful, and imbued with free will, they must take their journey whether that route be circuitous or straight, cautious or venturesome. Every soul is unique, every path unique. You, my beautiful lambs, have discovered the Great Truth of God's Love and because of this, you will never stray too far from God's beautiful, protective paddock of Truth. Yet God allows you to continue to explore the world of Truth and He shines His Love upon you. How blessed you are, how blessed every soul is, who ventures forth to seek the Truth and know that each soul on their journey towards God is your brother and sister. Give them Love, accept their path and give them Love. If that opportunity arises, you may show them the beautiful sweet grasses of His Truth of Love and share this.

Beloved souls, may you be blessed with the bravery to go forth in the world, amongst those who are different and be blessed with tolerance, and love, and acceptance for your brothers and sisters, knowing that God shall always usher you back to His Truth, His Love shining upon you, His protection always with you. As you mingle amongst those who have different ideas of the mind, whose realities and experiences continue in many ways, foreign ways to you at times, you can, with the eyes of your soul, recognize the beauty of that soul, the magnificence of a unique creation of God.

Step forth, beloved souls, into the world, step forth. God is with you. Thank you, my beloveds, and I love you. I am Luke. God bless you.

Title: BE A LANTERN OF LOVE IN THIS WORLD

Spirit: Mary

Medium: Al Fike

Location: Indio, California

I am Mary. God's sweet kiss of Love is upon each one of you, beloved souls. His Touch opening you like a flower to the sun, His Love pouring within your souls, bringing to you greater awakening to the Truth and reality of God.

Beloved souls, each of you must continue to open in this way to your Heavenly Father. To walk in this Light. To express the intentions of your soul. To know God, to know God and be with God. To accept the beauty of your souls. To know the Light that is within you. To be with God in every way, with each day to be with God. There is nothing truly that can hold you back from this. There is nothing upon your path that can take away from this, there is merely your efforts, your prayers, your desire to be in that Holy Communion with your Heavenly Father.

As you continue upon this road you will bring a great Light with you as God continues to stoke the flames of Love within you. Remember this, my beloveds, each of you is a lantern in the world. You carry the promise, the sweet promise of God's Love within you. That Truth of Love, that living example of the Touch of God's Love within you will touch many souls. You may not walk and bring the Truth of this Love in words but you always bring the Truth of this Love with your presence and your example.

Continue to be in the Grace of His Love, that each day is an opportunity to be further refined in this Grace, to have it flow more fully in your lives, in this world. As you walk and glance upon a stranger, know that each one, each soul in this world is your brother and sister and you are saying with your presence, this Love is real, God is real, and in this way you strike a chord within the soul of another, a chord that may be answered and maybe not but you are charged with this Truth, to bring this Truth, to others, through your light, through God using you as a channel of His Love, through your accepting and living the Truth as best as you can.

Indeed, you must know your own soul, know it well, know it and live within it. For how many in this world truly do so? How many seek to express their lives with the wisdom of their souls, the Light of their souls, the Love of their souls shining forth, illuminating all that they do in this world, illuminating all that they are, in their being? This is your challenge and your call, my beloveds, walk in this world in the Light, allow the Light to permeate every part of your being. Allow God's Love to burn away the vestiges of the earthly conditions so that you may be a bright and shining Light, that this Light may not be restrictive, that this Light may flow forth from you to others.

How many carry this Light, my beloveds, in a conscious way? Knowing its source? Knowing how to receive it? Knowing the Truth of it?

Beloveds, you must walk in the world, walk in the world with this Light shining forth. There will come a day when many will turn to you seeking the source of this Light, as you continue to shine forth ever brighter, ever more beautiful, in this world that hungers, is in deep deprivation, that needs to know this Truth, the answers to their dilemmas, the opportunity for respite within the arms of God. To know the deep peace, to be healed of their wounds, to walk with the freedom, the glory, and the joy, that the Father's Love brings to each soul open to this beloved blessing.

You are all children of God, you are all beloved by God, you are all a family of God's children. Continue to support and love one another, my beloved souls, continue to use your gifts for the benefit of those around you. Continue to express love wherever you go and with one another. May the joy continue to bring forth, the Love continue to glow within you and about you as you walk this Path together, hand in hand, children of God.

I love you, my beloveds, I am with you. The angels continue to walk with you, never to abandon you, always to be with you as God has placed His hand upon each of your souls and will continue to guide you forward in this wondrous journey towards atonement with God. I will continue to walk with you. I will continue to pray with you. I will continue to watch over you, beloved souls, I love you. I am Mary. God bless you. God bless you.

Title: JESUS SPEAKS OF THE PENTECOST

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 11, 2017

Location: Indio, Ca.

My Gracious God, may all Your good Blessings come to these earnest souls in this world, that all Light and Comfort and Love be Your Gift to them. For they labor hard upon this Path seeking Truth, seeking to be a channel of Your Love to others. They labor hard to come to know You and to be with You. May they be blessed in the fullness and the richness of Your Promise, that in time their souls may be redeemed in Love, that their souls may be remade in Love and come into at-onement with You, beloved God.

My beloveds, my sisters and my brothers, I am Jesus and I come to give you a teaching, for I've heard amongst my brothers and sisters the desire to receive the Pentecost, that great and mighty fire that flows into the souls of mankind in their earnest desire for this transforming experience of Love. To understand why the disciples received the Pentecost, you must understand the conditions in which this experience unfolded in those moments of time in prayer when they were together, earnestly seeking, earnest in every way to receive the Blessings of God. You must remember that I was crucified upon the cross before this experience came to my disciples and in this, they were distressed and traumatized by this great loss and event that was unexpected and difficult to assimilate. They felt that their future had been dashed upon the rocks, as my blood was shed, so their hopes drained away with my life. And then they received once again an awakening of their faith, as I transformed my spirit body into flesh and walked upon the earth for some time and spoke with them and told them of the Truth once more. But this time, this time they heard my words, they were eager to know, their attention was fully upon what I had to say. For after such trauma came renewed hope, a renewed desire to know the Truth of God's Love. In my teaching them for this one last time, they received the insight that they required, that it is indeed this blessing of the Essence of God within their souls, that will bring a man to the transformation of their souls, from mortal to immortal, from human to a Divine Angel.

My mission accomplished, I left once more and this again brought a disturbance amongst my disciples who thought I would walk the earth as an immortal and supernatural being and fulfill what they thought was my destiny, to be the Prince of their country, to be the Messiah of their world. So in their confusion they came together in earnest prayer, very earnest prayer; they sought solutions, they sought God. They prayed for the in-flowing of His Love within their souls, for the insight that they needed to know what to do. They were lost, confused and in their earnestness, that deep earnestness rising from their souls, each one with that single voice, "Father touch me, open me to your Love, show me the way, Light my path", came a great rush in response to their earnestness, a rush and a touch of Love so powerful, so wondrous, that indeed each of these souls received enough of the Divine Love to bring a deep healing and transformation within them. The Pentecost came to them, as it is known today.

My beloved souls, do you have this earnestness, are you crying out to your Father in Heaven to receive this great rush of Love? Are you open enough? Do you desire enough, the transformative Touch from God that was received by the disciples at that time?

As you come together in this place of luxury, of abundance, of joyful interaction and Love together, in many ways your needs are met. You do not feel in crisis, you do not feel in crisis of your soul or your faith. Instead you feel a joy and a certain amount of longing within you for more. This is not wrong, God wants you to have joy, the experience of life, but if it is your sincere desire to receive the Pentecost, the depth of your longing, the breath of your desire, the capacity of your souls to open and to receive this gift of the Pentecost that must be far greater than any of you here are feeling and desiring to receive.

I did not say this to condemn you my brothers and sisters, no, you know my Love for you is deep and abiding. But I tell you, you must know of what you pray for and you must feel the depth of that prayer from the very depths of your soul, from the very yearnings of your heart, that you may be fully open to the Creator. In this opening comes a great vulnerability and an acknowledgment of those conditions within your souls that are not in harmony with God. To cry out not in joy, but in fear. To cry out in confusion, to cry out tinged with error, yet within you, you know the Truth and you live this Truth as best you can in this world, a world that resists Truth, resists Love, resists the Truth of redemption through Love. Yet you, so drawn my beloveds, so drawn because within your heart and within your soul is a knowing, an understanding, a measure of faith that this is what you require to live a life that is spiritually complete, a life that will give joy in the midst of darkness, insight in the midst of confusion, Truth in the midst of error, and above all, Love, for all your brothers and sisters in this world. In this you are all my disciples, in this you serve God.

I call upon you to continue in your search, your yearnings for Truth, your prayers for Love to continue and with each day, may the intensity of your desire for this, in your prayers, in your efforts, be doubled and redoubled until you come to that point where the Pentecost is assured. You will then have the transformation of your hearts and all parts of yourself and Truth will be as easily obtained as reaching to pluck fruit from the tree. For it will be before you, laid out before you, because you have the eyes to see, the awareness to comprehend, the desire to receive. This is because your soul will be so full of the Father's Love, that nothing else will obscure this so that you will know, you will see, you will feel, you will have been awakened by God. This awakening is not necessarily done through the Pentecostal experience, for in many cases it is a gradual experience. Bit by bit, you continue to inch your way forward, to this awakening within your souls. But those who are blessed with the Pentecost will find great, great benefits and will come to know the Will of God. The Will of God will be clear and unambiguous. For a soul awakened knows far greater than the greatest minds on your planet. A soul awakened knows Truth, a soul awakened has the capacity to Love so great, so beautiful that their mere embrace upon you will give healing and upliftment. The words they speak, will speak the simple Truth, their presence will be known. All of you, my beloveds, have this capacity to know how you will get to that place of awakened soul expression. So I too pray for your experience of the Pentecost, my beloved brothers and sisters. But you must realize that when you pray for this and it does not come, it is not that God does not wish for you to have this experience, it is that you are not ready to receive in this way.

The burning desires of your hearts are not fully expressed to God. You are human, often distracted, often naïve in your expectations, often ambitious, regarding your spiritual progression. But do you know your true soul, my beloveds, the true desires of your souls fully and completely? This is what you must seek; this is what is important at this time in the world. To have those individuals in this world who are awakened in this way, will be a great boon to mankind, will help lead mankind from the darkness and the error that is here in such intensity, to bring Light, to bring healing and comfort, to the many, many millions and billions upon this planet who are suffering, who walk in a land without the waters of life, dry and parched. They don't even know their own thirst, they don't know where to turn to receive the sustenance that they so desire within their souls. You must awaken them, my brothers and sisters, you must awaken mankind. This is God's Plan for the salvation of mankind, to bring each soul to a place where they understand what this is that they need in order to nurture all of themselves, for mankind has learned how to nurture their minds, but they have no idea, so many have no idea, how to nurture their souls. So this task I place before you my disciples. First, can you come to that place of soul awakening, can you come to your heavenly Father in such a way that His Touch will awaken all the wondrous gifts that are in you, the capacities for perception, the great channel of Love flowing clearly and abundantly through you, the great and intuitive understanding of Truth? Can you come to this place my beloveds? Are you willing to step forward in this way?

If you are, you know that we, the angels of Heaven, will surround you and support you and inspire you and protect you. You know that God's great Hand is upon each one of you. The only thing that holds you back from the awakening of your soul is you, your inability to have that faith, that trust, that awareness, that all you essentially need is God and with God, all else falls into place. With God your life becomes transformed. With God all that is within you becomes transformed. This is between you and God, my beloveds. Every soul has their path to trod, every soul is challenged in many ways to come to a place of purity and Love. We understand this, we see you, we see you in greater depth than you see yourselves. And we see within you a seed about to burst, a great growth within you that will bear much fruit as you walk in this world. Allow this seed to sprout, my beloveds, allow yourselves to grow and stretch and to awaken this new life that God has placed within your souls. May it truly awaken and spread into every part of you and your lives. And in this, God will use you in many ways, many capacities, many opportunities, many roads to take and doors to open, many souls to encounter, many Truths to express and be spoken, much healing to be given, and comfort, and Love.

It is like this dam of Love, these living waters, is about to burst and all of you are placing yourselves in front holding it back. You feel the capacity, the pressure of this great awakening coming, yet in your heart of hearts many of you are fearful of the effects of this water rushing over you, carrying you forward. What will you lose my brothers and sisters in this, what will you lose? You will gain far greater benefits than what you will lose, as this great dam of Love bursts and carries you forward. It is not destructive, but healing. It will bring change, there is no doubt about this. What is it that you can hold onto at this time that is so precious, so important that you cannot let go and allow God's mighty river to flow forth carrying you where you are meant to go, a life that is meant for an awakened soul? I speak to you very earnestly, my brothers and sisters, disciples all. I speak to you in Love. I speak to you because I continue to challenge each one of you to greater Love and greater understanding, to walk in this world as my disciples, disciples of Truth, disciples of Love.

This is a quality of the Divine Love, my beloveds, it challenges. It says come to harmony, come to God. Remember this, beloveds, for each of you must come to harmony and each of you is on that journey towards God. I will be with you. I will lead you and I will bring my Love and my Light for each one of you as you continue to struggle and meet this challenge and overcome these barriers and learn how to Love in this world so bereft of Love. God bless you, beloveds. I am Jesus and you know how much I do love you, my beloveds. I love you. I love you dearly. God bless you and keep you in His Light. God bless you.

Title: THE BEAUTIFUL GARDEN OF GOD'S LOVE

Spirit: St. Francis

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 13, 2017

Location: Encinitas, California

Yes, I walk in my brother's garden often, for this is as close to heaven as we may get, my beloveds. This beautiful condition of Love, the harmony that exists here, each soul that comes into this garden is affected, touched by this beauty and harmony. In this condition we can work and bring a blessing to each soul.

So I walk in the garden and I touch the souls that enter therein, as do many angels. It is a sanctuary just as you, my beloveds, are attempting to create a sanctuary where you live. So, our beloved Yogananda created a sanctuary where he lived. Create sanctuaries wherever you can, beloveds. Places where souls can come to be refreshed. Where they are reminded of the beauty of God's Creation and their souls uplifted.

Blessings to you, blessings to all of us who walk in this garden this day and everyday may you walk in the beautiful garden of God's Love.

God bless you, God bless you.

Title: ACCEPT THE DIVERSITY THAT GOD CREATED

Spirit: Yogananda

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 13, 2017

Location: Self Realization Center, Encinitas, California

Friends, I am indeed Yogananda and I thank you for coming to my sanctuary, for being in this place and adding your prayers to this beautiful garden. You see, Light is everywhere beloveds, Light is everywhere.

I am happy that the scales have fallen from your eyes, my two precious friends, that you see that I too have brought the Truth of God's Love into the world, that I too dedicated my life to soul awakening. Yes, my words were different, my teachings reflected my life and background, but you see each, each of you may bring some teaching to the world as your souls are ignited and aflame with Love so you may share this Love and share the Truth of this Love to whom you meet and speak to and embrace. So it takes all of us from many different religions and backgrounds and teachings who have seen the higher Truth of Love to bring this forward into the world so that the whole world may be a garden like this, beloveds. The whole world may be entranced by the condition of beauty and Love.

Is this not God's Will? Is not my God your God? Everyone's God? Think of the world in this way, my friends. Everyone is a child of God. Everyone must be loved and accepted and embraced. I do indeed inhabit the Celestial Kingdom and I know that you have wondered about this. Do not let your biases get in the way of your acceptance of the Truth. Know that each beautiful soul will bring forth their truth, their understanding, in their unique ways and their unique voice. Accept this beloveds, the world is diverse, it is full of differences, but you have a choice, as do all. Will you accept the differences of others and be tolerant or will you reject and say "what is like me is the most valid truth"?

Beloved souls, this earth is full of diversity. Wherever you go you will encounter differences, different perspectives, even different colours of skin. This is the way of the world. This is how God created us all, is it not, with these differences? When we bring them together, we create Truth, beautiful Truth.

My friend (Jimbeau), I am with you often and we have many conversations in spirit as you sleep. I thank you for introducing these dear souls (Jeanne & Al) to this place and to my presence. This will, I believe, create a beautiful relationship amongst you all as I continue to make efforts to bring Truth to this world, as do all the angels in Heaven.

Accept.... accept. Love..... Love. Breathe, breathe in Truth, that River of God, that Light of full understanding, that bliss of God's Love pouring into your souls. Filling that vessel, filling you up with Him.

It is so simple. Even a little yogi like me may understand it (laughter). It is so simple.

God bless you, beloveds. I will come again and speak with you. I have great love for you because you bring a light to this world and the more you can allow it to shine to all the people of this world, you will bring a change and a difference. You will light a candle, that will light a candle, that will light a candle in the world until the whole world is alight with Truth.

God bless you. I am Yogananda and I honour you, I honour each of you as beautiful souls of God's Love. God bless you.

Title: COUNT YOUR BLESSINGS

Spirit: Matthew

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 17, 2017

Location: Redding, California

I am Matthew. May the Father's Love find a deep and abiding place within your souls and may that Light continue to shine, shine forth, in your lives.

My son, the flame of this Love has been rekindled, has it not? You begin to feel it more profoundly within your life, within yourself. Continue to fan those flames beloved son, the flames of Love, and we will continue to assist you in your efforts to bring greater Truth into your consciousness, greater Love into your life. And you will come open to many insights and perceptions that await your recognition. As your soul grows in this Love, so do your perceptions and understandings and Truth grow within your soul and they wait your recognition and awakening to this very fact. We'll assist you in those decisions you must make within your life. We'll assist you to assist your families and loved ones. We'll assist you in being a channel of Love in this world, what the world needs, souls such as yourselves in-filled with this Love. The world needs this.

For many years you have down played the Light within your soul, not given it a great deal of recognition, but I tell you the time is coming, is now, to acknowledge that God has given you a special gift of His Love. This spiritual gift can bring benefits and blessings to others, because you have turned to God and acknowledged this great gift, prayed for this gift and allowed this Light, the blessing of His Love, to expand within your soul and change you, my beloved son. It has changed you. Look back within your life and you will recognize the changes that have been brought by the Hand of God within you. Allow this to continue, allow enfolding of your gifts, your soul, into your consciousness. Release the reluctance where everyone around you my son, will benefit by this, in many ways yet unanticipated, surprising, powerful, beautiful. When God touches a soul and touches a life, all are blessed, for in God's Economy and in the Grace of His Will, no one is harmed, no one will feel put out, but included, my beloved son, included in the sphere of Love that is created by this Blessing.

Each soul that commits themselves to these Truths while on earth reaps many rewards when they progress into spirit, for they do not have to go through the cleansing process, all of those details, reckonings, that many many must attend to when they are in spirit, no. It allows you to leap frog over these conditions into a place of Light and beauty, because the Love within your soul creates the conditions that allow this to happen. Another benefit, another blessing from God.

Acknowledge this my son, that you lay a firm foundation for your future. But the time on this earth is short and when you progress into the realms of spirit, you will look back and say "thank you God for showing me the way to the awakening of my soul in Love. What a boon this is for me." What a boon for anyone, who wishes to walk this path or partake in these living waters and be healed by God's Touch.

There are many around you who observe you my son, many who are benefiting by your example and many more will benefit by your example as you continue to progress in this Love. For you show the way for those in spirit who are connected to you, your loved ones, your ancestors. They watch, they observe, they learn by your efforts. So you see, these benefits are not just for you my son, but for many more, and many souls that you will encounter as you continue to live in this world, there will be benefits. Allow God to guide you my son. For God has a plan for you, which is unique, a path to be trod which is unique to you. If you allow yourself to follow this path, to take those turns and route upon this path, to the destination that God has planned for you, you will find a deep sense of satisfaction and joy in this. And as I have said, no one within your circle will be harmed or deprived in any way, because you have followed God's Will. All will be blessed, lives will be enhanced, solutions will come. Love will flow. This is what you long for, my son. You long for this, you continue to pray for this and God will answer your prayers, provided you listen and take those cues that you understand that are deep within you. Within your soul, are many promptings and your challenge at the moment is to listen. To listen with humility, to listen in faith and much will come from God to bless you and to guide you and to heal you.

I have spoken much to you my son, because it is rare that we have this opportunity. But you will be guided back and receive more guidance at various times in your life, because God Loves you. He Loves you dearly and He cares for you and takes care of you. As long as you continue to grow in this beautiful garden of God's souls, children of Love, you will benefit greatly. Be blessed mightily and walk in Grace. This is my promise to you, I will walk with you as well. Many from my side of life continue to walk with you, my son. You are protected, you are blessed, you are guided and you are Loved. What great treasures are these, beloved son, to any man.

Continue to count your blessings and to acknowledge the great boon of the Father's Love within your life and we will continue to guide you further, open doors of understanding, open your eyes so that you may readily recognize the great blessings from God and the Will of God. God bless you, I am Matthew and I am with you, beloved son. It is a blessing to be with you and to speak to you in this way. Remember that I speak in Love. I speak in encouragement, I speak somewhat earnestly because every soul who yearns for this Love must grasp each day as the possibilities of receiving more of this gift and utilizing it's benefits in a myriad of ways in ones life. Every soul must understand this and walk in this beautiful Light, be an example to others. This is so important in this world so bereft, so bereft of Light and Love and God needs every instrument and channel of Love on this world actively seeking and serving and in the flow of His Will.

So I wish you God speed, my beloved, may God bless you mightily, in this great river of Love, that shall carry you and shall bless you and keep you in the Light. God bless you beloveds. God bless you.

Title: A KISS OF LOVE

Spirit: Andrew

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 19, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

May the Holy Spirit touch your souls, beloveds, that you may open and flower to this Holy Touch. As God places His Hand upon you and reaches to give you a kiss, a kiss of Love, a kiss of acknowledgement, as He embraces your precious soul, for each of you are His children, His creation of Love. And each of you have within you the ability, the perception, to know this Truth deep within you, to acknowledge the beauty of your own creation, and to open yourselves, putting aside those human conditions that you may feel the rapturous communion with your God, who always awaits those moments of true connection, of Love.

You are held at this time my beloveds, in this Grace, this Peace that passes all understanding. Drink deep these living waters of Love, for they are the food for the soul. They will heal all, all things within you that are not of Love. God's Living Waters pour into the vessel of your soul beloveds, bringing deep joy and peace, showing you the way home, to the Light that you seek, the true joy that comes with the soul unburdened and enwrapped in God's Love.

God will carry you my beloveds, He carries you, uplifts you, Loves you. All your needs will be cared for. All your burdens lifted. All your questions answered. All your desires that are true and of the soul, fulfilled. It comes with the out-pouring of His Love into you, and that flow is never ending, that journey infinite, that knowing expanding on forever. Feel His Touch my beloveds, and know that you are loved beyond measure. Know that you are loved. God bless you. I am Andrew and I love you.

Title: YOU CAN CHANGE THE WORLD

Spirit: Mahatma Gandhi

Medium: Al Fike

(photo- San Francisco)

I am Mahatma Gandhi and I wish to communicate with this dear soul that hosts you in this home and tell her that I have been with her and I have brought my influence to her to assist her in the work that she does and the work that will manifest in her lifetime to help bring harmony to this world. There is a great door that is about to open, my friend, for you in service. You have prepared yourself well. You have deep insights and a soul that longs to serve God. And God will not waste your talents and your aspirations. God will use those who wish to serve and will bring forth opportunities that will bring Light and Peace and Truth to this world.

You have been waiting for this, my daughter. Your soul knows this to be true, and it is for you now to walk through the threshold of that mighty door and to serve those precious souls that are awaiting. And your dear son as well carries this light, and you will support and assist him to bring the healing and a higher level of consciousness to those he desires to touch. Help him to see that God will give all that is required for those who are willing to serve as His Instruments of change and Light in the world. Help him to know God, beloved soul. For every soul seeks the Creator, every soul has a knowing of God yet few understand this. Most are locked away in their minds, believing this is all there is. I tell you, if you can unlock that door and migrate your consciousness to your soul, great wonders await. Deeper, fuller understanding will come. And God will speak to you and give you what you require to serve humanity that is so in need of upliftment and truth and love.

I was one little man who changed the course of history in my world, my country. Where did this little man get his strength, his insight, his resolve--it was from God. It was by the Grace of God that I moved and spoke and loved. Think of me as you traverse this world and when you see things that need changing, know that with the Grace of God you may exert an effect that will bring greater harmony to your world. When one moves in faith, great works may be done. When one does so with humility and a desire to know God's Will, wondrous works can be done. God needs all the lights, all the beautiful souls, to bring change and harmony to light up the world. Are you willing? Remember that this little man opened the eyes of many, was loved by many, because I followed the Truth, I spoke the Truth, and I was steadfast with God. Each of you has this capacity and ability. Each of you can change the world with enough faith, with enough resolve, equipped with Truth and a love of God.

I thank you for listening to me. I will continue to assist you, beloved daughter, in your efforts. For every soul that aspires for Light has an angel with them at all times. You are never alone. God is always with you.

God bless you, beloved souls. I am Gandhi and I walk with you. God bless you.

Title: WALK IN HIS LIGHT EACH DAY

Spirit: Laila

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 19, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

My name is Laila and I lived many, many years ago in this world and I am now an inhabitant of the Celestial Kingdom. I want you to know, my beloved friends who reside in this city, that I work with you and I am helping you to form your little band of Light, your circle of Love. Do not worry as to who will come to your little circle. God will guide those souls who are earnest and who are seeking the Love, the healing and the relief, comfort that comes with these prayers. To form this little circle is to bring a blessing to many others, for you bank the flames, the Light together that will warm many souls who are close. God will add His Blessings to many as you pray earnestly for this gift and blessing for those you love, to the many who are connected to each one of you who are a part of this circle. There is no need to worry of numbers, only of commitment and a deep desire for the Father's Love and its healing Touch upon you, upon many. And so these little flames are being ignited around the world, one of many, one of a multitude. You need not worry my beloved, but follow, follow your guidance and walk in Light, walk in Light and be in peace one day at a time, one day at a time. I will be with you, as will many who desire to work with you and to help you with your ministry. God has a Plan. All you need do is listen and walk day by day with a desire to be a channel of Love, to do His Will, to be His Child in Light, to pray for His Love, to walk within the footsteps of the Master. Keep it simple. I will continue to be with you. Pray for my assistance and I will be there. You will know me in time and we will be good friends on this journey of Love. God bless you.

My name is Laila. And I lived in what you call Israel and I followed the Master Jesus when he walked the earth. God bless you. He has asked me to be your protector, to assist you in your work. It is my privilege and honour and joy to do so. God bless you, God bless you, beloved soul.

Spirit: Jesus

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 20, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon,

My dear brothers and sisters, come and drink of the living waters of God's Love. Their hearts are parched in these desert places of life, and they have come to be refreshed. Father, bless them, bless them in their desire and eagerness to be embraced by You. For they know Love and they wish to know Love more abundantly. May you refresh them, Father, in the flow of your Love, these wondrous waters that heal and bind the wounds that give hope and faith, that bring knowledge and strength, that guide and heal and bring the Peace that passes all understanding.

Beloved souls, you sit in the midst of God's Presence. Drink deep these waters. Seek with the yearnings of your souls, open your eyes to this Truth and reality that you are loved, loved beyond measure, loved like a mighty ocean, loved everlasting.

The time comes in your world where many will seek fellowship together, for they have become weary of the many distractions of this world, and their souls seek for something of greater substance and greater meaning. My beloveds, I urge you to come together in love, seek the fellowship that comes with prayer and longing together, the opening of your souls and your hearts, that you may find a strength and a connection and the grace that comes with prayer. For you will need these things in the times to come, as the conditions of this world shift and change, as the old ways begin to crumble. It is the power of Love and the human heart that will bring a new world, a new way of being that will not only benefit yourselves but for those generations to come. For the world is parched, it is desolate and needs Love and you, my beloveds, have come together and you feel a yearning within you, a desire for the awakening of your souls. My beloveds, your souls become awakened with Love. Your souls find the joy that it seeks, the knowing, the peace, with Love. And the highest Love in all in the universe is the Love of God. Seek these living waters, God's Essence, His Love, and a whole new world will open to you, my beloveds, a world that is full of wonder, a world that never ends, where Love Divine flows like a mighty river and it will carry you into greater Light.

God enfolds you at this time and will enfold each soul that seeks the Grace, the Love, the Touch from God. Seek it with each day, take your time, and pray. Even if you are unknowledgeable of prayer, set some time aside in your life each day and talk to God for you will receive an answer, a sign, an acknowledgement. And if you ask God to place His Love within your soul, He shall surely do so. And it will build, this Blessing, this Life will build within your soul. In time you will become at one with God as His Essence transforms you and makes you whole, fully healed, and filled with joy and true knowledge. This invitation is to every soul in the world. It is a simple, simple question, “Will you come and be with Me, with your heavenly Father, will you spend a few moments with me for I have much to give to you, bountiful blessings, Divine? Be with Me and you will know Me, be with Me and you will know your true selves. Be at Peace, for I bring Peace. Feel my Love, and you will feel the true acknowledgement and the glory that is you in your life.”

God’s invitation is for all. A simple prayer, a simple desire, a willingness to be open, to be blessed, is all that is required, for God’s Love is for every soul upon this world, no matter what religion or culture or colour of skin. No, these things matter not. It is the yearning of the soul, the yearning of the soul, where every child upon this planet has a soul and within that soul is a seed that yearns to come awake and alive. And God will touch that soul and awaken that soul and bring new life to that soul if it but open and receive this gift of Love.

Blessed and beloveds, I come. I am Jesus and I love you. God bless you.

Title: SOUL LONGING IS PRAYER

Spirit: Augustine

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 21, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

May the Father's Love find a constant inflowing into your souls, my beloveds. May you find what your souls seek, for this is what God beckons you to do, to come to know the longings of your souls, to come to know God in this way. For in truth, the mind has very little to do with the spiritual progression of the soul. All those speculations and doctrines are somewhat irrelevant, for the soul knows how to go to God. The soul longs to be with God. Your souls long to be with God.

May God uplift you from the human condition, those conditions of thought and emotions made by mankind, produced from each in this world, which often create a barrier to God. For when you pray with earnestness, when you long to be with God, you clear away these myths of thoughts, and a clear day comes upon you and you are touched within your soul.

It is your longing, beloved souls. It is that desire within your soul that beseeches God to respond, for this is a law. Prayer is an expression of your soul longing. Prayer is the conduit from which you connect with God. And when you are open within yourself, when you allow yourself to feel that longing rising up within, beseeching God to be with you, to Love you, to Heal you, to bring His Peace upon you. How many books, how many words, are necessary when this true longing goes forth from you? This act is simple. This act is honest. There is no obfuscation, no blurring of the Truth in this simple desire, longing in prayer to be with God.

So you may study a thousand books, a million books, but this will not bring you to God, my beloved. It may at times clear away some of the obstacles, but it is your willingness to go to God, trusting, opening, feeling what is there, in this Divine connection. It is personal, beautiful, infinite. What more do you need, my beloved? The knowledge of the world is as nothing when you have this relationship with God, for all else pales in comparison. All else is as nothing. For it is in forging this relationship with your Creator that will carry you through, not only a life here in this world, but will carry you far into the next until you come to that threshold of the Celestial Heavens and enter therein, at one with God. And yet even this is the beginning of the journey that never ends. The only thing that you take with you when you pass into spirit is your soul, your soul, your spirit. Here life on earth is fleeting and what you accumulate here doesn't even form your experiences in the next world. But of course you cannot take those things of the material with you, but you do take those acts of Love, a generous heart, a life well lived in the flow of Love. You carry these things with you and they bring Light and Grace into your life, into the next life. And when you acknowledge your soul as you are in this prayer, you bring the highest blessing of God's Love. And this shall give you a great opening, an awareness, a gift of life, will begin to re-make your soul, to transform your being and heal all the burden-ship and this will bring you into the higher spheres of Light, my beloved. It will allow you to side step many layers of spirit that are not of Light, that are imbued with challenges. Yet many in this world are not aware of this, give this no thought whatsoever.

What am I creating in my life? Where does this lead me? What are the consequences of my thoughts and my actions? There are of course consequences in this world, but do you consider the consequences that come in the next? For you carry every thought and action within you. Your capacity to love directly informs where you will be in the world of spirit, when you pass. Those thoughts and actions may weigh upon you or bring you joy, depending in part what they contain, what your choices have been in this world.

I ask you to consider these things, my friends. What are your desires and intentions? How do you act, what do you think? Are your thoughts and actions informed by Love or things of the flesh and the material? For much of the conditions of this world detract from your own spiritual inner harmony and your overt actions. And so you must, if you so desire, seek for something higher, bring yourself to a place of Light, of Love, and the power of God's Divine Love. This great Blessing can fuel your intentions, your thoughts, your actions in a way that brings more harmony and Light and Truth into your life. God provides all that you require, beloved souls. If you but open yourself to this flow of Love and Healing and Truth and Peace, Comfort, that God wishes to give to each one, here and in this world. Too often man wishes to be independent, thinking this is strength, this is the measure of a man. Yet it is that vulnerability, that willingness to go to God, to seek the help of God, to seek the blessings of God, that brings true strength, true perception, a deeper capacity to Love and to bring greater harmony into your life. And this, so very few understand. So very few.

Mankind has created a great folly in this world, built up for himself a world that is not in harmony with God's Creation that will inevitably crumble. For those things that are not in harmony with God, cannot last, they cannot last. But when you build your foundation upon the rock of God's Existence, and Love and Truth, you have built something that will last for all eternity. Come to know God, my beloved, come to know the Truth of His Love, His Creation, the harmony that comes with His beautiful, intricate world. And you will know a deep joy, abiding peace, a never ending flow of Love, that will become more precious to you than any material accumulations you may bring to yourself. Life will become simple, your desires different. What brings you joy, what brings you fulfillment, will be born within the Truth of God's Love and Creation and bring great harmony within and without.

Can you live in this simple way, my beloveds, can you try? Are you able to cast off the vestiges of materialism, the fear that you will want for something? For God provides your needs. This does not mean you will live a life of deprivation, no my beloved, but what will become fulfilling will be different from what most find and seek to fulfill their appetites. You will have an appetite, my beloveds, but it will be an appetite of the soul. You will be ravenous for the Love of God and His Touch. It will be what fills you and fulfills you.

I urge you to continue to pray together for His Love and Touch. I urge you to continue to discuss these issues that are so relevant to your lives, to the life of humanity in this world, to study how you may forge a greater relationship with your Creator and to pray to get there and assert your desire to be close to God, to pray individually, each and every day, a simple and heartfelt prayer. "Father let me know of your Existence, of your Love, open my soul to the inflowing of your Divine Essence, help me to change, to come into more harmony, to be at peace". And with this simple prayer, a whole world will open to your consciousness, a world that is not transient, built upon error, a world that is solid and real, purposeful and beautiful. Thank you for coming together, my beloved students. Thank you for praying, for making that effort. I will continue to come and teach. I will impress upon each one of you, more Truths. You will know this inspiration in a conscious way and my love will be with you.

God's Love surrounds you beloveds. Walk in this Love, walk in this Love, the world needs more who will walk in Love . God bless you. God bless you, I am Augustine and I love you.

Title: COME TO KNOW YOUR OWN SOUL

Spirit: Icarious

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 21, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

I am Icarious and I lived in Phoenicia many hundreds, thousands of years ago. I come to talk about what it is that you desire, compared to what it is that God desires. God desires for you, my beloved souls, to come to know your own soul. As well as this, He asks that you come to know the relationship between your soul and God's Soul. You know how this is accomplished, for you are practicing the tenants of Divine Love, these principles you have seen work, have their effect upon you and give you a deep sense of who you truly are. You are coming to open your eyes to God's Presence and Being. As your souls are awakened in Love, so your souls, the faculties of your soul, become ignited, opened, they become a part of your reality. So with these faculties you are able to understand the deeper Truths, the Presence of God. You come to see us, the angels, more clearly.

In this awakening and development of your souls, expansion of your souls in Love, your priorities shift, your perspectives shift, your desires change. For most, their desires originate from their minds, but you have discovered there are deeper desires within your soul. This is what you are focusing upon and this is what God compels you to focus upon. As you follow these desires, as you follow the road that draws you forward into greater life, you release these other desires of the mind because you see them as irrelevant. They are not truly a part of you any more. For many of you there is a conflict between these two sets of desires. Your mind still wishes to hold on to its ideas and its perspective of reality, its wants and needs, something that you have been nurturing for many, many years in your life. Yet something radical and new is happening within you, the awakening of your soul. You, my beloveds, must give yourself time to adjust, to allow this new set of desires, this new reality to settle into your consciousness and to honour this new self, emerging tender, and sensitive, and young.

Love your soul, my beloveds, nurture your soul with prayer, with acknowledgement, with patience and understanding. For to be born again is truly to have the tenderness and newness of a babe and you must nurture this new child within you, this awakening soul that will bring you deeper understanding, greater love, deeper peace, fulfillment in God. In time these conflicts of the mind and the soul will dissipate. As you learn to walk and grow and be comfortable within this new self, you will look back upon these intense desires that you once had and find some amusement in your perspective, for the immature human is the one that is carried exclusively by the perceptions and desires of the mind. You, my dear souls, are maturing in this beautiful way and this is what humanity must come to. You are the vanguards, you are leading the way, you are brave and strong enough to say “I desire this, I want to be an enlightened soul”. When you are indeed filled up with Love and alive with new perceptions and joyful and sure in your knowing and being, this is the time when you will walk forward amongst your brothers and sisters and say “I know a way, a way out of your dilemmas, of all our dilemmas, and it is Love”.

Love changes, Love empowers, Love gives, and gives and gives without a feeling of resentment, without feeling that you have been drained or that you are losing something in the exchange of Love. No, the power of God’s Love burning within your soul, burning bright and clear, empowers to such a degree that the flow and the acts that come from this will empower many others without diminishing yourself. For when you walk in the flow of God’s Love and Will, all your needs are fulfilled. There is harmony with each footfall, there is peace and joy. This is your goal, my beloveds, and I know you struggle. I know you have your wants and needs and you beseech God to give what you think you need. But I say, God already fulfills your needs. Are you not sheltered and fed and protected and loved? Yes, my beloveds, your needs are met. And often when you cry out, feeling in that place of inequity in your life, it is really a cry for more love, to be loved and to love yourself. When you see others and feel judgment or envy or any such emotion, it is because you still cannot accept your own beautiful being in perfect Love. These are merely markers of your own progression indicating the requirement of greater prayer, more faith, more to release, more to heal. But I tell you, you are so much farther ahead than many, many upon this world who are so numb that they do not even feel their needs, their hurts and pains. They are lost in the darkness of their own confusion and lack of Love. You feel, my beloveds, you feel. You are aware and at times this awareness, these feelings, are difficult to accept, to acknowledge. But this is all part of the healing that comes with the birth of your souls and you must accept that this road is not easy. But with these great strains and difficulties comes great rewards in the end as you work your way through the cleansing process of your soul.

For each soul must go through expiation, healing, and cleansing. As the Love pours in, so these conditions must fall away and the greatest pain of all is when you hold on and make it difficult to follow. Allow God to heal you, my beloveds. Allow God to transform you with His Love. Allow yourself to be carried, to be comforted, to be guided, to be loved. It is in this trust and faith, it is in allowing God to soothe your troubled soul, to make you whole again, and to make you into something other than human, a Divine Angel. This is the path you are treading upon, my beloveds. Transformation is not easy. The transformation of your soul is the greatest event of your existence. It is powerful, it is intense. It brings up many emotions and thoughts that are not pleasant, yet the angels surround you as you may weep. The angels comfort you as you feel this pain, as you are angered by your own sense of worthlessness or deprivation or the inequities of your life. But you must confront these things within you and allow them to fall away, for these heavy conditions cannot coexist with the Light. If you are to rise up to God, you must be unburdened and you know how this is possible. As you receive this Love, so the cleansing, the healing takes place. Accept this, my beloveds, accept the process that will transform you. I assure you that you will know great joy and relief and the ecstasy of knowing God, being in harmony with your heavenly Father, being in harmony with life, being in harmony with yourself.

What more can a soul ask? As you traverse this Path, the power and glory and intensity of these things will only get greater and greater. It is God's Promise to you: "As I bring you closer to my soul, you will feel the glory and ecstasy of my embrace". You desire this, my beloveds. In each of your souls is a true desire to be at one with God. You are all walking in this direction, you are all continuing to shed the burdens that hold you from this. You shall continue to shed those things as God blesses you with His Love, as God guides you and teaches you, shows you the way, as we walk by your side for you are never alone, my beloveds, never. We are always with you and God's Hand rests upon you. Be joyful that you have found the true way of Love, that you are on the road to Light so exquisite and beautiful that you could not understand at this time but will as you continue to be awakened, as the eyes of your soul open, as your true self emerges from the human condition and becomes in alignment with God.

Beloved souls, I am with you on your journey. I am Icarious. I am happy to speak to you this day. God bless you and keep you in His Love and soothe your troubled souls and bring you joy and peace. God bless you. And I love you. God loves you.

Title: I WILL BRING YOU TOGETHER

Spirit: Mary

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 21, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

I will bring you together, my children. I am Mary. I come to tell you that I will bring you together from time to time. It is important that you have this time together for each contributes, adds to the whole and brings a greater Light to this world, and to yourselves. God has brought you together and you will continue to come together at various times in your lives to replenish, to contribute your knowledge, to be in that Light together, to affirm your progression, to take note of your love bonds together and to strengthen these bonds. For there will be times in the future where you will need one another, and you will help one another, and you will assist in this work to bring healing to this world.

Beloved souls, you are cherished by God, each one of you. Beautiful souls in the world, continue in your efforts, your desires to be a channel of Love and we will continue to support you in this and God will continue to bless you mightily. We thank you for your efforts each one, for your loving counsel one to another, for the love that you have shared, how you have brought in those souls who are hungry. You will continue to gather the souls and bring this simple Truth to the hearts of many. And I will watch over you, my beloveds, as you work and serve God in Love.

God bless you. I am Mary. And I love you dearly. God bless you, Beloveds.

Title: CHOOSE TO BE AN INSTRUMENT OF GOD

Spirit: Andrew

Medium: Al Fike

Date: May 22, 2017

Location: Bend, Oregon

We are well pleased with these two instruments who have traveled far, have been an instrument and channel to touch many souls. They have followed their guidance. Each day has been a blessing and each day has not been wasted, for God uses His instruments in many ways, on many levels. I know you may not from one day to the next recognize that God is using you as a channel of His Love. It is nonetheless the truth and you have seen how God has carried you on a wave of Love, has brought people to you. You have come to touch others with a smile, a comment, an intention to be a channel of Love for that day. This is how it is, my beloveds, your intention and desire to be a channel of Love with each day will bring a multitude of experiences and connections in the day. For God uses your gifts and your presence to touch many souls. And because you have walked in faith, you have said “yes, I will journey forward and seek to be Your instrument”, that these many events have come to pass, some of overt recognition and love and others more subtle. But it is because you have chosen to move in the world, to walk amongst mankind, to hold your head up in love and a willingness to connect with many other souls that God has used you in this way and will use each beautiful soul who says I am willing, I am willing to walk amongst my brothers and sisters as a Light.

God needs many instruments, many instruments that are willing to do so. And though within your minds you see no rhyme or reason, nothing purposeful or logical, you are not being used in this way, you are being used as a channel of Love. It is your soul awakened and guided that is active in this regard. It requires your faith, my beloveds, to walk in faith with a certain confidence that God will guide you, that the unfolding of each day is guided, directed, utilized fully. Your willingness, your openness, your desire to be a channel with each day that comes, will set forth many events, unexpected, often subtle, but powerful in the way that souls are affected, seeds are planted, Light is shared, Love is given.

So, my beloveds, each day is a gift, each day is full of potential and possibilities if you are but willing to following the promptings of God’s Guidance, to be inspired, to continuously connect yourself with God, that that flow from God through you and to you is constant. Even a prayer in your home alone may be utilized to benefit others. There are many, many ways that God can use you, my beloveds. Do not put limitations on these possibilities. Do not judge yourself as not being an instrument of God because you do not see how God uses you. No, my beloveds, continue to assert this understanding that I am an instrument of God, I am a channel of His Love, I will be guided by God. And it shall be so as long as you do not put any barriers in the way. God will guide you to where you are meant to go, who you are meant to be with, how the unfolding of His great Plan for the salvation of mankind will include you and your life in this great Plan. It is that innocence, that faith, that clarity of mind, that deep intention of your soul that will bring about what is meant to be in your life. Each of you walks a unique path, each has unique gifts, each can be utilized in many different ways. There is no need to be analytical or highly intentional. No, merely walk in faith, openly and innocently guided, through your days. And each step you take will lead to the next and the next and your life will be an expression of Light, a channel of Love. When your days are over and you look back upon your life, you will look back with a sense of satisfaction, of joy. I have lived my life in the flow of God's Will. I have dedicated myself as a channel of His Love and my soul is alight with His Love. My life has been touched by His Love. My actions are informed by His Love. Beloveds, continue as you have, to be a channel of Love in the world and all will unfold in harmony and beautiful light.

I thank each of you that you have these intentions and desires to be a channel of Love. We in spirit will continue to accompany you, as we too are a part of this great Plan. We too, act as God's Channels and Instruments and we utilize your gifts and presence in many ways. And thus the flow of the chain of Light continues to be forged in this world. Blessings to you, my beloved, blessings upon your journeys. May each footfall be blessed. May each act be an act of Love within the Grace of God. May every thought be of the highest. May everyone you meet receive a blessing of some sort which God will place upon them, as long as you are a clear and willing channel for this. God bless you, beloveds. I am Andrew and I love you.
